

TOWN LEADERS ALL TAKE PART

Announcers Placed in Business Area; Talks, Music, Make up Program

SILVERTON, Dec. 25.—The holiday program of Christmas music and ten-minute holiday talks which was presented to the public Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday between 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. was a distinct success. The program, which was broadcast only through the business district, was sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. George Manolis.

The loud speakers which were placed in the business district functioned perfectly and relayed the music and the voices of the entertainers on the two hour program clearly and forcefully to several hundred persons on the streets. They were broadcast through a microphone made by Fred Cavender company employee and set up in the southeast room of the top floor of the Olsen building. The wire was furnished by the S. Ames Hardware store.

Leaders are listed. The speakers on the program included Mayor L. C. Eastman, Robert Goets, W. N. Arbutnot, Charles Johnson, Ernest Starr, Dr. A. J. McCannell, George Steelhammer, Arthur Dahl, Alf O. Nelson, Norris Ames. Musical numbers furnished by Hal Campbell's orchestra, Stanley Handford, Edward Syring, Jim Smith, Burton Murphy, Frank Powell, Gus Herr, Diana Moore, Oscar Bentson, Col. A. R. Purvine, Maurice Winter, Irene Morley, Billy Kiehl, A. H. Smith, Henry Williams, B. J. Day, Lou Davenport, Frank Coffman, Earl Graham, Harbo Thompson, Paul and Alvin Almquist, Waldo and Orlando Rue, Kuyler Thompson, Max Scriber, W. R. Tomlinson, Lillian DeRyke, Paul Relling, Don Peterson, Lon Jennings, Mrs. W. Tate, E. Lee, Frances Nelson, Ruud Bentson, Wayne Tate.

HOLIDAY SPIRIT IS MOTIF FOR PROGRAM

SPRING VALLEY, Dec. 25.—The Christmas spirit reigned supreme at the program given by the students of the Spring Valley school, Tuesday evening, before a large appreciative audience. Richard and Robert Effert, small twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ebbert announced each number in a pleasing manner. Clydine Davidson opened the program with a short speech of welcome. Song by the little folks; Christmas reading by Ella Beth Wetherby; piano duet "Silent Night" by Gladys Crawford and Marjorie Matthews; dramatic "Christmas Glee" by four girls and three boys; reading in dialect by Homer Freeman; motion song by nine girls dressed as angels; recitation by Julian Stratton; recitation by Dorothy Wilson; play, "Eagerness" in three acts; Christmas song by the school; closing speech by James Smith. As preparations were being made to sing Holy Night, Santa Claus appeared climbing through the window and proceeded to the Christmas tree where with the aid of six helpers, Olive Stratton, Ila Marie Versteeg, Arthur Yungen, Homer Freeman and Richard and Robert Ebbert, the proceeds to distribute gifts to all. The program was in charge of the teacher, Miss Clara Siebens.

Yakima People In Jefferson to Pay Short Visit

JEFFERSON, Dec. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Lional Colgan and daughter Doreen of Yakima, Wash., arrived at Jefferson Tuesday evening to visit Mr. Colgan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Colgan and family near Marion, and Mrs. Colgan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis and family of Molalla. Mr. and Mrs. Colgan have been employed in the apple orchards. Mrs. Colgan was employed packing apples and Mr. Colgan hauling apples. They have just finished hauling them in. They report cold weather, having had snow for over a month and three feet of snow near Ellensburg. The Colgans expect to stay about two months.

Mumps Rampant In Woodburn Now

WOODBURN, Dec. 25.—Measles and mumps are still rampant about Woodburn. Dr. Gerald B. Smith, city health officer has issued repeated warnings to take all necessary precautions about these two diseases.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hodge left for Tacoma Tuesday to spend Christmas vacation with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Willeford and children are spending their Christmas vacation in Seattle.

Presley C. 1—

WOODBURN, Dec. 25.—The annual Christmas program for Woodburn high school was put on Wednesday afternoon by the freshmen class.

The Christmas play, "The Little Boy Nobody Wanted" was presented. The play, which was written by Edna Randolph Worrel, concerns the native customs and superstitions at Christmas time among the simple folks of central Europe. The playlet was well given and seemed to meet with favorable recognition.

Before the presentation of the play and between the first and second scenes, the Woodburn high school band played several selections. A mixed quartet, consisting of Opal Dickey, Zona Schwab, Kenneth Gillanders and Alvin Rogen sang "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear."

The cast for the playlet included the following students: Alice Burke, Helen Hall, John Epp, Billy Baldwin, Dale Trullinger, Elizabeth Hunt, Hollis Ottaway, Lyman Seely, Norman Mosher, Viola Block, Kathleen Shorger, Gerald Nibler, Blaine McCord, Ernest Livesey, Leslie Erb and George Ehlen.

The program was in charge of the freshmen advisors, Milton Grallap, Miss Wava Sims and Hope Hlow.

LYNCHS ON RETURN HOME IN NEVADA

KINGWOOD, Dec. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lynch left Monday in their car for Lee, Nev., where they will remain for a year at least and probably longer. They spent the summer in Nevada returning here a few weeks ago to look after business interests. They have rented their farm here to Rollin Beaver for one year. When in Nevada, Lynch is employed on the large hay and stock ranch of X. B. Martin who is a son-in-law of Mrs. Lynch. A group of friends from Swegle paid Mr. and Mrs. Lynch a farewell visit Sunday. They were Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Gretzinger, Mrs. Minnie Sedgwick, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bloom and son Ronald, all of whom formerly lived in this neighborhood.

Miss Hazel Emmett and Martin Dider were visitors in Sheridan Friday evening. Miss Catherine Applewhite was a Sunday dinner guest of Misses Mildred and Wilma Crum of West Salem.

SCHOOL AT BETHEL GIVES ITS PROGRAM

BETHEL, Dec. 25.—The Bethel school gave its Christmas entertainment Tuesday night. The school room, Christmas tree, and stage were so artistically lighted and beautifully decorated as to deserve special mention. There was a large and responsive audience. Mrs. Weddle and her pupils are to be congratulated on the fine program. The three act play "The Christmas Hat" was much enjoyed. Mrs. Beardsley and her boys and Ivan Fisher, furnished several fine selections of music. Following the program the Bethel community club held a short business meeting. The president, Mrs. J. G. Lauderback presiding. Santa Claus then arrived and distributed presents and candies. After which the ladies served a fine supper to all, bringing to a close a very happy meeting.

PAGEANT, TABLEAU PUT ON AT CHURCH

JEFFERSON, Dec. 25.—A Christmas pageant and tableau was given at the Methodist church Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The pageant consisted of choir numbers, solos and duets. Solos were sung by Dr. J. O. Van Winkle, Gilbert Spragg and Francis Phelps. The children sang Luther's Cradle Hymn, and the juniors gave an exercise, with song after each verse. Duets were sung by Mrs. G. C. Mason and Mrs. George Cole and Gilbert Spragg and Elmer Beach. A bell solo was rendered by Gilbert Spragg; he played "The First Noel." Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle was reader for the pageant.

After the pageant, a tableau entitled "The Nativity" was given by the young people. Rev. D. George Cole did the reading. The program was well attended.
