

MANY TAKE PART AT WEST STAYTON

WEST STAYTON, Dec. 23.—Pleasant Grove Presbyterian church held their Christmas exercises Sunday afternoon. The church was decorated in keeping with the season. A Christmas tree and Santa Claus pleased the children very much. The following program was rendered:

- Song—"Joy to the World."
- Prayer by the pastor, Rev. Stewart of Albany.
- Recitation, "December Joys," Ivan Royce.
- Recitation, "Christmas in the Heart," Duddy Asche.
- Recitation, "Santa Claus," Melvin Asche.
- Recitation, "Christmas Club," Conrad Lee.
- Song, "Oh! Little Town of Bethlehem."
- Recitation, "Happy Christmas Days," Grace Bowne.
- Recitations by Naomi Chamberlin and Dean Bowne.
- Song "Christmas Carol."
- Recitation—"The Wondrous Christmas Time," Velma Royce.
- Recitation, "Christmas," Tommy Bowne.
- Recitation, "Christ is Born," Joan Bowne.

The offering was received. A Christmas address by Rev. Stewart.

Song, "Holy Night." Then came Santa Claus with his well filled sack of well filled sacks of treats for all present.

The school will hold their Christmas exercises Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. After the program school will be dismissed until Monday.

The community club is planning an all day meeting for New Year's community dinner at noon, with the business meeting and program in afternoon.

Word was received of the death of the little Turner girl at Mill City last Thursday. The Turner's have many friends in this community who sympathize with them in loss of their dear one.

FRIENDS CHURCH GIVES CANTATA

SCOTTS MILLS, Dec. 23.—The cantata "The New Born King" was given Sunday evening at the Friends' church. The cantata was given under the direction of Miss Phyllis Mace, and each one rendered their part excellently to a well-filled house.

Adrian and Laverne Schooler, Murel Nehl and Walter Bombhoff are home from Columbia university. Joyce Woodfin and Pauline Livesay are here from Willamette.

Dorothy Covey is home from Monmouth Normal.

GRID STARS HUMBLE ALL-STAR TEAM

Benny Friedman, of the New York Giants, being tackled by members of the Notre Dame All Stars, but too late. Benny had already scored one of the many Giant touchdowns at the Polo Grounds, New York City, where the Giants won the game, 22-0.

Friday evening to a packed house. The program was well given, after which Santa Claus appeared and distributed presents, candy, nuts, popcorn and apples to those present.

Miss Grace Dunagan deserves much praise in the manner in which the program was rendered.

J. O. Dixon made a business trip to Oregon City Friday afternoon.

Marion Thomas, who attends Oregon State college, is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Thomas.

Miss Doris Hogg of Salem spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hogg.

The Misses Clara Mickens and Dorothy Hoffer of M. Angel visited Mr. and Mrs. Louise Schaefer several days the last of the week.

WOODBURN, Dec. 23.—"The Light in the Sky," a Christmas pageant was presented at the Woodburn Presbyterian church Sunday evening. About 30 people were in the pageant which told the Christmas story in a new way.

Before the pageant, the children of the primary department gave a clever skit.

Later candy was distributed to all those present by Santa Claus.

BRUSH COLLEGE, Dec. 23.—The Brush College Helpers were entertained with a delightful Christmas party at the home of Mrs. George Moser Thursday afternoon.

A prettily decorated tree and Christmas symbols about the rooms were a pleasant reminder of the holiday season. Mrs. Moser had charge of the program arrangements. With her two daughters, Gertrude and Myrtle, she gave a humorous short play, followed by games in which all joined.

Mrs. A. R. Ewing, president, presided at the business meeting at which time a report was given by the delegation of women who went to Dallas recently to petition the county court for a health nurse for Polk county.

They said that $450 had been set aside toward trying out this worthy project for several months. Mrs. Carl Harriett led devotionals. Mrs. A. R. Ewing was in charge of the usual flag ceremonial.

'GEORGE DID IT' AT SILVERTON

SILVERTON, Ore., Dec. 23.—(Special)—To George "Good Will toward men" are, it would seem, not merely empty words to be shouted from the pulpits and sung by choirs on Christmas day.

nor is Santa Claus just a be-whiskered, red-clothed gentleman bearing gifts from mythical lands. To George, one gathers, "Good Will toward men" is something one does as well as says and the real Santa Claus is something that has to do with the Christmas spirit rather than a pack of material gifts.

So George and Mrs. George have gone quietly about for weeks getting ready for this "good will toward men and Santa Claus" business. As a result 1500 bags of candy will be distributed to Silverton children between 4 and 6 o'clock on Christmas day.

The candy is being furnished by George and Mrs. George. The wives of the local members of the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen are aiding in the preparation of the bags necessary for the candy.

Formerly the 4L order furnished this candy but because of the hard times spoken of this year the Georges thought that maybe the 4L's could use their candy fund elsewhere.

And the three evenings prior to Christmas from the hours of 6:30 to 9:30, under the sponsorship of George and Mrs. George a Christmas program of music, recitations and brief holiday talks is being broadcast through out the business district of Silverton.

Several loud speakers situated at various points in the business districts will pick up the sound and relay it to the men and women on the streets.

Just in case there are some unbelievable as it may seem at Silverton—who do not know who "George and Mrs. George" are, a word of explanation may not be amiss. These two have another name—Manolis, I have heard them called—but to Silverton they are "George and Mrs. George." And tucked away off from one of Silverton's main streets is George's place where the children of Silverton—small and big, old and young—get their shoes polished, buy their candy bars and so on, and with each purchase George hands out the cheeriest smile and the biggest "hello" that can be found at Silverton.

Silverton Grange Calls Off Friday Night Meeting

SILVERTON, Dec. 23.—There will be no meeting of the Silverton grange Friday night, the regular meeting night of this grange. The meeting held last Friday night was a special meeting called for the purpose of electing officers and so that no meeting need be held during the Christmas holiday.

Wednesday night, January 7, the Silverton grange and the Silverton Hills grange will hold a joint meeting in the hall of the latter organization.

ALL-AMERICA TROPHIES

HAZEL GREEN HAS YULE PROGRAM

HAZEL GREEN, Dec. 23.—The Christmas program given by the Sunday school was well attended.

Song: "Come Thou Almighty King," audience; song "Five Little Candles," beginners class; scripture, Luke 2:8-20; junior class, song duet, "The Heart of the Shepherd," Misses Hazel and Belle Hufford; illustrated stories, "The Nativity and the Visit of the Three Wise Men," Mrs. Charles W. Cady, songologue, "The Christmas Messenger in song and story; young folks class, with special songs by Dorothy and Frank Hufford and Norman Luckey. Mr. Bowman, reader and Norah Rutherford, pianist, sang "O Little Town of Bethlehem," dismissed by Charles W. Cady.

The school very much appreciated Mr. and Mrs. Cady's presence and assistance.

J. F. Hufford, son Leslie and Ernest Luckey have returned from a month's stay on Mr. Hufford's farm near Cascadia. They were clearing land.

William McCormack of Oregon City is cutting wood for Joseph Zelinski on the farm Mr. Zelinski bought of C. H. Powell. Mr. McCormack is staying with daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Woelke.
