Lucille Howard Given Year in Oregon Prison

When Lucille Howard appeared before Judge L. H. Mc-Mahan yesterday for sentence following previous verdict of guilty on charge of an unnatural crime, she was given a year in the Oregon state penitentiary. Following application for parole, she was paroled to her attorney, R. H. Bassett.

Lucille Howard was the state's chief witness in its action against Brigham Young, who was also found guilty of a crime against nature.

Cruelty Charged In Divorce Plea

Charging cruel and inhur treatment, consisting mostly of his refusal to provide a home for her and of making her live with his parents, Melka Kamph yesterday filed action for divorce against Frank Kamph, to whom she was married in McMinnville in January, 1926. She asks for care of their minor child. When they were married he promised her a home of their own, she says. Later, he cursed and struck at her when she reminded him of the promise, the complaint alleges.

This excellent showing, possibly a climax to four other hard hitting seasons, is all the more significant in that it plainly reveals Wilson's great fighting heart. Wins Decision Over Baer In Garden: Brilliant Boxing Amazes Fans

By EDWARD J. NEIL NEW YORK, Feb. 6 .- (AP) Tommy Loughran, a warrior they said was through, came back to the big battle-pit tonight to amaze a crowd of 12,000 with his boxing brilliance and completely out-fight Max Baer, California's bid for heavyweight importance.

The former light heavyweight champion, stepping blithely around the ring in the fleet style that made his the stylist of the 175-pounders, jabbed, hooked and crossed Baer with every punch in the boxing guide. He dazzled Max at long range, ridiculed him with his skill in the clinches, and tease ed him into flurries of wild swinging that set the whole crowd to laughing. The decision of Referee Jack Dempsey, handling his second match of the night, and the two judges, was unanimous. The Associated Press score card gave Loughran all 10 rounds.

The engagement was Tommy's first in New York since the night in the open air at the Yankee stadium when Jack Sharkey slugged him on the temple and sent him sleep-walking around the ring looking for a chair to sit upon. It was as amazing a comeback as & man could make against an ope ponent tailor-made to bring out the best in him, and Loughtan made the most of it.
