Institution Group Entertain With

Program Monday afternoon, the patients of the feeble minded school, were delightfully entertained with an informal program of vocal and instrumental numbers arranged and presented by the Benner family and Delbert Jepsen, under the direction of Joseph Benner. The program was sponsored by the Institution Department of the Salem Woman's club under the general chairmanship of Mrs. L. M. Purvine, who was assisted by Mrs. S. M. Endicott, Mrs. J. E. Bernardi and Mrs. E. D. Lloyd. The program which was thoroughly enjoyed by the group in-cluded the following numbers:

America by the audience, Violin solo, 5th Air Varie, Dancla-Delbert Jepsen. Whispering Hope, The Benner

Readings, Joseph Benner. Piano solo, Rigaudon, MacDowell-Helen Benner. Vocal solo, A Brown Bird Singing, Wood-Vivian Benner. Violin solo, The Old Refrain, Kreisler-Delbert Jepsen. Selected readings, Joseph Benner.

The Bells of St. Mary's, The

Benner family. Trios, Out of the Dusk to You, Benner, Helen Benner, Delbert

Campbells Entertain With Informal Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Campbell entertained a group of young glittering Christmas tree with married couples with a smart tall green tapers on either side Sunday night supper party at the reflecting a soft glow. From Campbell home on Chemeketa the side centers of the table, street. Yuletide decrations were two smaller groups of balloons, arranged effectively about the being held in place by red ribliving rooms where cards were in bons leading to individual places, play for the evening. Those in-occupied the attention of the Lewis Griffith, Mrs. A. M. Jar-cluded in the group were, Mr. guests. Between courses "the man, Mrs. J. H. Garnjobst, Mrs. and Mrs. Bertram Thompson, Mr. cat was let out of the bag," when G. F. Chambers and Miss Doroand Mrs. William Stacy, Mr. and scores of tiny cards in the form thea Steusloff, and the hostess, Mrs. Russell Bonesteele, Mr. and of cats, dropped from the bal- Mrs. Bonesteele. Mrs. Karl Heinlein, Mr. and Mrs. loons, on which bore the date of Ivan Brown, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. the marriage of the young luncheon Tuesday will include, Endicott, Mr. and Mrs. William | couple. Gosser and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Campbell. which included, the honor guest, Mrs. Campbell was assisted in the Miss Margaret Shoemaker, Marserving by Mrs. William G. Stacy cella Caspell, Frances Marshall, and Mrs. Ivan Brown.

their home.

idays at the home of Mr. and charge of the ordination services. the pretty tea given a few days Mrs. James B. Euglehart and dience with a vocal solo, Mrs. Thomas Champlain were additional dinner guests at the

Pattern

Smart distinction is given this apron with slender, surplice closing. The daintiness and grace of the added ruffling of self-mater- Mrs. Shoemaker and was gradular lends a feminine touch that is most welcome. Also there is every protection for both the back and front of one's frock, against the unavoidable spots and splashes when working around the kit-gingham, broadcloth, percale, The Dalles. Ore. Rev. Daniels cretonne, dimity, rayon, etc. has just accepted a student pas-Light and dark grounds are equally smart and attractive. particularly if printed with small 951 Alder street. Eugene, after colorful designs.

January 5. May be obtained only in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44. Size 34 requires 3 1/2 yards of 36-inch

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern. Yardage for every size, and simple, exact instructions are given.

Send lifteen cents in coins 'arefully wrapped, or stamps for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Ee sure to state size wanted.

Our new fall and winter fashion book containing exquisite models for adults and children and an excellent assortment of transfer patterns and stamped nevelties, is now ready. Price fifteen cents. Book with pattern, 25 cents. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 248 West 17th street, New York Only.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

2:30 in church parlors. Interesting program.

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

Wednesday, December 31 First Spiritualist church will hold circle at home of Mrs. George Stoddard, 1420 North Fourth, Wednesday evening, 8 p. m. Mrs. Luella Lavalley, Portland, special guest. Ladies Aid of First M. E. church, Wednesday, at Thursday, January 1 . Chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood, Mrs. A. T.

