Weekend Social Events to be Varied

The week end promises to be one of activity socially. Supper parties, both formal and informal, will be events of both Saturday and Sunday night. Many informal parties are being planned for Sunday when small groups will be entertained for supper, many of these being entertained are folk who are here for the legislative session.

Among the gayest of the weekend parties will be the dance to be given by a group of the younger folk at Hazel Green tonight. At least 100 invitations are out and elaborate arrangements have been carried out for decorations and music. The decorative motif will carry out the idea of a jungle. Miss George Nash is in charge of the arrangements and assisting hostesses are: Misses Lottie Nash, Dorothy Cannon, Jane Harbison, Dorothy Krebs, Jessie Cooper, Francis Reed, Alberta Varley, Kathryn Rowe, Charley Watson, Jewel Fitzpatrick, Anabelle Hitchcock, June Fitzpatrick, Emma Varley, Rosemary Sawyer, Frances Walker, Lucille Nash, Evelyn King, Helen Hauge and Phyllis Hauge.

Patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Krebs and Mr. and Mrs. George Nash.

Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., will entertain with a smart one o'clock luncheon at the Gray Belle today in compliment to Mrs. Romeo Gouley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brophy will entertain Sunday night at the Spa in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. G. Maseon, who will leave Wednesday for a three months' stay in Georgia.

Monday night will be observed by the Salem MacDowell club with its January program in which Mark Daniels' haritone will be presented in a pleasing program.

Presbyterian Folk Plan Interesting Affair

The spirit of Valentine's day is already making itself felt and plans are being laid for entertaining on that day. The first extensive plans to be announced are those being made by the people of the Presbyterian church.

A "fair" will be featured, copied after the old eighteenth century idea of a fair. All participants will be in costume; booths will be arranged and articles of all sorts will be on display but nothing will be for sale—save food which will be characteristic of the country represented by the booth in which the food is on display.

A continuous program has been planned of music, plays, readings, feature dances and other novelties. The fair will be begun at 11 o'clock in the morning and continue through until 11 o'clock at night.

No regular dinner will be prepared but those who care to come and spend the evening will be able to secure food of various and novel kinds to make a "high tea," at least.

Among the features planned are a witch with a wondrous stew, Mother Goose plays, a men's chorus which will adapt some Mother Goose rhymes, and a Scotch booth which will have an unusually interesting character.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

An adorable model for a member of the younger set is fashioned of a gay print, and smartly trimmed with banding of solid color. The cape collar ends at either side of the square neck, disclosing tiny tucks that give a surprising amount of additional grace and fullness to the frock. There are French panties, too, quite the vogue this season.

Pattern 1946 will be lovely made of dimity, swiss, organdy, lawn, voile, etc. A white ground printed with colored flowers may use white trimming or a colored ground may use banding the same shade. Many delightful combinations suggest themselves.

May be obtained only in sizes 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 10 requires 2 1/2 yards of 36-inch material.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern. Patterns for every size and color are available. Send fifteen cents in coin (refund if you return unused) for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

Our new fall and winter fashion book containing complete models for adults and children, an excellent assortment of transfer patterns and stamped novelties, is now ready. Price fifteen cents. Book with pattern, 35 cents. Address all orders to Statesman Fashion Department, 248 West 17th Street, New York City.
