'B' AND 'C' GRADES MILK ARE DOWN WHEAT PRICE IS SLUMPING AGAIN

Veal and Best Heavy Hens Oversupply Is Indicated

PORTLAND, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Wholesale butter and egg prices were unchanged today and the opening market tone for both these products was staidier with a pick-up of inquiry noted and a moderate volume of buying from retailers. Butter receipts were smaller and a considerable amount was cleared to outside markets.

City milk dealers were quoting a new scale of prices to producers: $2.00 a hundred for grade B and $1.50 for C grade, at 15 to 20 cent decline from prices of the first half of the month. The new scale compares with a reported $1.70 bid at Seattle for a grade of milk equal to best standard in the Portland area.

In the country dressed meat and poultry trade veal was in over-supply effecting a 1 cent drop to 14-15 cents a pound for choicest stock and heavy hens, moving more slowly, were quoted at a 20 cent top, eliminating a price spread up to 22 cents.

Liverpool Decline is a Factor, Along With Some Selling

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—(AP)—Wheat underwent a maximum setback of 4 1-8 cents a bushel today, compared with yesterday's best level. Selling ascribed to farm board allies accompanied the break, which also was influenced by a fresh decline in Liverpool quotations bringing the Liverpool market down to near its recent low record unparalleled in 350 years. Enlarged shipments from southern hemisphere countries and rains over parts of India were additional bearish factors.

Wheat closed unsettled 7-8 1/4 cents down, corn 1/4-5-8 off, oats at 1-8 decline to 1-8 advance.

BACK FROM CALIFORNIA MONITOR, Jan. 6.—Henry Hansen returned recently in his car from southern California, where he and his family have been since December 1. Mrs. Hansen and son Wesley remained in Hemet, Calif., for the benefit of Mrs. Hansen's health and will probably spend the winter there. Mr. Hansen stopped off in Pasadena on his way home for a short visit with his uncle, and while there attended the big foot ball game in the Rose Bowl, New Year's day.
