MacDowell Club

Chorus Resumes Work
With the advent of the New Year the Salem MacDowell club chorus will again take up its practice sessions at the club's first work Tuesday at 7:30 o'clock in the music hall on Willamette university campus, according to the announcement made by Miss Frances Virginia Melton, president of the club.
Work will be begun at this time on an elaborate spring concert which will be given sometime the latter part of June. There are still a few vacancies in the chorus personnel and for a limited few there is a chance if they apply immediately to become a part of the spring chorus. Any inquiry will be answered by Miss Melton at 1480-M.

Dinner Party Pretty

Semi-Formal Event
Miss Bessie St. Clair and Miss Gladys Hilliker entertained at the home of the latter on Mission street with a delightful semi-formal dinner Friday evening. They were assisted by the Misses Vera Haverland, Lella Ford, Jewell Irvin, Irene Stever and Mrs. Hilliker. The table was attractively decorated with pink and green streamers and flowers adorned the center.
An impromptu program and music followed the dinner. Covers were placed for the Misses Mildred Benge, Dorothy Carr, Joyce Phelps, Nadene McWain, Helen Jena, Lilla Margaret Englehart, June Backe, Elva Ault, Dorothy Badertscher, Kathleen Phelps, Joan Fowler, Theresa Ulrich, Ruth Falk, Willamina Hilliker and the hostesses, Bessie St. Clair and Gladys Hilliker.

Salem Woman's Club

To Meet Friday
The first meeting of the year for the Salem Woman's club will be held Friday afternoon in the Woman's clubhouse on North Cottage street. This will be a regular business and program meeting. Plans will be made for the annual "winter day" and the events of the club year, which will be observed on the meeting date following Friday.
Mrs. J. C. Nelson will have charge of the program which will be developed by the applied education department of which Mrs. Nelson is general chairman. At the program meeting the first of the Oregon products talks will be made; the subject anticipated is "wool" and will probably be given by Mrs. Mark McCallister, who also has charge of the music for the day.

Miss Sally McLellan Luncheon Hostess

One of the very attractive events in the younger maids set was the pretty luncheon given by Miss Sally McLellan Saturday at 1 o'clock in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McLellan, in compliment to her own birthday.
The color scheme carried out the idea of yellow in tapes and flowers and made a delightful setting for the young guests who included the Misses Wilda Jerman, Nancy Stricklin, Betty Byrd, Janet Byrd, Patricia Livesley, Margaret Huestein, Eleanor Brazeau, Marylee Fry, Dorothy Engel, Sally McLellan.
A late party, one of the social events concluded an attractive afternoon.

Delphians to Resume Study Meetings

Following the Christmas holidays both chapters of the Delphian society will begin their regular meetings Monday. The Delphian chapter will meet with Mrs. Carl Heinlein at her home 234 Miller street at 9:30 o'clock Monday morning. The topic to be discussed will be "Life of the Homeric Age."
The Sigma Nu chapter will meet at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon in the auditorium room of the city library. The topic for study will be "From Anarchy to Empire," and current event topics.

Clubwomen Leave For Eastern Trip

Mrs. Charles Bilyeu and Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar will leave Thursday for Washington, D. C., where they will attend the general federation board meeting. Mrs. Bilyeu is state president of the Oregon federation and general federation director for Oregon. Mrs. Dunbar is chairman of the public welfare committee of the general federation, and as oldest ranking chairman of the board is dean of department chairmen. She is also chairman of institutes for the Oregon federation.
Mrs. W. S. Nicholson of Marshfield, state chairman of the American citizenship committee, has been appointed a delegate to meet with the conference on cause and cure of war which will follow the national board meeting. Mrs. G. L. Buland of Portland has also been appointed as a delegate to this conference but it is not yet certain that she will be able to attend.

