

Events of Interest in Social - Musical - Club Circles

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

TODAY WE PRESENT . . .

Popular Maid Makes Known Engagement On Saturday

MISS Gaynell Beckett was hostess for a 1:30 o'clock luncheon at the Spa Saturday complementing Miss Florence Power who announced her engagement to George Scales. Miss Powers is one of the most popular members of the older university set, having taken an active part in Willamette university activities up to the time of her graduation last June.

The announcement was made in a unique manner. A ship centered the table and at each corner was a tiny chest for a favor. From the chest to the ship were tiny ribbons, and attached to each ribbon in the chest were tiny lozenges making known the engagement.

Covers were placed for Miss Power, the honor guest; for Miss Elva White, Miss Jessa White, Miss Grace White, and Miss Eleanor Henderson, all of Portland; Miss Rose Huston, Mrs. Kenneth Power, Miss Mildred Emmons, Miss Mary Louise Alken, Miss Roper Eyre, Miss Mary Cooper, Rosalind Van Winkle, Miss Carolyn Braden, and for the hostess, Miss Beckett.

Following the luncheon hour the guests went to the home of Mrs. Kenneth Power where bridge was in play at four tables.

Mr. Scales is a freshman in law at Willamette university, has been active in university athletics, and is a member of the Alpha Psi Delta fraternity.

Miss Powers is a member of the Beta Chi sorority.

Charles Becke at Hubbard Mineral Springs for Christmas 1 o'clock dinner. Mrs. Hendricks returned to Aurora from this dinner party.

Rosedale Christmas Parties Are Many

Rosedale.—Guests at the T. D. Trick home for Christmas dinner were Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Scott, Mrs. Emily Adair, C. Scott, Pearl Scott, Leland Scott, Lloyd Adair.

Thirteen guests were present at the birthday-Christmas dinner in honor of Esther Cammack on Christmas day. Tiny green candles were used as favors with a miniature tree and red tapers as the centerpiece.

The guests were C. A. Bear and wife and sons, Willard and Kenneth, Mrs. Stewart and son, Queenin, of Minnesota and the Cammack family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bozell visited at the E. B. Stroud home on Christmas day.

Mrs. Haldy and family motored to Portland Wednesday to spend a few days at her father's home.

Clifford and Dorothy Smith motored from Roseburg to spend the holidays at the Cole home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bates started for California last week-end. Their son, Floyd, is driving for them.

Silverton.—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holden were Christmas dinner hosts having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McCall of Reedport, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Benton and Mr. and Mrs. McCall of Silverton. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McCall of Reedport are spending the Christmas holidays with Silverton relatives. They are former Silvertonians. Mr. McCall is now superintendent of a sawmill at Reedport.

Mrs. F. G. Franklin has just received a letter from Mrs. C. C. A. Allen, Mrs. Simpson, that she and Mr. Allen are now located in Berkeley near the University of California campus. Mrs. Allen expressed the idea that she would take some university work this spring term. Both she and Mr. Allen have been serious, ill since arriving in California, but are now improved.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lee celebrated Christmas with a delightful family dinner at their residence Thursday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lee, John Colman Lee, Paul Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wetzel and Betty Lou and Harry Lee Wetzel of Toledo, Ohio, Miss Louis Smith of Roseburg, Miss Helen Atwood of Emmett, Idaho, and wee Dorothy Claralyn Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Laflar entertained as their Christmas dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Eichelberger, Miss Ruth and Miss Edna Eichelberger of Portland, A. E. Laflar, Sidney Jones, Bob Henry of Salem, and Mrs. J. F. Strobin of Ruskin, Nebraska, the latter of whom is a house guest at the Laflar home.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Arnold of Corvallis and Miss Rosella Bunch of Portland were the Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Minard. Miss Bunch, formerly society editor of The Statesman, is now connected with the Portland city library.

Miss Mary and Miss Margaret Todd and Lowell Todd and Miss Margaret Rasmussen, all of Vancouver, Wash., are the house guests of Miss Ruth Chapman.

