SCIO, Jan. 13.—Funeral services for Francis W. DeVaney, 76, were conducted Sunday afternoon at the Christian church in Scie by Rev. Bennett, First Adventist pastor at Lebanon, and interment was in the Franklin Butte cometery near Scio.

The church seating capacity of the church was taxed and a large concourse of friends followed the remains to the cemetery. Rev. Bennett paid a high tribute to Mr. Devaney, whom he said he had known to be a faithful and consistent Christian. The choir con-sisted of Mrs. B. D. Myers, Mrs. Iva Abbott, Mrs. F. T. Bilyeu, Miss Gloria Long, Riley Shelton, Gien Thurston, with Miss Pentney at the piano. Active pallbearers, members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of which the deceased had been a member in Scio for 38 years, were Tom Smail, W. H. Young, N. I. Morrison, J. L. Davenport, J. F. Oupor and Lee Bilyeu. Honorary pallbearers were old friends and neighbors of the deceased. Mr. DeVaney was born in Missouri February 3, 1860, and died at the home of his daughter in La-Grande, Ore., January 7, 1931, He

The meeting was one of a ser-ies to be held to promote general fellowship and mutual benefit among the people of the neighboring towns.

The subject under discussion at Friday night's meeting was the proposal to have the market road connecting the Dallas-Salem highway and the Salmon River road taken over by the state highway commission and made a part of the state system of highways.

Among those speaking on the subject were Judge Hawkins, Dr. Starbuck, Oscar Hayter, Mr. Dal-ton of Dallas and Sam Dolan of Corvallis, president of the West Side Highway association.

Senator Johnson of Monroe, joint senator for Polk and Ben-ton counties, was present, and
