"At Home" Honors Anniversary and Birthday

Dr. and Mrs. George Lewis were hosts for an attractive "at home" Sunday evening between the hours of 8:30 and 10:30 o'clock in compliment to their seventh wedding anniversary and also the birthday of Dr. Lewis.

About 80 invitations were extended for this pleasant occasion and guests called all during the receiving hours. Miss Elsie Miller assisted in receiving the guests. A buffet supper was served. The guest rooms were gay with Christmas symbols and here all during the evening, a pleasant social time was enjoyed.

A surprise introduced into the occasion was the announcement of the engagement of the daughter of Miss Dada Wintermute, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wintermute to Albert Walker. The wedding date is indefinite.

Eastern Star Children to be Feted

An annual affair anticipated by children in Eastern Star family circles is the Eastern Star social club's Christmas party. This year's celebration will take place this afternoon beginning at 2:30 o'clock in the social rooms of the Wisconsin temple. Mrs. Louis Olson, who has been social chairman for the club this year, announced that the committee has a Christmas tree and program already to entertain the young guests as well as club members.

The committee who has planned the afternoon's program is headed by Mrs. Bernice Blodgett, and she is assisted by Jennie Uley, Florence Ferris, Gretchen Olson, Emma McCarter, Marjorie Merritt, Lean Clinton, Minnie Stewart, Minnie Baker, Hazel Pickens, Gussie Niles, Josie Anderson, Mrs. Blyvens, Josephine Christensen, Marie Flint McCall, Blanche Wheeler, Mrs. R. T. Pennington were entertained at lunch in the White House recently by President and Mrs. Hoover. President Pennington is on a year's leave of absence from Pacific college, and is visiting friends and relatives in the central and eastern states. With Mrs. Pennington, Pres. Pennington plans to sail for Europe early in March, where they will spend several weeks in England and Ireland. They expect to return to Newberg early in the summer.

Mrs. Mae C. Gingrich has just been notified that a bracelet design originated by her to be used as a national honor in Campfire work will be used by Everygirl's magazine and will be sent to national headquarters for adoption as a part of the Campfire symbolism.

Miss Sutherland Entertains

Mrs. Bertha Carl Sutherland entertained with a Christmas party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Carl Saturday evening. Prof. Herman Clark was an honor guest.

Each guest brought a gift and following an evening of fun and a late supper the gifts were gathered together to be distributed to those in need.

Prof. Clark as honor guest was presented with an attractive gift as a token of esteem from the group gathered for this Christmas party.

Guests were Miss Barbara Barham, E. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Porter, Raymond Carl, Prof. and Mrs. Herman Clark, and daughters, Miss Carol and Miss Carlisle Clark, Miss Frances Graham, Miss Helen Ney, Mrs. P. L. Frazier, Mrs. J. W. Clark, Mrs. C. F. Hagman, Miss Ruth Baumgartner, Mrs. A. L. Skewis, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilbur, Miss Mildred Gardner, Miss Bernice Rickman, H. R. McWhorter, Clinton Chaperling.

One of the many happy Christmas parties of this season was that enjoyed by a group of the girls from the Grand, Elsinore and Capitol theatres Saturday night at the home of Miss Belores Mills, with Miss Florence Allport and Miss Eva Kerber as assistant hostesses.

The guest rooms of the Mills home were beautifully arranged with holly mistletoe, red tapers and in the living room a large Christmas tree, beautifully lighted, shed its glow over the guests as cards were in play at four tables. Later in the evening there was an exchange of gifts and then the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Mills, served a late supper.

Miss Ann Maroney and Mrs. May Kelley held the winning scores for the evening of cards. Guests for this event were Miss Ann and Miss Mary Maroney, Miss Leona Gardner, Miss Mildred Talon, Miss Florence Allport, Miss Eva Kerber, Miss Fieda Hickman, Miss Lavelle Keene, Miss Dorothy Hooper, Miss Annabelle Rosenthal, Miss Elma Jantzen, Miss Mildred Kirk, Miss Blanche Howatt, Miss Irma Green, Mrs. Mary Kelley, Mrs. Lila Wilson, Mrs. Lucile Mitchell, Mrs. Aldine Scott, Mrs. Alma Gooch and Miss Mills.

West Salem — Mrs. J. A. Gosser entertained a group of juniors Saturday evening, honoring the thirteenth birthday of her son, Winston Gosser. Games occupied the evening hours after which Mrs. Gosser served refreshments. Guests were Margaret Kaster, Doriene Baker, Eleanor West, Maizie Radkey, Merle Kaster, Raymond Griffin, Robert Langhoff, Harvey Griffin, Jack Gosser and Winston Gosser.

A banquet and program will be given in commemoration of the martyrdom of Philipino here, Dr. Jose Rizal, Saturday night at 8 o'clock at the Marion hotel by members of the Salem Philipino club.

