Delphian Chapters Have Interesting Meetings

Chi Delta chapter of the Salem Delphian society met at the home of Mrs. Carl Heinlein Monday morning at 3:30 o'clock for the regular meeting following the holiday season. At this time the date for meeting was changed from Monday to Tuesday morning and will continue so from now on. The next meeting will be with Mrs. E. B. Millard January 13.

Mrs. G. E. Lewis was Delphian traveler for the Chi Delta chapter Monday. Topics were taken by Mrs. E. A. Collier, Mrs. F. F. Anusson, Mrs. R. H. Kletzing, Mrs. R. M. Watz, Mrs. G. E. Lewis, and Mrs. R. D. Barton.

An interesting addition to the program was a letter read by Mrs. Heinlein from her sister who has spent the past months in Russia. Conditions as seen first hand were described and made much of interest for discussion in the group following the reading of the letter.

Sigma Nu chapter of the Delphian society met Monday afternoon in the auditorium of the city library. Announcement of interest to the members was to the effect that nominations for the supervisors for the coming year's work would be made at the next meeting. Mrs. George Rossman has been the supervisor for this year, but according to the rules of the society three supervisors are elected for the second year's work.

The topic for Monday's meeting was "Anarchy to Empire" with topics being taken by Miss Loretta Ford, Mrs. Albert Cragg, Mrs. George Rossman, Mrs. Byron Harlick, Mrs. C. L. Newman, Mrs. Russell Catlin, and Mrs. William Merriott.

One minute current event topics were taken by Mrs. Hal Hosa, Mrs. F. A. Erickson, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. Charles McElhinney, and Mrs. George King. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Ernest Thom, Mrs. J. C. Perry and Mrs. Sam Koser. Mrs. George Rossman gave a resume of the work gone before.

Studio Display Will Feature Tea Afternoon

Thursday, Friday and Saturday have been designated by Mrs. Monroe Gilbert for the attractive and unique Christmas card display which she is arranging with the cooperation of interested townswomen. Cards are coming in in large numbers and promise an unusual display for the benefit of those who call during the three day exhibition. Anyone having unusual cards is invited to bring them to the studio to swell the interest in the exhibit.

An additional feature of interest will be the tea afternoon Friday between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock at which time Mrs. Gilbert will be assisted by Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, and a group of prominent matrons.

General Hospital Auxiliary to Meet

The Salem General Hospital auxiliary will meet today at 10 o'clock in the chamber of commerce rooms. This auxiliary has done much toward the growth of the hospital in the past year. It is comprised of those who wish to support the development of the general hospital as a neighborhood institution. Membership may be taken out by any one interested and the larger the membership the more desirable it is to the present organization.

The meeting today will be for the purpose of electing officers for the year and for planning work to be done this coming season. Mrs. W. H. Dancy has been president of the organization since its inception two years ago, and will preside at the meeting today.

Brooks—An attractive party of Wednesday night was that for which Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ramp were hosts at their home in Brooks. Cards occupied the early part of the evening, and a midnight supper saw the old year out and the new one in.

The rooms of the Ramp home were appropriately decorated with Yuletide decorations. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ramp were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Otto, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wall, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Sussee, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rasmussen, Mrs. Maude Tomm, Alvin Reed, Mrs. J. S. Dunlavy, Ollie Schendel, Leo Reed, Cleo Ramp, Earl Ramp and Leo Ramp.

Brooks—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bosch were hosts in their home in Brooks for a watch party Wednesday night. Holiday decorations were used effectively about the rooms. Music and games were enjoyed until midnight, when refreshments were served by the hostess.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil V. Ashbaugh and daughter, Kreta Fae Ashbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harris, Miss Lavonne Harris, Mrs. Beria Barker, Albert Harris, Marie Bosch, Jack Bosch and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bosch.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Schultz and Mrs. Grace Summers were from Springfield, Illinois, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Rupert on Cheemekota street. The guests are now on their way home to Illinois after having spent some time visiting in southern California.

Miss Beatrice Walton, prominent Salem woman, has returned from Europe to take the position of secretary to Governor elect, Julius L. Meier.

Delegates Appointed For Newberg Meet

The Daughters of the American Revolution will hold the state convention in Newberg in March. Members of the Chemekota chapter of Salem elected delegates to this state meeting Saturday afternoon in the regular monthly meeting held in the Salem Woman's club clubhouse.

The following delegates and alternates were elected: Mrs. John Orr, chapter regent; Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Miss Edna Minsus, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. A. E. Austin of Woodburn, Mrs. Frank Sottlemeyer of Woodburn, Mrs. J. E. Sibbey of Dallas, Mrs. H. T. Loye and Mrs. Lewis Griffith. Alternates nominated were Mrs. W. F. Fargo, chapter vice-regent; Miss Lillian Applegate, Mrs. V. E. Newcomb, Mrs. C. T. Ellison, Mrs. A. A. Underhill, Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Mrs. C. C. Best, Mrs. W. C. Johnston, Mrs. Frances Looney Cornell, Miss Margaret Looney of Jefferson.

