FAIRFIELD GRANGE TO HAVE CHORUS

ELDRIDGE, Jan. 7.—Several members of Fairfield grange met Monday evening at the home of Miss Ruth Palmer for the purpose of organizing a chorus.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Flier and their granddaughter, Miss Dorothy Mae Flier, all of Portland are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Nusom.

Miss Ruth Palmer spent Saturday evening at the home of Miss Dorothy Flier in Gervais.

An epidemic of chicken pox has spread through this community.

GUEST AT MONMOUTH MONMOUTH, Jan. 7.—Miss Doris Gates of Scappoose, a high school student, was the guest this week of Helen Robinson, accompanying her mother, Mrs. Frances Gates, a Scappoose teacher, who went on to Eugene to visit relatives. The Gates family were residents of Monmouth for two years while Mrs. Gates was attending the Oregon Normal School, and have many friends here.

ROBERTS CLUB WILL MEET

Women Will Present Second of Contest Programs

ROBERTS, Jan. 7.—The next regular meeting of the community club will be Saturday, January 10 at 8 p. m. This will be an unusually interesting meeting for the women of the community as the men will put on their first program in the series of contests between the women and men of the club.

The women have already had one program and are anxious to see how much talent the men are to display. The contest ends when each has put on two programs. The losers are to give a banquet to the winners.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Blankenship and daughter Frances went Sunday to visit Mrs. J. L. Oliver, a relative in West Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Carpenter and son Paul spent two days last week at Tigard, visiting Rev. and Mrs. A. Hawthorne who are well known in the community. Mrs. Hawthorne returned recently from a trip to Ireland where she visited relatives that she had not seen since coming to America 16 years ago.

STAYTON LEGION MEMBERSHIP 104

STAYTON, Jan. 7.—Stayton post American Legion No. 53 has gone "over the top" with a membership of 104. This is the first time the post has begun the new year with such a membership. Floyd Fleetwood, Mill City, was captain of the team which secured the most members. Frank Rauscher, Sublimity, had charge of the other team, and while his team ranked second, he personally secured more members than any other person.

The next regular meeting of the post will be held Monday, Jan. 12. At this time the ladies will also meet at the home of Mrs. George Duncan. On Thursday, Jan. 15, J. M. Bates, state commander, will visit Stayton, and a special meeting is to be held in his honor, the details of which have not as yet been arranged.
