Engagement Told At Bridge Evening

Mrs. A. T. Woolpert entertained with an attractive evening of bridge at her home on South High street Saturday night and at the late supper hour following cards tiny cards were passed about to the guests which announced the engagement of Miss Dorothy Brant to Laurence Gregory Deacon. The announcements were clever arrangements of pictures of Miss Brant and Mr. Deacon.

Miss Brant is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brant. She graduated from Willamette university with the class of 1930. Mr. Deacon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Deacon and is a senior at Willamette university and a member of the Sigma Tau fraernity. He is well known in Salem musical circles as a baritone einger.

Sunday the engagement of the young people was announced at dinner at the Sigma Tau fraternity house. Tiny heart-shaped cakes bore the story to the place of each guest at dinner. The invited guests were: Miss

Myra Gleason, Miss Irene Hughes, Miss Marguerite Wann, Miss Arbutus Rudie, Miss Alva Amsler, Miss Geraldine Cook, Portland; Mrs. John Orr, Portland; Mrs. Dee Gordon Simpson, Philomath; Miss Edna Burdy, Portland; Miss Grace Falk, Mrs. LeRoy Hewlett, Mrs. Otto Wilson, Mrs. Carle Abrams, Mrs. Ruth Swartz, Miss Clara Albert, Mrs. Frank Bailey. Miss Minnetta Magers, Portland; Miss Eva Roberts, Miss Hilda Amsler, Mrs. George Deacon, Mrs. Phoebe Cordingly, Brownsville; Miss Grace Breckinridge, Mrs. Leslie Summers, Portland; Mrs. Helen Bradley, Miss Anna Lanke, Mrs. A. T. Woolpert, Mrs. Charles W. Brant.
