

Eastern Squad Favorite in Charity Game at Frisco Today

CHARITY CAUSE TO BE HELPED

50,000 Expected to see East vie With West for U. S. Honors

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND Associated Press Sports Writer SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 26 (AP)—Strong legs will run so that the weak may someday walk when football stars from many parts of the country clash here tomorrow in the annual east-west charity game. Proceeds of the contest, one of the oldest charitable gridiron enterprises, will go to the Shriners' crippled children's hospital.

Upwards of 50,000 persons are expected to turn out at Kezar stadium for the classic that will bring together players whose individual feats were recorded throughout the nation this last season. It will be the sixth renewal of the game inaugurated here in 1925.

Western teams won the first three contests while in 1928 and 1929, the east claimed victories. This year again, the eastern squad will line up as the favorite. It will have, among other things, an eight-pound weight advantage per man. Andy Kerr of Colgate and Dick Hanley of Northwestern, coaches of the eastern team, have assembled such luminaries as Len Malcaluso of Colgate, fullback and high scoring ace of the eastern sector; Tony Siano, Fordham center; Hank Bruder, halfback of Northwestern; George Van Bibber, Purdue tackle, and many others.

The eastern squad has been drilled in the wingback formation and style of play made famous by Coach Glenn Warner of Stanford.

Passing Attack For Westerners Greatly outweighed, the western eleven coached by Dana X. Bible of Nebraska and Percy Loyce of the San Francisco Olympic club, is expected to resort almost entirely to a passing attack. This type of offense has featured the west's practice sessions almost entirely although considerable emphasis also had been placed on the line crashing capabilities of big Jim Naumoff, fullback of Kansas fullback. Earlier in the week, both Bausch and Van Bibber of the east were in the sick list but they are expected in uniform tomorrow.

A colorful spectacle will precede the contest. Fifteen massed bands, numbering 750 musicians will play while more than 5,000 uniformed members of the various Shriners' organizations in this section march in the pageant.

Starting lineups: Eastern: E. Baker, Northwestern, LE; Lubratovich, Wisconsin, LF; Doyle, Colgate, LG; Isano, Fordham, C; Woodworth, Northwestern, RG; Van Bibber, Purdue, RT; Gantenbein, Wisconsin, RE; E. Baker, Pittsburgh, C; Bruder, Northwestern, LH; Hart Colgate, RH; Malcaluso, Colgate, F.

Western: McKallip, Oregon State, LE; Broadstone, Nebraska, LT; Beckett, California, LG; Atkins, Texas Christian, C; Koch, Baylor, RG; Spiedel, Olympic Club, RT; F. Wilson, Olympic Club, RE; J. Wilson, Baylor, C; Shelley, Texas university, LH; Mills, Oklahoma, RH; Bausch, Kansas, F.

Eastern alternates: ends—Edwards, St. Mary's; Long, Southern Methodist; tackle—Bivogue, Stanford; Christenson, Oregon; guards—Colbert, Oregon; Greenberg, Nebraska; center—Tassi, Santa Clara; quarterback—Boyle, St. Mary's; halfbacks—Clark, Stanford; Kitchener, Oregon; fullback—Lange, Baker.

Game officials: referee, Herbert Evans, Nebraska; umpire, Bob Evans, Milliken; head linesman, Joe Lipp, Chicago; field judge, Tommy Fitzpatrick, Utah.

Juries of less than 12 members, except in capital cases, and verdicts by a majority vote are recommended by the judicial council of Connecticut.

CRIMSON TIDE IN EXTENDED WORKOUT

Coach Wade Disappointed By Showing of Charges In Southern "Cal"

PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 26 (AP)—Contending football teams in the rose tournament's annual game here January 1 today turned to the serious business of getting in shape for the sixteenth annual classic.

Coach Wallace Wade of Alabama gave the Crimson tide a late morning session at Patterson field, because of the disappointing loss in which his men have been rounding into top form.

On the opposite side of the Arroyo Seco, where the Rose bowl scene of the New Year's day game is located, Coach Orin "Babe" Hollingbery handled his squad of Washington State gridsters somewhat gingerly.

The Cougars have come along so rapidly he is afraid they may reach the peak too soon. As a result the Cougars were given a comparatively light drill without any heavy trimmings.

