Hold Open House For Salem Boys

Boys of Salem! This week and next is Open House at the Y. M. C. A. Go over and play table croquet with billiard balls and queues, ping pong, checkers, and chess in the lobby. The gym is open to your use with a basketball court, gymnasium apparatus, and handball courts.

Then there's that 20 by 60 foot swimming pool down stairs with a diving board and plenty of room to play in the water. Hot and cold showers add to the comforts of the building.

This week, the "Y" is sending out greeting cards to all the boys of Salem whose addresses the staff can get who are in the fourth grade and above, inviting boys to the Y.

Police Report Windows Shot By Air Rifles

Shooting into the windows of two Salem homes, Friday night, seemed to be the idea of excitement of some young "desperadoes." Police answered two calls within half an hour. Nobody was injured although reports show that the acts were deliberate. The shooting appears to have been done by a high powered air rifle.

The first complaint to the police came at 7:30 p.m. from C. D. Compton of 1397 South 13th street who claimed that a bullet penetrated his window and struck his chair. The pane was not smashed, but made a small hole. On reaching the door of his home, he saw a boy retreating down the street. Only one of the two shots fired entered the window.

Less than a half an hour later, R. D. Barton informed the police that the front window of his home had been broken. The damage was similar to that of the Compton home. Barton's investigation showed a number of boys going down the street on bicycles.

W. C. T. U. FAVORS WORLD COURT

Urgent request for the speedy adherence of the United States to the protocol creating membership in the World court, was urged by the North Salem W. C. T. U. in a letter forwarded Senator Charles McNary during the week. The organization voted unanimously that the senator be informed of the unified backing of the W. C. T. U. for America's entrance into the court.

"Practically all the nations of the world are allied in this judicial provision for adjudicating the international problems and disagreements. America has long enough hedged and made political excuse in regard to her place among other nations," the letter reads.

"It is as clear as any measure of such importance ever before the legislative body of the people of America that it is their will to take this step forward in international machinery for peace and justice."

The topic for the day at the time the letter was agreed upon, was "International Relations." Mrs. Snyder was leader. Rev. Hugh Fouke gave an inspiring address on world peace as one feature of the gathering. The meeting was held in the Jason Lee church.
