Week's Sermonette

That Great Shepherd By CHARLES G. WESTON (Paster Evangelistic Tabernacle)

Text: Heb. 13:20. Sheep have need of a shepherd. They are helpless before so many ills that prey upon them. Mankind also has need of a shepherd, being a prey to many ills which he is powerless to entirely overcome.

Man's greatest enemy is selfishness and greed. From that tyrant the human race has suffered untold miseries and sorrow. Another great enemy to man is lust. This deceiver lures his prey with rosy prospects, and has been able through his enchantments to ensuare both the strong and the weak. Oh, the heartache, the bitter shame, the fever of remorse caused by this monster. But, the most subtle enemy is pride. He would have us to cover our needs and assume an air of self-sufficiency and independence. He is a thief with polished manners. He would rob us of our rightful shepherd.

How simple, yet how sweet and appropriate, these loving words, "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest to your souls." God's Son, sent to shepherd us in the way of life, gives the call, and adds, "Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.'

Most everyone wants this kindly Shepherd as their pathway draws nigh to the valley of death. Why not follow Him now and learn to know the depth of His holy fellowship? He who went to the cross unflinchingly will inspire your heart to play the man. He will never lead you in any path that you need be ashamed of. Walking with Him who overcame, you will find strength also to overcome. Following Him whose very spirit is peace you may have real peace. The springs of true nobility are found in Him. He is God's great gift to us on the first Christmas day.