Officers Installed By W. R. C. Group

Mrs. Hattie Cameron was installed as president of the Woman's Relief corps Saturday afternoon in regular meeting at Miller's hall. Other officers to take office were Mrs. Hattie Kennon, senior vice-president; Mrs. Nettie Schramm, junior vice-president; Julia E. Bladett, chaplain; Laura B. McAdams, treasurer; Ida Traglio, conductress.

Rose Hagedorn, patriotic instructor; Mary Ackerman, guard; Maud Chittendon, assistant conductress; Myrtle Henderson, assistant guard; Sarah Peterson, press correspondent; Lulu Borong, Rose Vertis and Ada Simpson, color bearers, and Bernice Bouffleur, musician.

Lorraine Robins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Robins of North Liberty street left Saturday morning for Seattle, where she is a student at the Northwest Bible school. She has been visiting her parents during the holidays.

Grim-Powers Wedding Solemnized Sunday

A wedding of much interest in Salem was solemnized in Aurora Sunday at 12:30 o'clock when Aurelia Powers became the bride of Walter Grim, Rev. H. L. Grafton reading the simple services before only immediate members of the two families.

Immediately following the ceremony the wedding party motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edna Piers in Salem where a wedding dinner was served. Mrs. Piers and Mrs. Grim are sisters. Mr. and Mrs. Grim then left for a short wedding tour after which they will be at home in Aurora until spring at which time they will take up their residence in their new suburban home which is now under construction.

This marriage unites two prominent pioneer families. Mrs. Grim is the daughter of the late Charles Becke and Mrs. Anna Becke and Mr. Grim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Grim.

Young Matron Will Make Home in Eugene

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert W. Daniels, whose marriage was an event of December 28, left Friday for Eugene, where they will make their home. Mrs. Daniels was formerly Miss Margaret Shoemaker, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Shoemaker.

The young people were delightfully surprised with a miscellaneous shower in connection with the annual church dinner and business meeting held New Year's day. A large table centered with a mirror upon which was a tiny boat and at the edge of which stood a miniature bride and groom, was heaped with gifts for the departing young folk.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniels will both enter the University of Oregon to advanced work this term.

Sunnyside.—Sunnyside did much entertaining this holiday season, starting Thanksgiving day with the big turkey dinner in the homes, with guests from near and far and continuing into the Christmas week. Christmas day was kept sacred for the home and family. Taylor's had a live fir tree that was illuminated every night of the week. The Chandler clan held its meeting at Guy Chandler's home on the Pacific highway. Mr. and Mrs. King of Walla Walla visited with the latter's brother, George Heckart. The young people gathered at the home of Isabel Taylor for fun and frolic. Cecil Pearson, of Clinton Corners, New York, has as guests

Epiphany Dinner Celebrated Tonight

Members of St. Paul's Episcopal church will celebrate their annual Epiphany dinner tonight at the parish hall at 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. E. A. Robbins, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Robert Neimeyer, and Mrs. deLisle. There will be an election of vestry, reports from the rector, the vestry, guild's church schools and other church activities.

Members of the Knight Memorial church will meet at the home of Mrs. Avis Martin, 775 North Cottage street, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Birthday Party Honors Miss Townsend

A delightful surprise party was given following the Salem Silverton basketball game in honor of Miss Claudia Townsend on her eighteenth birthday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude W. Townsend.

The evening was spent in dancing and card playing, and at a late hour refreshments were served.

Guests for the evening were the Misses Vera Steward, Maurine Carmical, Doris Steward, Marjorie Humphries, and the honor guest, Miss Claudia Townsend.

Messrs. Lloyd Reilly, Clyde Johnson, Ray Randall, Duane DeMarais, Sam Earle and Herbert Townsend.

Moosmouth.—Moosmouth's Rebekah lodge observed the opening of the new year with installation of officers Thursday night as follows: N. G., Mrs. Minnie Price; R. S., Mrs. Alta Rogers; L. S., Mrs. Myrtle Halliday; P. N. G., Mrs. Lettie Johnson; V. G., Mrs.

Ben Friesen; R. S., Mrs. Lily Boothby; L. S., Mrs. Susie Stanton; I. G., Mrs. Ethel Moreland; O. G., Mrs. Una Jones; warden, Mrs. Louise Koser; conductress, Mrs. Ivy Hamar; chaplain, Mrs. Riley Mathew; musician, Miss Bernice Winegar.

A social party followed the work, with cards and dancing and a late luncheon.

Aurora.—The Aurora Woman's club will meet Wednesday, January 7 with Mrs. N. E. Hancock. Mrs. Lester Reed will be assistant hostess. Capital punishment will be the subject of a talk by Mrs. L. I. Snyder, followed by a talk on criminal justice by Mrs. Loran Giesy. The business meeting will be conducted by the president, Mrs. George Ehlen.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Robins, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wrenn, left Salem Friday morning by automobile for Palo Alto, Cal.

Mrs. D. W. Eberlin of Seattle left Salem Monday morning, concluding her holiday visit in the home of Mrs. W. H. Dancy.
