Mrs. Linnie Lee Again Heads Mothers

Mrs. Linnie Lee was again elected president of the Salem Chapter No. 1, American War Mothers, at the Tuesday business meeting in the American Lutheran church. Other officers for the coming year elected and installed were Mrs. Mary E. Watkins, vice president; Mrs. Carrie Bechler, recording secretary; Mrs. Minnie Humphreys, treasurer; Mrs. May Myers, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Addie Curtis, historian; Mrs. Mabel Lockwood, custodian of records; Mrs. Mary Hauch, auditor; Mrs. Rose Hagdorn, chaplain.

A beautiful memorial service was held in memory of Mrs. Jennie Landgraf, gold star mother who passed away recently.

At the business meeting, Mrs. Emily Hendricks suggested that $25 be sent to the Red Cross for drought relief and this was voted to be done by the organization. Special music was given by Miss Margaret Schrieber and Miss Elizabeth Odgen, of Willamette university.

Mrs. Stella M. Wilson was admitted as a new member to the organization. The committee to call on the sick for the next two weeks was appointed and included Mary E. Watkins, May Salsbury, and Susan Balderice.

Mrs. Sarah Hobson, chairman of the social committee appointed the following social committee to serve for the meeting February 17: Mrs. Jennie Vincent, Mrs. Norma Terwilliger, Mrs. Rose Schaffner, Mrs. Mary Mohr, Mrs. Minnie Gabrielson, Mrs. Laura Clutter, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Katherine Bernard, Mrs. Mary Crasnow, and Mrs. Elizabeth Dekebach.

A tea hour closed a very successful and pleasant meeting for the Mothers.

Mrs. Ralph Kletzing Lioness Hostess

One of the social meetings which are being sponsored this year by wives of members of the Lioness club will be held at the Ralph Kletzing home Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Kletzing as hostess, assisted by Mrs. Newell Williams, Mrs. Harry Scott and Mrs. George Lewis.

The party has been planned in unique fashion from the social afternoon to the refreshment hour. St. Valentine's day has offered several motifs for the originality of the plans.

Mrs. Roy Keene assisted by Mrs. Richard Slayter entertained members of the Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae at the Keene home Tuesday night. Sewing for Salem general hospital occupied the attention of the alumnae members.

Pattern

2074

There are many delightful versions of the tunic dress, some tailored and some decidedly feminine as the model sketched today. The soft, flattering shoulder caplets are the essence of femininity. The tunic skirt and the under skirt are moderately flared to achieve just the right degree of chic. The frock is belted, and worn slightly bloused.

Pattern 2074 may be made of silk or wool for equally smart effect. We suggest cotton crepe, satin, maroon, wool crepe, wool serge or one of the many novelty rayons so interesting this season. A plain color, a mixture or a print may be used successfully.

May be obtained only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 requires 4 1/2 yards of 35-inch material.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern. Yards for every size, and simple exact instructions are given.

Send fifteen cents in coin, fully wrapped, or stamps for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and size number. Be sure to state size wanted.

The new fall and winter fashion book contains exquisite models for adults and children and an excellent assortment of transfer patterns and stamped novelties. In new ready. Price fifteen cents. Send with order for catalog. Address: Fashion Department, 245 West 17th Street, New York City.

WHALE 3 MILLION YEARS OLD

Palentologists expressed great interest in the discovery in a hillside near Los Angeles in rock, clay and sand, of the perfect remains of an 18-foot beak whale, which is said to be more than three million years old. "The find again proves that all of the land from the Pacific ocean to the Rocky mountains, was once the ocean's floor," said Dr. William A. Bryan of the Los Angeles museum.

AD CLUB TO SHOW UNUSUAL ABILITY

An exhibit of unusual interest to Salem merchants is being sponsored by the Salem Advertising club on Friday, February 6. This is the Direct Mail Leaders exhibit which is being brought to Salem by Harry Biglow Coffin, member of the advisory department of the Zellerbach paper company of Portland.

At the noon luncheon of the Ad club which will be held in the Silver Grillia of the Gray Belle at noon Friday, Mr. Coffin will explain the outstanding features of this exhibit which includes the best advertising of 1930.

The specimens for the exhibit were chosen from 254 outstanding campaigns from all over the United States. The purpose of the exhibit is to stimulate interest in direct mail advertising, to improve its quality and to give ideas that may be adapted to individual advertising problems.

The meeting is open to all merchants of the city and reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Gardner Knapp at 3522 or Edwin Thomas at 81. The exhibit will be on display from 11 a. m. until 3 p. m. on Friday.

SEED LOAN SCOPE IN OREGON MAPPED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—(AP)—States and counties to be served by the Farmer's Seed Loan office at Grand Forks, N. D., in the making of loans from the $45,000,000 fund to farmers who suffered serious crop losses from drought last year, were announced Monday by Dr. C. W. Warburton, secretary of the national drought relief committee.

In Oregon, loans will be made to aid farmers in summer following operations in sections where drought reduced yields materially in 1930. This includes portions of the counties of Baker, Gilliam, Jefferson, Morrow, Sherman, Umatilla, Union, Wallowa, Wasco and Wheeler. In those counties, wheat generally was sown last fall.

CAMPS IMPROVED