Another light workout is planned for tomorrow, probably in the morning, but the squad from the northwest will do nothing Sunday. Hollingbery said he had ordered his team to strict training regulations. From now on no telephone calls to their rooms will be allowed and their mail will be held up until after the contest.

"If there is to be any of this psychology stuff," he said, "I'll do it myself."

Both teams took eight-seeing trips this morning. The southerners visited Hollywood while the Cougars took in a motion picture studio at Culver City.

With both mentors refusing to talk about game plans and the practice sessions given over to work which fails to indicate what is in store, the respective attacks are much of a conjecture. It is the general opinion passes will figure prominently.

LONDOS ABLE TO RETAIN HIS TITLE

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 26 (AP)—Jim Londos of St. Louis recognized in New York and Pennsylvania as the world's wrestling champion, successfully defended his title before a capacity crowd at the arena tonight against the challenge of Tiny WOMEN athletic stars are appearing in ever increasing numbers. Among them two stood out most conspicuously during the present year. One of these is Helene Madison, Seattle's extraordinary girl swimmer; the other is Stella Walsh, Cleveland clerk who eclipsed all previous female sprint records while winning race after race since last January. Helene is still in her teens while Stella is just out of them. Both should add to their laurels during 1931.

In addition to Miss Madison who looms as the greatest of all female swimmers; and Miss Walsh, who seems to be the swiftest of her sex afoot, the passing year witnessed several other conspicuous feats by women athletes. It saw Miss Glenna Collett retain her American golf championship in a superb exhibition of competitive play and the hitherto unknown Miss Diana Fishwick capture the British links crown in a field which included our own titleholder and a dozen others of our best women shotmakers.

Two of history's greatest women athletes—Miss Joyce Wethered and Mrs. Helen Wills Moody—retired from championship competition this year, each in the full flower of championship form. The wonderful Wethered, perhaps the greatest female golfer the game will ever know, can defeat the average male expert. "Our Helen," having married before going aboard to again retain the world's tennis championship, decided to abdicate. Miss Betty Nuthall of England looms as her successor.

In the spectacular field of aviation, and some class this as sport, women have been making remarkable progress. Pretty Ruth Nichols of Rye, N. Y., recently broke Lindbergh's transcontinental flight record by flying from coast to coast in 18 hours and 22 minutes. She is likely to become the most famous aviatrix in the world during 1931, despite competition from Amy Johnson and Keith-Miller, two great British pilots often in the headlines.

rank by 35 of the critics, made the most progress during the year, gaining 335 points. Sharkey was given 13 first place ballots and Schmeling 10, while Mickey Walker, Max Baer and Tommy Loughran got one each.

Three of last year's first 10—Scott, Otto Von Porst and Pauline—failed to finish "in the money" this year, their places being taken by Primo Carnera, the man-mountain from Italy, who was ranked fourth this year, Baer and Johnny Risko.

The ratings were: Stribling 647 (of a possible 700); Sharkey 611, Schmeling 458, Carnera 351, Griffiths 273, George Godfrey 206, Vittorio Campolo 167, Tommy Loughran 160, Baer 145 and Risko 94.

Stribling's quick knockouts of Von Porst and Phil Scott and his decision over young Tuffy Griffiths of Sioux City during 1930 raised him from sixth place in last year's rating to the top of the heap.

Jack Sharkey was ranked second with Max Schmeling, recognized champion, third.

Sharkey, who led the list last year, fought only twice during 1930, in Miami with Scott and in New York against Schmeling. He won the first on a questionable knockout and lost the second on an unquestioned foul.

Sharkey Gets Some Votes Stribling, who was given first rank by 35 of the critics, made the most progress during the year, gaining 335 points. Sharkey was given 13 first place ballots and Schmeling 10, while Mickey Walker, Max Baer and Tommy Loughran got one each.

Roebuck, giant Oklahoma Indian, London threw his opponent in 54 minutes, 44 seconds after a series of flying mares.

Roebuck caught the champion in a scissors hold shortly after the opening of the bout and pushed him severely, but London managed to break loose and a few minutes later trussed the Indian with a half Nelson that looked for a time like the challenger's finish. Roebuck freed himself however, and then got an arm lock on the champion which required all his strength to break.

CHUCK KLEIN HAS NEW DEFENSE MARK

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR. Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK, Dec. 24 (AP)—Record breaking in the national league last season was not confined to batting, the official fielding averages which were released today reveal. Two new marks were ground out in the mill of the players' daily toll in the field.