Woolpert, Program will be constitutional quiz given by Mrs. C. A. Sprague. Friday, January 2

The Hal Hibbard Auxiliary of the United Spanish War Veterans will meet Friday, 2:30 p. m. at Armory, for business meeting and drill practice, Saturday, January 3 W. R. C. regular meeting in Millers hall Saturday, 2 p. m. Installation of officers-all urged to attend.

ments.

Hostess for Luncheons

Outstanding in their attractiveness are the informal bridge luncheons being given on Monday and Tuesday of this week, by Mrs. Ernest Bonesteele in her home in the Royal Court apart-

At the bridge luncheon Mon-

Yuletide season, were used most effectively, Green tapers in sil-green and silver. A miniature

Christmas tree, glittering with silver, formed the centerpiece for the table, where smart favors marked the places for, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Claude Steusloff,

Mrs. Gordon Hadley, Mrs. James

B. Young, Mrs. W. A. Johnson,

Mrs. Conrad Paulus, Mrs. Jack

Elliott, Mrs. Sterling Smith, Mrs.

Guests bidden for the bridge

Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. Wallace

Bonesteele, Mrs. Harry N. Crain,

Mrs. Ronald Jones, Mrs. Burton

Myers, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. Edgar Pierce, Mrs. William Mott,

H. Paulus, Miss Nan Putnam, ago by the Misses Viola Duval and Hazel Mason at the home of the latter. The affair honored a group

Christmas tree formed an appro-

Guests, bidden for the tea hour

Aurora - Mrs. Frank McAllister entertained with three tables is spending the holiday season

Mr. and Mrs. McAllister. Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Teel entertained on Christmas day their children and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Goodman and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Teel, Lee and Miss Genevieve Morgan arrived

ON TIME

WITH RADIO TIME

EVERY TIME

Are you "Watch conscious" when you hear the correct time broadcast? If yours is a Longines you will find that its time corresponds exactly with that of Longines'

- announced daily over 75 radio stations from coast to coast -

We have a full assortment of Longines world-famed watches from $35.00 up.

Ask for illustrated booklet.

POMEROY & KEENE

JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS

379 State Street-Next to Postal Telegraph

home Monday morning from her card honors.

her parents.

and Idah Mae Teel.

M. Shoemaker Mrs. E. Bonesteele Becomes Bride Sunday

One of the outstanding pre-nuptial affairs of the Christmas season was the dinner given by Miss Minnedel Baker and Mrs. Mrs. Edward Weller, at the home Lee; Venetia, Vamecnik-Vivian of the latter, last Tuesday evening, announcing the marriage date. December 28, of Miss Margaret Shoemaker, bride-elect of Delbert W. Daniels,

The long table which was attractively decorated in holly, mistletoe and Christmas appointments, was centered with a small Covers were placed for twelve, Helen Kruger, Ella Smith, Verda Mrs. Ernest Thom, Mrs. William On Tuesday evening of this Olmstead, Opal Kruger, Susie week, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell are Hawkins, Mary Kruger and the Miss Bertha Eckerlin and Miss planning an evening of bridge in hostesses, Miss Minnedel Baker Louise Williamson, and Mrs. Weller.

Immediately following the Informal Tea Given Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Kearns and Sunday morning service at the Lucille Schutt delighted the au-"Oh. Jesus I Have Promised," accompanied by Miss Mary Kruger at of friends home for the Christmas the piano. Assistting at the or- vacation. The Mason home was dination services were the two attractively decorated with holly elders of the church, Rev. T. W. and mistletoe, and a scintillating Lee and Rev. E. Horton.