A group of folk who have been doing some interesting things: Right is Mrs. Otto Paulus who entertained with a unique Dickens dinner in compliment to the Christmas season Friday night; center right is Miss Florence Power, daughter of Mrs. Frank Power who announced her engagement to George Scales Saturday at a pretty luncheon given by Miss Gaynell Beckett. Left center is Miss Ruth Chapman, one of the four hostesses to entertain with a charming dance Friday night at Hazel Green in compliment to Miss Kathryn Goulet who is home from the south for the holidays. Right is Miss Nancy Thielson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thielson, who is home for the holidays from the University of Eugene, where she is taking an active part in music and dramatics. Miss Thielson has just completed playing the lead in "Holiday" for which she has received unusual commendation. —All Photos by Kennell-Ellis.

Girl Reserve Groups Are Vacationing

This week will be a holiday for Girl Reserve groups with only two meetings of any large importance. The high school Christmas party for the grade school reserves will be held in the Y. W. C. A. social rooms between the hours of seven and nine o'clock.

Miss Grace Skinner is in charge of the social committee; Miss Lucille Rolow and Miss Rachel Gardner is in charge of the program; Miss Doris Clarke will be song leader; Gwen Gallaher, pianist. Miss Helen Breithaupt is advisor for this group.

The second meeting will be the Mother's tea to be sponsored by the Englewood Girl Reserves of which Miss Florence Marshall is advisor. A program is to be given by the girls of the group and Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher will make a short talk on Girl Reserves work.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher entertained Friday night for members of the camp workers of the Girl Reserve camp this past summer at Santia. Covers were placed for Mrs. William McGilchrist Jr., president of the Y. W. C. A. board; Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, chairman of the camp committee, Mrs. M. B. Wagstaff, Miss Helen Breithaupt, Miss Doris Clark, Miss Dorothy Taylor, Miss Sarah Dark, Miss Dena Hart, Miss Allie Moore, Miss Dorothy Hutchison, Miss Gwen Gallaher, Sumner Gallaher and for Mrs. Gallaher. Miss Breithaupt assisted Mrs. Gallaher.

Governor's Ball Centers Social Attention

NOTWITHSTANDING the multitude of diversions, calls, parties and the countless other things which occupy the mind during the Christmas holidays, widespread interest and the main topic of conversation centers upon the forthcoming reception and ball honoring Governor-elect and Mrs. Julius L. Meier January 12.

In many circles the receipt and dispatch of Christmas cards fell into second place in the schedule of activities, while acceptance to the reception and ball were given preference in the order of events.

While the invitations have been out less than a week and that week being the hectic holiday period, more than one hundred reservations have already been made according to Frits Slade, treasurer of the committee. The promptness of the initial response from prominent people all over the state is indicative of a capacity attendance, members of the committee stated.

Arrangements were completed during the week for complete allocation of the armory ballroom to provide as much space as possible. Expert decorators and lighting experts will commence work within the next week to transform the armory ballroom into a gorgeous salon in which patriotic colors and evergreens will predominate.

The affair, which is Salem's official welcome to the incoming executive and first lady, marks the first return of the inaugural ball ceremony since many years preceding the war. All details will follow closely the precedents established by the national capital and from present indications will eclipse any social affair in the history of Oregon. In response to many urgent requests a limited number of additional reservations have been made available and can be obtained from Frits Slade, treasurer of the committee at the First National bank building. In keeping with the strenuous efforts being put forth in all walks of life to relieve the situation affecting the unemployed, the entire proceeds will be devoted to aid in the relief of the unemployed.

Silverton.—The W. C. Larson family held a reunion Christmas day, the first time they have all been together for a number of years. Harold Larson, who is assistant manager at the J. C. Penny store at Puyallup, Washington, came down Christmas day returning the same night. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Larson and Orval Larson of Wenatchee, Wash., came down Tuesday and will remain until the first of the week. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Legard and son Densel, Meri Larson, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Larson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bortram Thomson entertained with an evening of cards at their home Saturday. A late supper was served following the card playing. Mrs. W. G. Stacey, Jr., assisted the hostess in serving.

Mrs. W. D. Smith Is Hostess

Mrs. W. D. Smith and Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith were hostesses to members of the Pleasants of the First Methodist Church Saturday evening. Christmas motifs in decorating made an effective background for the evening of festivity enjoyed by the guests.