Engagement Is Cleverly Told

New Year's Eve Miss Ruth Waterman was blissful for a cleverly arranged party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Waterman.
Over the table, balloons were suspended and at the close of the dinner hour these were cut and as they fell each guest caught one. To each balloon it was discovered a card was attached announcing the engagement of Miss Waterman to Joe Tompkins, son of Representative and Mrs. Morton Tompkins of Dayton, Oregon.
The guests for this interesting announcement were Mrs. Lowell F. Hoblitt of Giverton, Mrs. Earl Wilkinson of Dallas, Mrs. Ruben Hilliker, Miss Edna Prescott, Miss Dorothy Johnson, Miss Mildred Judson, and Miss Lois Plummer.
Miss Waterman has as yet had no definite wedding date.

Delphians to Resume Study Meetings

Dr. Ralph Winn will speak on the subject of "Russia" before members of the Woman's Missionary society of the First Congregational church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. W. D. Clarke. Mrs. C. E. Ward will have charge of the devotional study, and Rev. H. C. Glover will present the music for the afternoon. Mrs. Clarke will be assisted by Mrs. L. H. McMahon, Mrs. Harry Elgin, Mrs. W. F. Buckner, Mrs. George Alexander and Mrs. Louie Olson.
Miss Helen Jean Lytle entertained in the home of her parents on Riverside drive with a delightful slumber party Monday evening. The evening was spent in dancing, and refreshments were served at a late hour by the hostess' mother, Mrs. Lytle. Those present were the Misses Gladys Hilliker, Jewel Irvin, Vera Haverland, Julia Shepard, Willamina Hilliker, Bessie St. Clair, Lella Ford and the hostess, Helen Jean Lytle.
Mrs. V. A. Hughes will entertain members of the Etokta club at the home of Mrs. R. S. Keene, 340 LeFelle street, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. P. E. Graber will lead the study on "Oregon History."

NO DESTITUTION FOUND IN AURORA

AURORA, Jan. 3.—The holiday season was not marred by want in any family, nor did any person seek or have to receive aid. The schools provided a afternoon of entertainment, where presents and treats for children of school age were passed out. The Presbyterian and Lutheran churches gave splendid Christmas programs to large audiences. The school children were cordially invited to partake of the candies and nuts thoughtfully provided. Almost without exception every home was brightened by a Christmas tree. If one could have been less well-bred and peeked into pastries, there would have been found large well-filled crocks of German cookies, that are so rarely universally seen elsewhere. Home-made candies, stuffed dates, home-made sausage, head cheese and liverwurst were also ready for the week of celebration. Families adhered to an old custom and give the entire week over to entertaining, calling on friends and shut-ins. The hours have been put to overflowing with socialability. On New Year's night the commercial club, George Elton, president, entertained the residents of Aurora and vicinity, with an invitational dancing party at the band hall. There was a large attendance, and was a strictly local affair.

Cloverdale

CLOVERDALE, Jan. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hennies are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Weber of Dallas, Texas. Mr. Weber is a brother of Mrs. Hennies and this is the first visit at the Hennies' home since they have lived in Cloverdale, which is 20 years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Weber spent some time visiting in California before coming here. Weber is a manufacturer of soft drinks and has a large business in Dallas. They left January 2 for their home.
Mr. and Mrs. William Morris and daughters, Ruth and Ellene, spent several days of the Christmas holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ryan of North Bend. Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Ryan are sisters.
Aside from the purpose of observing Christmas, the trip was made to celebrate the 16th birthday of Ruth Morris and Irene Christmas day and there is just three hours difference in the ages of the cousins. The Morris family returned December 29.

Hubbard

HUBBARD, Jan. 3.—The A. J. Smith home was the scene of a delightful bridge party New Year's eve with Mrs. Smith and her sister, Mrs. Elmer Stauffer, the hostesses. Seasonal decorations added to the festiveness of the occasion which was also a watch party. Five tables of bridge were in play during the evening with high scores held by Mr. and Mrs. Julius Stauffer and second by Mrs. Kathryn Will and Edward O. Erickson. Refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Miss Mildred Smith. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Waldo F. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Beckman, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cleaver, Curtis H.