Immediately following the or- priate background for the occadination of Rev. Daniels, Miss sion. Rosalind Hull sang, "I Love You Truly," which brought a happy were the Misses Vivian Burk, Essurprise to the entire group. To ther Black, Elaine McCarroll, the strains of Mendelshon's wed- Ruth Jackson, Barbara Walker, ding march, which was played by Gretchen Gammer, Eleanor Barth Miss Mary Kruger, at the piano, and Rachael Youcum. preceding the bride was the matron of honor, a life long friend of the bride, Mrs. R. E. Ladd of Portland, who was at- of bridge, honoring her mother, tractively dressed in an ensemble Mrs. John Wilson of Seattle, who

The bride was gowned in an with the McAllister family. The ensemble and carried an arm guests assembled on Saturday evbouquet of roses, garden helio- ening were Mrs. John Wilson, Setrope and lillies of the valley, attle; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Gil-She carried a beautiful rose point | breath, Mr. and Mrs. U. Eiler, lace handkerchief, brought from Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bradtl, Mrs. Belguim for a gift from the Diana Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Ben bride's missionary sister, Miss Stoner, and the host and hostess, Gertrude Shoemaker.

The wedding service which Gilbreath and U. Eilers, received took place at high noon, was solemnized at the altar, decorated elaborately with mistletoe, holly and Christmas greens, under an improvised wedding bell, where the impressive single ring service was read by Rev. B. F. Shoemaker, father of the bride.

After the informal reception in the church, Mr. and Mrs. Daniels were complimented with a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Shoemaker on South Winter street, where covers were placed for immediate friends and relatives, including a number of outof-town guests, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ladd, Portland; Frank Wray, Silverton: Mrs. Lucy Wray, Silverton; Mrs. A. A. Webb, Silverton: Mrs. Frank Henson, Walter Peterson and Donald Peterson, of Great Falls, Mont., and Miss Virginia Webb, of Corvallis; Rosaand Hull, Minnedel Baker, Mary Kruger, and Helen Kruger. The hostess was assisted in the serving by Mrs. Lucy Wray and Miss Helen Kruger.

Mrs. Daniels, who is the ated from the St. Louis Music Teachers' college. St. Louis. Mo., last year attended Willamette university. Both Mr. and Mrs. Daniels are completing work at the University of Oregon Bible school. He is the eldest son of Pattern 2072 may be made of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Daniels of torate at Torraine, Ore., near Encene, and will be "at home" at

> Members of the choir and the advisory committee of St. Joseph's Catholic church were entertained Sunday evening with an interesting dinner at the Gray Relle by Reverend J. R. Buck. Covers were placed for Henry Kropp, Joseph Domongalla, Elmer Sning. Lawrence Barr, Ignatz Steiner Lawrence Allev.
> Richard McNulty, Frank Lynch.
> Dr. Edward Lebold and Bernard > Kronp, Thomas Windishar, Mrs.
> Theresa Albrich, Miss Josephine Barr, Miss Marcella DeMytt, Miss Doris Corbin, Mrs. F. H. Albrich. Miss Mardette Heenan.
> Mrs. Anna Nash and Miss Jose-

50th Reunion Christmas

reunion of the Butlers was held at the home of Dean and Mrs. J. descendants of J. B. V. Butler, anthemums. Sr., and Elizabeth Butler, all of Preceding the ceremony Mr. Butler homestead in West Mon- "I Love You Truly." mouth. The rooms were gay with birthday cakes, land was read.

appointed at a previous meeting bride and groom were bidden.

