STAYTON STREETS BEING IMPROVED

STAYTON, Jan. 9.—Among other things accomplished during his reign as mayor, George Keesch deserves considerable credit for road building and paving during his administration. Just now he has men at work on Third street getting things in readiness for paving. This part of the street past the school has been in frightful shape for some time. Not only will the new improvement benefit the school but will be a short cut to the Fern Ridge road, and incidentally the Lone Oak and Catholic cemeteries. Since the day of autos, this part of the street had been seldom used, the street, or road being narrow, crooked and quite
