400 People Pack Hall for Program put on by Pupils of School

KEIZER, Dec. 24. - A most gregated in Keizer, assembled to hear the program.

Mrs. Holden, primary teacher, presented her little tots in the first part of the program. A Christmas drill, entitled "Christmas Bells" was given by 12 little girls dressed in bright red costumes trimmed with green tinsel, and with bells on their wrists. A Christmas acrostic was presented by nine boys. Arlene Progley, aged four, gave a reading, "My Dolly." The second part of the program was a Christmas pageant, "The Victorious Christmas."

Blanche Betzer Queen Blanche Betzer was the queen of the play, who was to decide which day of all the days was best. Her attendant was Tom Oye; her page, Arthur Bliven, Old "Father Time," Julius Harold, was displaced by "Prima," Evelyn Melson, who was to have all her holidays brought before the queen. As each day appeared it was told to remain until the decision was made.

"Valentina," Lois Rulifson, with her cohort of valentines, appeared first. "Emancipatus," Henry Doner, representing Abraham Lincoln.

"Pater," Albert Bennett, representing the father of our country. The costumes worn depicted well

"Patrick." Roy Kaneko. This was cleverly shown by a group of boys with large green ties and little hats set on the side of their heads. They sang "My Wild Irish Rose." A humorous incident connected with this part was that the Japanese boy who took the part of Patrick asked to be an "Irishmen." "Purus," Emma Browning; "Memoria," Princess Minturn; "Gloria," Lorraine Sun; "Liberatus," Frank Doner. This character was Uncle Sam, with two characters deciding that a safe and sane Fourth was best.

"Laborious," Hoyt Varbel; "Columbia," Janet Weeks; "Pace," Billy Keeney, dressed as a world war veteran; "Gratia, Dessie Mc-Clay, dressed in Puritan costume. Christmas was represented by three tableaux given by pupils or the seventh and eighth grades: "The Birth of Jesus," "The Shep-

Clyde Hoffer at the piano. Great credit is due Mrs. Costello, who had charge of the program, and elso to Mrs. Kelso, who worked faithfully with her, Professor Hoffer had charge, especially of the Christmas part. The closing part of the program was the decision by the queen that Christmas should be crowned as the best of days, and the wreath was presented. The New Year called upon her days to acquiesce in the decision of the

A treat of candy, nuts and oranges was given to every member of the community.

Stocks in Rally Before Close on Eve of Holiday

NEW YORK, Dec. 24—(AP)— Although the financial markets were not particularly boisterous in their eclebration of Christmas, there was nevertheless progress in all departments. Active stocks closed 1 to 3 points higher—a range that represented about half of the day's extreme gains.

Considering the fact that December 24 is frequently the dullest day of the year in the stock market, the turnover of 1,582,-$38 shares was fairly large. Not until the last hour, when only 211,000 shares changed hands, did the trading exhibit extreme

Foreign Buyers Said to Have Hurried to CHICAGO, Dec. 24-(AP) Unusual buying orders that have lifted Chicago wheat prices during the last 48 hours received an apparent explanation just before the market closed today. Dispatches from Washington said Chairman Legge of the federal farm board had suggested a tem-porary embargo be enforced against wheat imports into the United States. There siso were London advices the British government was preparing to establish quota purchasing of wheat for the British market.

Cover

Indications today pointed to a large part of the heretofore unexplained purchase orders here in the last 48 hours being for European and Canadian interests that previously had been on the selling side of the Chicago market, and would naturally switch as a result of the proposals outlined from Washington and London. Wheat closed unsettled 1/2 to 3-8 cents a bushel higher than advanced, oats 3-8 cents up.

AURORA, Dec. 24 — Byron Grim, J. W. Sadler, George Ehlen, Harry Ehlen, and Ralph Zimmer-man, attended Champoeg Lodge No. 27, A. F. and A. M. at Canby Saturday evening. When the lodge was visited by E. P. Rands, district deputy grand master from Oregon City, who was invited to be a guest, and present a jewel to Byron J. Grim, who has been a member of Champoeg lodge for 58 years. At the time Mr. Grim came a member, the lodge was located at Champoeg, where it remained until the high waters of the Willamette carried it down stream and left it comfortably settled on the bank at Butteville. Meetings were resumed at that place for some time, later moving to Aurora, and subsequently consolidating with Canby lodge, which took the name Champoeg lodge No. 27, Mr. Grim faithfully followed the lodge of his choice through its many changes. There was an election and installation of officers. Visitors were present from Molalla, Donald, Sherwood and Oregon City. Refreshments were served in the banquet hall. George Catley, retiring master was toast master. Howard Belton yesterday; corn, 1-8 to % cents is the incoming master.

A Christmas program was presented by the pupils of the Pres-byterial Sunday school Wednesday evening, in the church parfors. At the close of the program, a treat was given all children.

Annual Pythian Party Big Fete

SILVERTON, Dec. 24-The annual Pythian Sister's Christmas tree part was held Monday night at the hall and drew a crowd. The family of the Sisters were special guests. The program which began at 8:30 o'clock was given almost entirely by the children. Following this a real live Santa Claus distributed candy and nuts to the children present and the entire gathering sang a number of Christmas carols led by Mrs. Helen Wrightman, Dancing followed.