and David Fawks; music, Claude the Endeavor society. H. Boothby; finance, Dean But- Both young people will leave ler and Dr. Frank Butler, Fadks, J. F. O'Donnel, Ardelia dance Monday night in St. Jo-N. Butler, B. F. Butler, G. A. seph's hall. A feature of the eve-Butler, Ruth Gill, C. C. Mulkey, ning will be a tumbling act by A. B. Starbuck, Sarah Gibson Patrick, Ada Butler, Lottie Zieber, Mrs. David Fawks, Lillie Boothby, Mrs. Frank E. Butler, Ruth Butler, Mrs. Clitus R. Butler, LaVearne Fenton Spence, Francis Spence, R. M. Howard Orval Butler, Jr., J. M. Booth. Nellie B. O'Donnel, Edna Butler, Bernice Butler, Helen Butler Howard, Opal Derby, Irma Mulkey, Noame Fresh, Mrs. C. C. Mulkey, Dorothy Chauvin, Mar- son, Anna Karst and Mr. Clark ion Fresh, Larry Fresh, Edith Starbuck, Maude Butler, Raymond Derby, Jack Cauvin, V. E Kuhn, Robert Smith, W. J. Mulkey. Jr., W. D. McCready, J. B. V.B utler, Jr., C. H. Boothby. Maurice J. Butler, Frank Butler, Robert Smith, Jr., Margery Howard, Jack Smith, Lida McCready. Eva Booth, Marlow Butler, Betty Sue McCready, Berdine Derby Lee Butler, Lora A. Butler, Ada Belle Gill, Kenneth Mulkey. Shirley Jay Mulkey and Zero is now a member of the teaching formerly of Salem. Margie Goodman and Eileen, Ellis staff of the Klamath Falls schools. continue her work. Miss Howe home in Florence, Ore., where she south by her brother, Carroll spent the Christmas holidays with Howe, who is also connected with the Klamath county schools.

serenade in costume, Marlow and carrying a bouquet of orchid Butler and Berdine Derby, accompanied by Betty Sue Mc-companied by Betty Sue Mc-cready at the piano; reading, lane bearer, Richard Van Winkle and the dainty little flower and the dainty l Orville Butler; Mrs. Jane girl, Mildred Thurston carrying a grounds, 81, of Portland, the old-basket of flower petals.

The bride carries a charming early family history and first reunions; reading, Margery Howreunions; reading, Margery Howard; tap dance, Shirley Jay Muikey; dialogue, Berdine Derby and Kenneth Mulkey; violin solo, Shirley Mulkey and a piano serose buds and sweet peas entered day, decorations, carrying out the ver holders, were artistically lection by Maurice Booth. The on the arm of her father.
new members, Ruth Butler and The wedding party met the combined in the color scheme of Maurice Booth, were introduced. groom and best man Mr. Norman Moving pictures taken of last Olsen before the altar where the year's party were shown by Dr. impressive ring service was read Frank Butler. Pictures taken by Rev. Ard Hoven, minister of this year will be given at next the church and close friend of fered a solo, after which the of more than 300 people. large tree, with Santa Claus and Following the marriage Mr. gifts were enjoyed. An original Muller sang "Because" accom-

Dancing and music in the spatious living room concluded the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Mc-

Miss Florence A. Howe arrived in the city Sunday evening from her home in Brownsville, to spend son with her sister, Mrs. Walter She will return to Klamath Falls by motor the last of this week to will be accompanied on the trip

Wied-McCaw Nuptials

Sunday Butler Clan Holds

Sunday evening, December 21st the First Christian church of Jefferson became the scene of a pretty Christmas wedding when Frances Genevieve, daughter of Mr. Frank F. Wied became the bride of Mr. William Leonard McCaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wil-liam O. McCaw. Monmouth — The customary A large electrically lighted festive celebration and family cone of tinsel and pink and white crepe paper with Christmas trees V. Butler Christmas eve with 78 on either side served as a backrelatives present. The event ground for the service. The stage commemorates the 50th anniversary of the assemblage of the bows and baskets of huge chrys-which have been held at the old Herbert Muller of Portland sang