Chuck Klein of the Phillies, who won renown as a hitter, also stepped into the limelight as a defensive worker when he made a total of 44 assists for right field during the season. The former record was 39, made by Michael P. Mitchell of Cincinnati in 1907.

The league as a whole compiled a new mark of 1,315 double plays for the season. The former record, set in 1925, was 1,237.

Two other outstanding features shown in the records were that for the first time since 1908, the national league got through the season without having any games left unplayed at the finish, and the feat of a pitcher Ken Ash of Cincinnati in winning a game on one pitched ball. Ash, a relief hurler, made one pitch to Grimm of Chicago when two men were on base. Grimm grounded into a triple play and Cincinnati came through with four runs in its half of the inning and won the game. Ray Kolp finished the game but Ash was credited with the victory.

EMERALD RALLIES TO BEAT CLUBMEN

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 27 (AP)—The University of Oregon basketball team, playing its second game of the year, defeated the Multnomah club of Portland tonight, 37 to 28, here tonight in an uphill battle. Oregon trailed into the third period but came to life and opened its fast offensive attack.

Multnomah, an independent aggregation, held an 8 to 5 lead to close the opening quarter and then had a margin of 17 to 15 at the half. Oregon reversed in the third session to lead, 28 to 22.

Billy Keenan, midwest webfoot substitute guard, started the fireworks when he entered in the second period. At the time he was sent in Oregon was trailing, 17 to 7. Kermit Stevens, forward, and Walter Collins, guard, were outstanding with Keenan. The trio scored 28 of the points. Jerry Gunther, John Inglis and Ray Edwards were club stars.

WOLGAST FIGHT PROVES FIASCO

Light weights Muddled Through in Sloppy 15-Round N. Y. Bout

By EDWARD J. NEIL Associated Press Sports Writer MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Dec. 26 (AP)—Without settling a single issue—falling even to prove themselves title contenders—Midget Wolgast and Frankie Genaro fought 15 despirited rounds to a draw tonight in an engagement that was scheduled to crown one or the other the undisputed king of the flyweights.

So half-hearted and clumsy was the exhibition no two of the three ring officials could decide on a similar verdict, leaving the midget from Philadelphia still the 112-pound ruler in the realm of the New York State Athletic commission, and Genaro still king in the 26 states of the National Boxing association.

But in the eyes of the 6,000 faithful who booed the lackluster performance most of the way neither appearing to be a champion of anything anywhere.

After ten rounds of hopeless milling with neither fighting anywhere near to their previous form, Referee Patsy Haley, who finally called the engagement to a draw, warned them both that they must fight harder or be tossed right off the premises.

The warning brought in action in the closing rounds but the uprising was not enough to prove the judges with sufficient material to get together upon a winner. Harold Barnes, one of the judges, voted for Genaro and Tommy Sheridan, the other arbiter, for Wolgast and then went home.

About one fourth of the customers left before Sheridan did and failed to see Genaro put on a spurt in the 14th and 15th rounds, a spurt that pulled him up on even terms with the classiest midget in the opinion of many of the ringside critics gave him a slight edge over the entire route. The entire exhibition was so discouraging there was scarcely a disapproving voice when the verdict was announced. The Associated Press score card gave Genaro 6 rounds, Wolgast 5 with 4 even.

'Y' TEAM WILL MEET PORTLAND

Debut of Quintet in Oregon League Interesting to Local Backers

The Salem "Y" basketball team will make its bow in Portland tonight when it meets the Portland "Y" team in the second game of the Oregon Y. M. C. A. league for the locals.

While the Salem team is playing Portland, Eugene will be playing the Wendling team at Wendling. Astoria is the fifth member of the league and will not play until next week.

Portland lost its only game to Eugene 46 to 45 when the two teams met in Portland last Saturday. Tonight's games will give a good line on what strength each team has. Salem beat Wendling 38 to 23 and with Eugene playing that team tonight, another strand of "dope" will be formed.

Benjamin High School The Salem "Y" team is undefeated so far this season and has played Pacific university, the Molalla firemen, and a number of local teams. Benjamin, the lofty center, is leading in scoring. He has height and smoothness and sweeps down the floor like a well organized whirlwind. His strength and size have often carried the ball through to score baskets while guards have clung to his arms.

