Salem Symphony Announces Program

A program which will be anticipated with much interest, more than ordinary interest no doubt, will be the program to be given by the Salem Symphony orchestra, February 17, in the armory. This will mark the first public appearance of the senior symphony orchestra organized this past fall under the direction of Dr. R. W. Hans Seltz. Several appearances before small audiences have been made and have met with sincere praise for the work which has been accomplished in the past few months.

The program which will be presented in the coming public concert is planned as follows:

Swedish Festival March—Albert Perfect
"Salute d'Amour"—Edward Elgar
"Adagio Pathetique"—Benjamin Godard
"Funeral March"—Frederic Chopin
First movement from Symphony No. 5
C. Major—L. van Beethoven
Adagio Molto

Intermission
"Overture to the opera 'Pique Opera'—Franz von Suppe
"Crispino in the Balcony"—Liszt
"The Merry Widow"—Liszt
Bridal chorus from "Lohengrin"—Richard Wagner
"In a Persian Market"—Albert W.K.
"In a Persian Market"—Albert W.K.

Albert W. Kestelbey
March from the opera "Aida"—G. Verdi
The program will close with America, sung by the audience and accompanied by the orchestra.

The program has been planned to meet the tastes of the whole audience. The first part of the program represents heavier numbers and interspersed is a group of lighter numbers to balance the presentations.

Miss Gladys Miller Is Complimented

Complimenting her granddaughter on the occasion of her sixteenth birthday Mrs. W. G. Miller entertained Miss Gladys Miller at dinner Sunday. Dinner was served at 12:30 o'clock at a table made gay with a pretty centerpiece of pink carnations and an artfully decorated birthday cake. Following the dinner the honor guest was presented with attractive remembrances of the occasion.

Covers were placed for Miss Gladys Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Miller, Miss Helen Miller, Miss Dorothy Miller, Ralph Miller and Mrs. W. G. Miller.

An attractive luncheon and bridge afternoon was enjoyed by members of Mrs. Elmer Scellars club Tuesday afternoon when she entertained in her Royal Court apartment. Mrs. William Evans and Mrs. George Alexander held winning scores.

Formal Tea Charming Afternoon Event

The formal tea given at the home of Mrs. Henry B. Thielson with Mrs. Thielson, Mrs. F. E. Rilea, Mrs. James Mott, and Miss Thielson as hostesses was one of the loveliest events of the spring. About one hundred guests called during the tea hours and the charming informality of the formal occasion made a memorable note in the afternoon.

The guests were greeted by charming little Sybil Spears in a piquant frock of blue. After the line in which the hostesses stood, the guests were greeted by Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. E. E. Bragg, Mrs. James H. Humphreys, Miss Mabel Robertson, Mrs. Frank Spears, and Mrs. W. Connell Dyer.

Mrs. James Young, Mrs. Ernest Bonesteel, Mrs. Curtis Johnson, Miss Charlotte Zelber, and Miss Rovena Eyre assisted in the dining room.

Presiding in turn at the service table during the afternoon were Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. George A. White and Mrs. U. G. Shipley. The table was beautiful with its centerpiece of marigolds, jonquills, lavender sweetpeas and lavender tapers. Pussywillows and greenery were used as the decorative note for the reception rooms.

This afternoon the same group of hostesses will receive for an afternoon of bridge followed by a tea. Cards will be in play at several tables and additional guests will come in for tea.

Delightful Afternoon Given for Lionesses

The social afternoon at the Ralph Kietzing home with Mrs. Kietzing, Mrs. Newell Williams, and Mrs. Harry Scott as hostesses in compliment to wives of Lion club members, was both unique and charmingly informal.

The guests came in house dresses and cards were discarded for a number of original and amusing informal games. Mrs. Frank Doolittle and Mrs. Carl Emmons won the prizes for these contests.

The idea of St. Valentine was carried out with many red hearts and Valentines about the rooms, and also at the lunch hour. Lunch was served cafeteria style and in an amusing fashion. Twenty five guests were present for the afternoon.

West Salem—Mrs. Leonard Burgoyne will be hostess, Wednesday, February 11, to members of the Women's Missionary society at their regular monthly business meeting.