To the strains of Lohengrens streamers, holly, mistietoe and wedding march played by Mrs. J. green boughs. Two large cakes C. Van Winkle, the wedding pareach with 50 lighted candles ty, led by the ushers Gilbert graced the table at which the Spragg and Harvey Thurston, enolder members were seated, Dav-tered the auditorium. Misses id Fawks of Portland gave the Kathleen Wied and Emilin Mcpresentation address of the Caw, bridesmaids and sisters of the bride and groom wore The dinner was followed by a dresses of pink organdy and carprogram. "Auld Lang Syne" ried bouquets of bronze chrysanwas sung by all; address of welcome, Dean Butler; letters of maids came the maid of honor, greetings and regrets from the Miss Ida. Van Order, wearing a absent ones were read; a Spanish lovely gown of drchid georgette year's reunion. Lora Butler of- the young couple, before a crowd poem by Edith Starbuck of Port- panied by Mrs. Van Winkle at the piano. A reception was held at the Caw during the evening, to which The following committee were relatives and close friends of the and made the event a most suc- Mr. and Mrs. McCaw have been cessful one: Tree, Claude H. very active in church work here Boothby and Dean Butler; lunch- for several years. Mrs. McCaw eon, Portia Mulkey, Lillie Booth- has acted as musical director and by and Fannie Butler; decora-pianist at the Christian church tion. Hilda Butler and Ruth for the past three years while Butler; program, Lora Butler Mr. McCaw has been president of Guests enjoying the evening make their home in Airlie, Orewere: Sara Jane Grounds, Portia gon where the groom is engaged Mulkey, Sr., Dilla B. Fenton, B. in farming.

Fred Smith and George Fowler. Christmas decorations, with a large electrically illuminated Christmas tree, made a pretty setting for the dancers. Patrons and patronesses will be, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Barr. The committee in charge of arrangements include, the Misses Josephine Barr, Margaret David-

Miss Florence E. Emmons who is instructor in the high school in Ione. Ore., is spending the holiday vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Emmons on Court street. Miss Emmons is a

Willamette graduate in the class of 1930.

Mrs. P. G. Heath and daughter Beokra, left Sunday morning for their home in Redmond, Oregon, after having spent holiday period with Mrs. Heath's mother, Mrs. Cora V. Hunt of this city.

Felicitations are being snet to Mr. and Mrs. Mac Brown of the remainder of the holiday sea- Portland, upton the birth of their second son, born a few days Kirk on South High street. Miss ago. Mrs. Brown will be remem-Howe is a former Salem girl who bered as Miss Gretchen Brown.

Lea in Vacuum just like coffee!

It is just as necessary for one as for the other, to prevent the evaporation of the fragrant volatile oils that give them both their flavor. The West discovered how to preserve coffee flavor in vacuum. And the West has found the proper process for tea, but it still remains exclusive to the originator --Schilling. It is literally the only fresh tea you can buy.

Schilling The Quality you would insist upon if you knew all of the facts.

BRINGS PRESIDENT FRENCH GIFT

M. Paul Claudel, French Ambassador to the United States (left) presents Guy Longevialle, of Paris, to President Hoover at the White House. The visident with a large vase which was sent to the White House by young people of France.

Today's Menu

Rolled Rib Roast and Vegetables
Cranberry Sauce
Bread Butter
Head Lettuce and Russian Dressing
Caramel Pie Coffee

Rolled Rib Roast % pound rolled rib roast teaspoon salt teaspoon paprika tablespoons flour cup water. Wipe off roast with damp cloth. Sprinkle with salt, paprika and flour. Place in baking pan. Bake 15 minutes in hot oven. Add water and lid. Bake 1 1/2 hours. Baste frequently.

Vegetables 6 large white polatoes, peeled 6 large carrots, peeled 3 slices green pepper slices onions tablespoons diced celery tenspoon salt cup water Mix vegetables and salt. Arrange around meat after it has been cooked 45 minutes. Add water and cook until meat is done. Baste frequently.

Cranberry Sauce 6 cups berries

2 cups water
2 cups sugar Carefully look over berries and

Caramel Pie Filling 1 baked pie shell
1 cup dark brown augar
5 tablespoons flour
1-8 teaspoon salt
8 egg yolks
2 cups milk
1 tablespoon butter
1 teaspoon vanilia
Blend sugar, flour and salt.

Add egg yolks and milk. Cook in double boiler until very thick and oreamy. Stir frequently while cooking. Add butter and vanilla and when mixed, pour into baked pie shell. Cover with meringue.

