YOUTHFUL SUICIDE BURIED WEDNESDAY

MONMOUTH, Jan. 28—Funeral services were held today for Jack Stowe, 16 year old son of Mrs. Lillian Stowe, widow living at Peedee. The youth took his own life by shooting himself through the breast with a shotgun Monday night.

Young Stowe had an impediment in his speech, about which he was sensitive. He was not considered to be despondent, but it was said that on Monday he had asked a girl student to accompany him to a dance and she had refused. He walked downstairs at his home that evening, carrying the shotgun, and walked past his mother, who did not suspect anything. He walked out into the back yard and shot himself fatally.

He is survived by his mother and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Vale of Peedee and Mrs. Leone McCoskey of Jefferson county. The funeral was from the Henkle and Thomas parlor at Dallas.

Limiting Pupil Transportation Object of Bill

School districts will not be enabled to create and operate motor bus routes beyond the confines of the district if a bill introduced yesterday in the house by Representative Tompkins is made into law. Violation of the law would mean the withholding, as a penalty, of funds due to the district from the county high school tuition fund.

Another bill by Tompkins provides for smoothing out conflicting transportation routes. It 25 per cent of the voters of a district not maintaining a route petition the district boundary board, a special election may be held to straighten out the matter.

Two Thousand Pounds of the Freshest Cookies You've Ever Seen

NOW, IF YOU ASK ME---

I would say, "Sure, bring the kiddies!" Of course I know that cookies of this kind are considered a luxury by most of us because a lot of cookies like these retail at 40c a pound. Now here is where I come in --- our store, like all other stores, must make a profit or it wouldn't be here for very long. But, I am going to price these cookies at cost and charge the difference to advertising! Now just look at the prices and see for yourself the price is only about half of what you paid for the same thing the last time you bought them. For sale only at the Market.