A program of music and songs followed the dinner hour for which covers were placed for Miss Helta Field, Miss Jessie Martin, Miss Alma Pohle, Miss Mildred Simons, Miss Grace Gilliam, Miss Laura Halo, Miss Grace Taylor, Miss Ina Koon, Miss Amy Martin, Miss Maude Simons, Miss Mary Halo, Miss Adela Chapter, and special guests Dr. and Mrs. B. Earle Parker, Mrs. Almira Hale, Mrs. Josephine Taylor, Mrs. Edith Bagley, Miss Lulu Walton, Miss Smith of Roseburg, Miss Atwood of Emmett, Idaho.

A quiet marriage of Christmas day was that which united in marriage, Mary A. Miller, daughter of Mrs. E. Treisch and Arthur H. Bally, son of Mrs. Olive Dutter. The ceremony was read by Rev. Grover C. Birchot in the First Presbyterian parsonage. The bride wore a soft blue satin gown combined with cream lace. Her corsage was made of pink roses and lilies of the valley. Following the wedding ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Dutter. Mr. and Mrs. Bally will make their home in Salem.

Mrs. R. J. Hendricks is spending a few days with friends in Aurora. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Becke, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pierce, Mrs. Aurelia Powers, Robert Powers, Walter Grimm, Mrs. Joseph Erbsland, Barbara and Richard Pierce, Meriam Jean Becke, were guests of Mrs.

Banquet Will be Interesting Event

A matter of interest to a large number of internationally minded folk is the annual banquet given each year by the Salem Filipino club in commemoration of the martyred hero, Dr. Jose Rizal. This year the banquet will be observed December 30 at 6 o'clock in the Marion hotel and it will mark the thirty-fourth anniversary to be observed by the people of the Philippines.

The event has been planned for an elaborate social occasion. Governor A. W. Norblad will be the guest of honor and he will deliver the main address. Filipino music, both vocal, string and orchestra, will feature the program, as will addresses by Dr. B. Earle Parker, P. C. Carliaga, A. Balmoja, M. P. Rodriguez and A. Gabriel.

Miss Edith Findley will give piano selections and will accompany Ronald Craven, tenor, in a group of solos. M. P. Rodriguez will give a violin group. The banquet is attended by invitation.

Mrs. Alice Ginegar entertained her children and grandchildren at her annual Christmas dinner Thursday evening. About a long table centered with holly covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Henry Werner, Miss Ally Maxine Werner, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Love, Delbert Love, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ramonson, Carlton, and Jean Ramonson, Mrs. Ralph Binegar, Barbara Lois Ginegar, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Binegar, Otis Binegar, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ray Binegar, Dorval Binegar, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Binegar, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Binegar, Miss Alice Binegar. A Christmas tree was enjoyed following the dinner hour.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Stearns had as their guest over Christmas Eve Mrs. Harry A. Stearns of Ashland. He returned to Ashland Saturday.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Monday, December 29
No rehearsal of Junior Symphony orchestra to-night.
No meeting of the study classes of the Salem Woman's club this afternoon.

Thursday, January 1
Chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood, Mrs. A. T. Woolport. Program will be constitutional quiz given by Mrs. C. A. Sprague.

B. P. and W. Tea Event of This Afternoon

ONE of the most important social functions of the year for members of the Business and Professional Women's club will be the silver tea for which Mrs. Nora Baird will be hostess in the Oriental room of the Marion hotel between the hours of three and six o'clock this afternoon.

Christmas has been chosen as the motif for decorating the already colorful background of the Oriental room. The tea table will be especially pretty in a color combination of red and green with high-crimson tapers to add the final graceful note. During the first hour, Mrs. LaMoine R. Clark and Mrs. Bernice Bouffleur will preside at this pretty table; the second hour Miss Julia Webster and Mrs. Florence Irwin will preside and the third hour will see Mrs. Edith Bagley and Mrs. Maude Pressnell at the urns.

Assisting Mrs. Baird about the rooms will be Mrs. Mona Yoder, president of the Salem club; Miss Aileen Phillips, Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. Susan Varley, Miss Nell Thielson, Miss Josephine Shada, and Miss Carlotta Crowley.

