OBJECT LESSON OF LIQUOR IS LACKING

Senator Eddy Says Larger Task of Education is Faced as Result

"We have a generation growing up which never knew conditions before we had prohibition. Therefore the task of education is much greater than in the days when we had the open saloon as an object lesson of the evils of the liquor traffic," declared Senator B. L. Eddy of Roseburg at the "Victory Day" luncheon given by the local Women's Christian Temperance Union on Monday.

Rev. W. Earl Cochran sang a solo and led the group singing. Mrs. Necla B. Buck presided at the meeting and introduced Rev. B. Earle Parker who told of the plans of the Salem Ministerial association for the prohibition rally to be held at the armory February 11. E. J. O'Foshow will be the principal speaker at this rally.

Other speakers on the program were Rev. Hugh Fouke who spoke on "Why I Observe the Law," Rev. W. H. Robins whose subject was "How Citizens may cooperate in law Enforcement," and Rev. L. W. Biddle whose subject was "The Fallacy of Arguments for Repeal of the Prohibition Law."

LEAGUE OF CITIES WILL OFFER BILLS

Ten bills to be prepared by the legislative committee of the League of Oregon cities will be introduced during the present legislative session, according to an announcement made here Monday by William Briggs of Ashland, ex-member of the house of representatives.

The measures include a statewide building code, affecting plumbing, heating, wiring and general construction. Another bill will provide that the state highway commission shall defray a part of the cost of maintaining highways in incorporated towns and cities.

Other bills amend the Bancroft assessment payments to be paid semi-annually instead of annually, redistribution of road funds to permit cities to receive 75 per cent instead of 50 per cent of the road levy, reenactment of state laws by city ordinances to conform to existing statutes and printed codes, creation of sinking funds in advance for purchase of fire equipment, erection of municipal garbage and sewerage disposal plants, and blanket foreclosures on suits to quiet title by cities.

There also will be bills prescribing the method for foreclosing delinquent assessment liens by cities, protecting liens of municipalities at tax sales, and

CADET INSTRUCTOR LIST IS PREPARED

Names of 14 possible cadet teachers from the ranks of Willamette university seniors and post-graduates were sent by Dean Frank M. Erickson, acting president, to Ralph Tavener, supervisor of the Salem secondary schools. This number is larger than was ever used before.

The high school, or Parrish junior high will use the university students, according to a statement issued Monday by Tavener. The group will be divided between classes of their own and associations with the regular classroom teacher.

January 22 has been set as the date for a meeting of the group; others will follow weekly. Supervisor Tavener will be the advisor of the group each of whom will teach but one hour each day.

Four cadet teachers have been named in the senior class during the past term and two other university students were used as assistants in a special room at Parrish. During the 1930 spring term, ten cadet teachers were used by the local secondary schools.

Friday visitors at the Roy Stevens home were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stevens of Albany and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bales and daughter, Norma June of Salem. BARNETT HONORED BY ENGINEER FRAT

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Jan. 17—Glenn Barnett, a Salem boy, was one of 11 engineering students at Oregon State college, initiated last week in Tau Beta Pi, national honor fraternity in engineering. Election to membership in this organization is one of the most distinctive honors that can come to a student engineer since members are chosen only from those who have distinguished themselves in scholarship and who possess qualities of leadership and personality.

Barnett is a senior in electrical engineering. In the group honored at this election, five were from the mechanical engineering department, and one student was chosen from the chemical, civil and mining engineers respectively. Dean H. S. Rogers of the State college engineering school, speaking at the initiation banquet, paid deserving tribute to the honored students.

Barnett is president of the American Institution of Electrical Engineers.

SAFE IS DAMAGED, NOTHING REMOVED

Daring robbers borrowed a drill, punch and hammer from the state garage, Saturday night, and after breaking the skylight in Waters' cigar store at 229 State street, they dropped through and knocked the combination off the safe. Indications show that they might have been frightened away since they do not seem to have made much effort to continue the opening of the safe. Nothing was taken.

Three other robberies of the week-end include the breaking into the C. and C. store at 254 North Commercial street through the glass in a rear window. There were $15 taken from two tills.

The other two breaks were made through front windows into Pearson's store at 286 North Commercial street and into the Jacob Rise shoe store at 233 North Commercial street. Nothing was taken from either of these last two establishments.