Clear Lake-Mr. and Alea Harold were hosts at a dinner given Christmas night at their home. A tiny decorated tree and four red tapers served as a centerpiece for the table.

where you got that twenty-five?"

Covers were placed for: Miss Christina M. Harold of Salem, Gus Harold of Stayton, Robert Massey, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cole and children Erma and Howard of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harold and son Verel, Andrew Olson, Marie Harold and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Alea Har-

Woodburn - A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boye in Woodburn Friday evening when Wilma Trullinger, daughter of Mr. and Immediately after the ceremony the newlyweds left for Seattle, Wash., where they expect to Saw Horse Club make their home. Both Mr. and Mrs. Richards are graduates of Woodburn high liked by people of Woodbarn. remove all stems. Add water and guests at the home of Mrs. Per- Guire, Friday evening. Great en-Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Kearns and infant son, Walter, returned to their home in Portland, after having spent the Christmas hol-lawing spent the Carefully loog over berries and remove all stems. Add water and son's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ar-lawing spent the holder of the delightful informal and sugar and boil, with new spent the Christmas hol-lawing spent the Christmas hol-la

Miss Opal Larson Weds Roy Redburg

At a pretty ceremony, held at 25th, Miss Opal Larson previously of Turner but now living near Cloverdale, Oregon, became the bride of Roy Recherg of Oreton,

The wedding was solemnised in the Grange hall at Oreton, in the presence of about 75 friends and relatives. Following the wedding a large dinner and reception was held henoring the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Recberg will make their home in Clover-dale, where Mr. Recberg is engaged in business.

Saturday evening, December 27, the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Emmons on Court street was the scene of a gathering of the adult Bible class of Mill street Methodist church, of which class Mr. Emmons is the leader.

The evening was spent in music and games of various kinds, in recounting anecdotes, readings and conversation.

Those present were Mrs, Anne Stenstrom, Mrs. Alice Brown, Mrs. G. F. Boyer and daughter, Patricia Ann; Misses Esther Erickson, Mildred Erickson, Evelyn Erickson, Swea Okerberg, Margaret Barnquest and Norma Crasson, and Messrs. Egil Ol-sen, G. F. Boyer, Orville P. Bowers, Joe Whitman and Russell

A two course plate luncheon was served the guests by Mrs. Emmons, assisted by Mrs. C. A. Emmons and Misses Florence and Genevieve Emmons.

Aurora-Mrs. Charles Beck is having house guests through the holiday season, the family were all at home for Christmas eve. On Christmas day, Mr. and Mrs. Ro-bert Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pierce, Richard and Barbara Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Beck and daughter Miriam, Salem; Mrs. Charles Beck, Mrs. Lou Erbsaland, Mrs. Aurelia Powers, Rebert Powers and Walter Grim, had Christmas dinner at the Hubbard Mineral Springs.

Mrs. Josephine Stuart is a guest in the city at the home of Mrs. R. A. Trullinger, was mar-ried to Howard Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Slater and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Richards, also her sister, Mrs. Edward Stevens.
of Woodburn.
Mrs. Stuart will return to En-Many friends and relatives gene where she is Gamma Phi were present at the wedding and all wished them much happiness. of the vacation period.

Is Now up to 18 school and are well known and FRUITLAND, Dec. 29-The Knights of the Saw Horse club Mrs. H. W. Persons and small held its business meeting at the daughters, Melissa and Odilla, are home of their president, P. I. Mcments. Mrs. Persons and chil- issues brought forth by different dren expect to return to their members. Sylvester Honkola was home in Medford after New Years initiated into the club which raises the membership to 18.

"So that's HE had been fussing about > the old wing chair for months. It wasn't a bad chair, as chairs go, but for some silly reason he wanted to get rid

> And, of course, being a mere business man he couldn't be bothered trying to sell it. No wonder he was surprised at the twenty five dollar check she had received as the result of a want ad she phoned us two days ago.

You can sell things, too, if you put a classified ad in The Statesman. The want ad page is a market place for all sorts of things and opportunities. Read it, and USE IT!