Assisting in the serving will be Mrs. Della Hayden, Miss Laura Hale, Miss Helen Louise Crosby, Mrs. Mable Needham, Mrs. Amy Adams, Miss Irene Breithaupt, Mrs. Monroe Gilbert, Mrs. Alice Oldenberg, Mrs. Emily Howard, Miss Ruth Moore, Miss Amanda Schwabauer, Miss Ethel Bollier, Miss Phebe McAdams, Miss Merle Dimick, Mrs. Theresa Davis, Miss Clara Urlaub, Mrs. Maude Ramsayer, Mrs. Elva Fisher and Miss Clara McNeill.

Christmas dinner was the occasion for a happy family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Zell on North 14th street. Covers were placed for Gladys Zell, Basil Zell, Loyal Zell, Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Zell of Astoria, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gaulig and children, Patricia, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hulse, as additional guests.

Christmas guests at Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Hughes new home on Vista avenue, were Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bush, Miss Teresa Davis of Salem, Mrs. D. B. Mackie, Mr. and Mrs. William Carter, William Carter, Jr., Miss Jane Carter all of Portland.

Mrs. W. Rosebraugh Home From Europe

After four months spent in France, Holland, and England during which time she was the guest of her son, Arthur Rosebraugh, Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh returned to her home in Salem Friday evening.

Mrs. Rosebraugh was accompanied on her return trip from Cherbourg to New York City by her son who is returning to the United States to spend two years with his firm in New York. The return was made on the S. S. "Statendam", a palatial liner which made traveling a joy taken together with good weather. Only eight days were spent on the return trip.

Mrs. Rosebraugh spent two days in New York City, several days visiting in West Virginia, and three days in Chicago from which place she took the "Empire Builder" train, a wonderful train for appointments and service, to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Findley of Centralia, Washington, and children, Eloise, Robert, and Joan were also holiday guests at the parental home of Dr. and Mrs. Findley.

The institution, Mrs. S. M. Endicott, general chairman, of the Salem Woman's club will sponsor an evening of music, both instrumental and vocal, and readings to be given by the Joseph Benner family, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the assembly rooms of the state institution for feeble minded.

There will be no study classes of the Salem Woman's club Monday afternoon at the Woman's clubhouse on North Cottage street.

Informal Evening Observes Christmas

Miss Bertha Van Cleave and Mrs. W. M. McMorris entertained with an informal party Christmas eve at the McMorris home on Kansas avenue. A Christmas tree and games were enjoyed and refreshments were served at a late hour.

Those present were Mrs. Matilda Van Cleave, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Van Cleave and sons, Gordon and Howard of Mt. Angel, Miss Hazel McMorris of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Van Cleave and sons Kenneth and Melvin and little granddaughter Frances Rickett, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Van Cleave and children, LeRoy, Charlotte, Richard and Roland; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McMorris, Miss Iola McMorris, Miss Bertha Van Cleave and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McMorris.

Among the Christmas guests in Salem was Miss Louise Findley who came from Cheney, Washington, where she is teaching, to spend the holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley. She returned to Cheney Saturday.

Store-Wide CLEARANCE

The most exceptional sale this shop has yet offered. Every Coat, Dress, Hat is from regular stock, assuring the finest in select fabrics and furs.

DRESSES 11.00
Formerly 19.50 and 21.50

DRESSES 18.00
Formerly 24.75 and up

DRESSES 24.75
Formerly 30.50 and up

DRESSES 29.75
Formerly 40.50 and up

76 DRESSES—Choice at . . . 6.95 and 8.95

EXCLUSIVE GOWNS 1/4 1/3 1/2
Afternoon, Dinner and Evening Gowns

COAT REDUCTIONS 1/4 1/3 1/2
Dress and Sports of smooth and rough fabrics, beautifully trimmed in the finer select furs.

COATS 24.75
Formerly to 30.50

COATS 29.50
Formerly to 40.50

COATS 39.50
Formerly to 50.50

COATS 49.50
Formerly to 70.50

24 COATS—Choice at . . . 19.50 and 10.00

HATS 1.00, 2.85, 4.85
Values 2.50 to 12.50

Robes, Pajamas, Lingerie, Handbags, Costume Jewelry all radically reduced

The Fashionette Shop
429 Court Street—H. Marie Butler—Salem

Talk of the Town

"Cheero, Luella!—Bet you're bound for SHIPLEY'S!"

"That was easy to guess, Margie—seems as if everyone in town is going there to see the new Spring Dresses!"

Shipley's
SALEM, OREGON