Salem Heights — Miss Maids Caldwell, who is teaching at Joseph, arrived at the Heights Saturday to spend Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Caldwell.

Miss Ruth S. Parsons has left for Eugene where she will spend the weekend with her brother, Dr. Phillip A. Parsons.

Christmas Parties Form Campfire Fun

Numerous parties are being planned by the Campfire groups of Salem. Among those that have already been given was the Saturday evening party given by Maxine Stout as leader of the Rose Blue Bird group, at the home of Mrs. John Campbell. A play "A Quarter to Christmas" and presents given out by a rose Santa Claus and a group of readings and Christmas carols made up a happy evening.

Parents were invited to this party and the guest list included Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell and Miss Echo and Dyrain Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Collar, and Miss Edith and Ada Collar, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Malson and Milly Malson, Mrs. Marie Putnam and Rebecca and David Putnam, Mrs. O. Schultz, and Ruby, Freda and Albert Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Klinger, Juanita Klinger, Mrs. Lepper and Marjorie and Bruce Lepper, Muriel Lindstrom, Mrs. Schmitt, Ora McDowell, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Stout and Maxine Stout.

The Stalsuye Campfire group held its annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Bella Brown Saturday night. The group went in a body to sing carols at several different homes, and presented the Old People's home with a beautiful plant.

After the carols the group returned to the Brown home and there games and an exchange of gifts were enjoyed. Refreshments were served after the gifts had been exchanged.

Those who were present for this occasion were Maxine Stout, Marjorie Schomaker, Esther Hunsaker, Wanda Rose, Virginia Myers, Helen Moullet, Louise Brown, Betty Brown, Mrs. L. Stout, and Mrs. Belle Brown.

Mrs. Gordon Black, advisor for the Wesley Epworth league of the Jason Lee church was happily surprised Saturday night when the members of the league came to assist her in celebrating her birthday. Christmas formed a jolly part of this pleasant evening.

Encinitis Club Has Progressive Party

Miss Mildred Judson was hostess at her home for the first part of Saturday evening to the members of the Encinitis club. Cards were in play and refreshments were served. From Miss Judson's home the group went to the home of Miss Esther Hilmer where games were enjoyed and a second course of refreshments was served. The evening of progressive fun closed with a Christmas tree beautifully decked with gifts.

Those who enjoyed this progressive Christmas party were Mrs. W. E. Judson, special guest, Mrs. William Hamilton, the club advisor; Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher, Y. W. C. A. secretary; Miss Betty Eloffson, Miss Evelyn Poulsen, Miss Esther Hilmer, Miss Anona Welch, Miss Mildred Judson, Miss Elizabeth Welch, Miss Mabel Currie, Miss Gertrude Chamberlain, Miss Beale Tucker, Miss Alice Falk, Miss Marguerite Farmer, Miss Lora Parker of Mouthout, Miss L. Veda Carter and Miss Lulu Eastridge.

Kingwood — The Book and Thimble club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ray Lacey for its regular monthly meeting. A short business session was held, after which the period usually devoted to a program was given to a Christmas gift exchange and surprise Christmas boxes were packed for two friends of the club members.

A beautifully trimmed Christmas tree lent a festive air to the Lacey home.

Mrs. Elmer Cook will be hostess to the club members January 8, with Mrs. Charles Schwartz and Mrs. L. H. Brown in charge of the program.

Ladies present were Mesdames Mary Beaver, Ross Damrell, Elmer Cook, E. W. St. Pierre, A. J. Kreuzer, Ray Ferguson, Charles Schwartz, Charles Adams, Conrad Fox, Jr., Charles Hathaway, Helvie Simpkins and the hostess, Mrs. Lacey.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reiling were Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. Will Lichte, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Bauman, Mr. and Mrs. C. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs.

SANTA CLAUS' WAREHOUSE

(EDNA GARFIELD)
Santa Claus' warehouse is jammed to the roof with every conceivable thing To bring joy—such lots!—to dear little tots Who, world over, Santa songs sing.

St. Nicholas is busy, for he is the king, And is anxiously waiting to hear From the girls and the boys— What they're wanting in toys, And how all their hearts he can cheer.

He's opened his big heavy order-book wide, And around it are clustered a host Of cute little elves, Waiting there by themselves, To take airplane, express, or the Post.

From every known border—have you put in your order, Ruth, Raymond, Max, Gilbert, Pauline, Fred, Bobbie and Kate— Be sure you're not late, For if missed you'll think Santa Claus mean.

Perhaps mother or daddy have fooled you, dear taddie, And told you he'll not come at all! But pause! look and listen! See crispy frost glistens! (I hope the dear elves will not fall!) And I know in the toe of each stocking, ho! ho! That Santa will leave something for all!