"Scotty" Marr who plays forward, is one reason Benjamin looks so good at scoring. "Scotty" can get the ball and can pass it to anyone who breaks toward the basket and has been outstanding on the court for this season. Tonight's game may be the last for him with the Salem team for he plans to enter the Monmouth Normal school Monday and will play for that school the remainder of the season.

Of far more importance to the team than any individual, is the team work that is played by the squad. Most of the players have worked together for several years and have worked out a good style of team play.

Portland Unknown Team Little is known of the strength of the Portland five except that it is almost entirely the same squad which won so many games last season. Raleigh at center for Portland will probably have the tip off over Benjamin and will give him a close run on scoring.

Marr, Nash, Benjamin, Ashby and Kleinke will start the game tonight and Ward and Hageman will enter later. Next Tuesday the "Y" team will play the Capital Business college.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 26 (AP)—With a week of intensive training behind them a squad of all Notre-Dame football stars and another team made up of middle western players and western graders rested today, primed for tomorrow's contest to be staged for charity.

The all-Rockne aggregation, made up almost entirely of members of the two undefeated eleven of 1929 and 1930 resigned favorites over their opponents, despite last minute additions to the all-star squad.

Coach "Hunk" Anderson, pinch hitting for Rockne, expressed the belief his team bolstered as it is by Frank Cardozo, all-American quarterback, and Joe Seidel, fullback, would have little difficulty coping with the opposition.

Coach Jimmy Phelan of Washington, former Notre Dame player, had a different opinion. In spite of the short time allowed for practice he declared his collection would be able to handle the situation.

He expects "Pest" Welch, Purdue; Russ Saunders of Southern California and Don Moses, also a former Trojan backfield ace, to cause the team's Notre Dame any amount of trouble.

SEATTLE, Dec. 26 (AP)—Rolling up a 5-to-2 victory over Tacoma here tonight, the Seattle Eskimos stepped up even with Portland for second place in the Pacific Coast Hockey League. Vancouver, B. C., is leading the circuit by a single point.

It was Seattle's biggest scoring win of the season and put the Eskimos back in the running for the leadership.

A fight between Bobby Connors of Seattle and Ossie Osmundson of Tacoma lived up to the interest in the game in the second period. The two forwards had been checking each other extra hard during the first part of the contest and they came to blows early in the middle stanza. They started battling with clubs, then switched to fists and after falling down wound up their fracas by kicking their skates. The officials and players had a hard time separating them. Both were penalized 10 minutes.

A 10 year graph has been compiled by forest rangers of Angeles, Cal., national forest to determine at what hours of the day forest fires are most apt to start.

HE'S "HAPPY"

Introducing ladies and gentlemen, "Happy" Chapman of Kelso, Wash., who will don gloves New Year's night with Teddy Fox of Independence and for ten rounds there'll be a battle, Harry Plant is lining up a dandy bunch of preliminary fights for the occasion, January 1.

Swimmers Will Do Stunts Here Next Thursday

The regular Y. M. C. A. New Year's swimming exhibition will take place next Thursday night in the "Y" tank at 7:30 o'clock. The fete will be in charge of Charles Gill and will feature 20 "Y" boys, junior life savers, eight girls, the senior mixed life savers, and individual diving and swimming specialists including Dwight Adams, Gene Cunningham and Charles Gill.

BANK ROBBERS TAKEN RUSHVILLE, Neb., Dec. 26 (AP)—Harold "Spook" Dommlase, 28, and Forest Cook, 23, escaped bank robbers, today were captured by a posse in a cave eight miles south of Chadron. The two men had battered their way out of jail at Alliance, Neb., yesterday while scores of persons participated in a Christmas program in front of the building.

Schedule is Made The gymnasium and tank program includes 45 minutes work-out in the former and a 30-minute swim. The schedule is as follows: Cadets, boys of the ages of 9 to 11—8:30 a. m.; prep, boys, aged 14 and 15—9:25 a. m.; junior high boys—10:15 a. m. The afternoon and evening will see games in the gym and lobby. High school boys are requested to come after supper for both lobby and physical education activities.

Friday, boys were signing up for lobby games and tournaments in ping pong, checkers and pool. Irving Hale, boys' worker, stated that five Christmas gift memberships were taken out so far this year.
