MANY FOLKS JOIN AT FORD MEMORIAL

The Court street Christian church, Court and 17th streets has had a fairly good year in the activities of the various departments. There have been a number of accessories to the church.

The Bible school and Christian Endeavor society have been active in their local work and also in missionary activities over the world. The society is helping support an orphan in India. It is also active in the county and state unions. Over $300.00 has been given for missions in all departments and by individuals.

The local budget has been met well considering the general financial conditions, and there will be little deficit if any when the year closes.

Besides those obligations the church, largely through the loyal and persistent activities of the Ladies Aid society, has paid $800.-00 on the church building debt within the past 12 months besides nearly $400 interest and other obligations.

—B. F. Shoemaker, pastor.
