GRANT MANNING DIES IN SOUTH

GERVAIS, Ore., Jan. 28.—Eugene Manning has just received word that his only brother, Grant Manning, had died on Christmas day at his home in Eureka, California, where he had lived for the past 25 or 30 years.

Grant Manning was born on the Manning farm between Gervais and Brooks and lived here for several years before going to Eureka. He was one of a family of five children, three girls and two boys. One child, a daughter, was born to this union, dying when she was about 10 years old. Mrs.
Manning died about 20 years ago.
Eight years ago he was again married and the widow and brother are the only immediate surviving relatives. Old timers around here and Brooks will remember the deceased. He was prominent in Masonic circles in Eureka, where he was buried under the Masonic rites, on Sunday, December 28, 1930, in Myrtle Grove cemetery.

Popularity...

"Here, Bill, try one of these sandwiches."

"Say, this sure is good. Your wife must be a wonderful cook to bake bread like this."

"She didn't bake that bread. It's that new Honey Bread.
I take a loaf home every evening."

So the popularity of Hillman's Honey Bread is spreading like wildfire. Why? Just because it is good bread, made of pure, wholesome ingredients and baked in a manner that brings out that home-made goodness.

It's delicious enough for parties and simple enough for every day.