Mrs. Julius Meier Will be Tea Hostess

Mrs. Julius Meier will entertain at tea at the Elks club Tuesday afternoon between the hours of three and six o'clock.

Among the guests will be wives of members of the state senate and house of representatives, wives of state departments and state institution heads, and wives and daughters of former governors of Oregon.

No formal invitation list is being made up for Salem, but a cordial invitation is extended to all Salem women to call between the hours of three and six o'clock during which time Mrs. Meier will be happy to meet and greet maids and matrons of the capital city.

National Week For B. & P. W. Clubs

National Business Women's week will be observed by Business and Professional Women's clubs from March 9 to 13, according to announcement from national headquarters of the organization in New York.

The 40 B. & P. W. clubs in Oregon are making elaborate plans for the observance of the week during which public relations dinners, friendship teas and industrial exhibits will be featured.

The chorus of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club is planning to appear in several local programs but other local plans have not been announced. Mrs. Madalene Callin, editor of Oregon Business Woman, official magazine of the state federation and a member of the state federation and a member of the Salem club, will be the speaker at the public relations dinner given by the Corvallis club on the evening of March 9. At this dinner business men and representatives of civic organizations will be the guests of the club.

Mrs. L. L. Jensen was hostess for an attractive party at her home Thursday afternoon. Bridge was in play during the afternoon hours and tea was served as a pretty conclusion to the social event. Violets made a distinctively lovely decorative note for the tea table and were used about the guest rooms. Mrs. John Beakey and Mrs. Reed Rowland assisted at the tea hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ron of Court street have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Griffin of Detroit Lakes, Minnesota. The guests are enroute home following an extended visit in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Gardner Knapp Is Hostess

Mrs. Gardner Knapp entertained in compliment to members of Chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood at her home Thursday afternoon. The regular business hour and this followed by a delightful social hour and tea made up the afternoon meeting.

At the tea hours Mrs. Knapp was assisted by Miss Helen Gunn and Miss Betty McMillan.

Among special guests were Mrs. W. E. Burke of chapter L of Newberg; Mrs. Ralph G. Otis, also of chapter L; Mrs. Colon R. Oxman of chapter A. F., Ontario; Mrs. C. H. Eberhard of chapter I of La Grande, all here during the legislative session. Miss Betty McMillan of Lebanon and Miss Helen Gunn of Corvallis were also special guests. Mrs. Earl Cooley came in for the tea hour.

Mrs. Alice Fisher will be the next hostess to chapter G in a fortnight.

Another one of the charming series of informal affairs to be given by Salem hosts in compliment to legislative visitors is that which Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop began Wednesday evening when they entertained at dinner for Senator and Mrs. Joel C. Booth and Senator and Mrs. L. L. Mann.

Thursday Club is Mrs. McNary's Guest

The regular meeting of the Thursday club was a luncheon meeting with Mrs. John McNary as hostess. Luncheon was served in the Marion hotel at one o'clock. Color and charm were lent the luncheon table through the use of many gay valentines and red carnations, and this same idea of decoration was repeated in the guest rooms of the McNary home where following luncheon cards were in play.

Mrs. James Linn, Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. Ercel Kay and Mrs. William Boot were additional guests. Club members present were Mrs. Dave Byrne, Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Frits Slade and Mrs. Oliver Locke.

Miss Lucille Lange who for the past few weeks has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lange, left Monday morning by way of Los Angeles, El Paso, and Chicago for Detroit, Michigan, where she will be the guest of Mrs. L. B. Case, her sister.

Members of the O. N. S. club will meet in the lobby of the Elsinore theatre Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. Those who plan on attending this fine party will call Mrs. Fred Duncan.

Don't let your shoes ... put age in your face

Women are just beginning to understand how much healthy, happy feet have to do with beauty.

As a famous beauty editor says, "Tired feet write tired lines in the face." Do you realize what it would mean to your good looks never to suffer another moment of foot strain? This is what the Selby Arch Preserver Shoe will do for you. From the first day it is worn, you experience new foot freedom. Your feet feel youthful, look youthful, and their complete lack of tension is reflected in face and carriage.

Exclusive construction removes every cause of foot fatigue and strain.

New Parisian models of slenderizing smartness.
