Silverton Woman's Club Hears Salem Women

Silverton—That we are all prone to be disappointed in the failure of some appropriations to pass the legislative committee this session was indicated by Mrs. C. K. Spaulding and Mrs. Ivan Martin of Salem in their talks before the Silverton Woman's club Monday afternoon.

The woman's club opened its business meeting at two o'clock with Mrs. George Hubbs, president, in the chair. During the business meeting an announcement was made to the effect that the library benefit bridge which had been planned for Friday night was postponed until a later date.

Mrs. Theodore Hobart reported on the Doernbecher hospital at Portland and made the motion that the club members bring to the next meeting fruit donations for the hospital. The motion was carried.

Mrs. Hubbs made a brief talk on peace, one of the subjects stressed at each meeting of the club.

Before turning the meeting over to Mrs. H. B. Latham, chairman of the program committee, Mrs. Hubbs introduced Mrs. Karl Haberly, president of the Willard Women's club, who in turn introduced the members of her club. The Willard club was a special guest of the Silverton club for the afternoon.

Mrs. Hubbs also introduced club officers who were present, including Mrs. Ruth Fargo, president of the third district; Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, who represented the Salem club; Mrs. G. B. Benson, county president; Mrs. Ivan Martin, chairman of the legislative committee of the third district; and Mrs. Karl Haberly, president of the Willard Women's club. These women were asked to form a line in the front of the group so that club members could all become acquainted with their officers.

Mrs. Latham opened the program by reading the club "Calendar." Mrs. Vernon Day then led the group in singing patriotic music, with Mrs. Edson Comstock at the piano. Mrs. Day also delighted her listeners with recitations on her harp. As a part of the program, Mrs. James Manning listed a group of Oregon-made products. This was given as a part of the plan to carry out "What Oregon Makes Oregon" which the club stresses each month. Mrs. E. Holden gave an interesting paper on the boyhood of George Washington.

At Mrs. Latham's suggestion that members tell little stories that bear on Abraham Lincoln's life, two particularly interesting little incidents were brought out. Mrs. Mary Towney told of how, when she was a small girl, she had once had the opportunity to meet Mrs. Abraham Lincoln at Waukesha, Wisconsin. Mrs. C. M. Wray told the other outstanding incident:

"I was just a little girl," said Mrs. Wray, "riding in a lumber wagon with relatives in Minnesota. A man came riding like mad on horseback, throwing handbills into the yards of people. We picked one up. It contained the news of Lincoln's assassination. Think how quickly that news would be distributed today."

Following the regular program Mrs. Martin discussed legislative measures. At the close of the program refreshments were served with Mrs. George Hubbs and Mrs. M. J. Madson presiding at the tea table. Hostesses for the afternoon included Mrs. H. B. Latham, Mrs. Madson, Mrs. E. Hubbs, Mrs. F. G. McDonald, Mrs. Herman Kramer, Mrs. E. Holden, and Mrs. James Manning.

Wednesday afternoon the West Stayton Birthday club met with Vera Asche. Invited guests present were Mrs. Paul Haines, Mrs. Charles Wise, Mrs. Frank Einfeldt, Mrs. Shellenberger, Mrs. Neekimour, Mrs. Masters, Mrs. Owen Lacy, Mrs. Paul McCallan, Mrs. Spies, Mrs. John Tigen, Mrs. Sprinkle, Mrs. T. Y. McClellan, Mrs. Frost, Mrs. J. W. Nipple, Mrs. Fred Comstock, and Mrs. Verona Van Osdol.

Club members present were Anna Johnson, Peggy Comstock, Belle Woolsey, Mable Rayne, Nellie Woolsey, Martha Beldon, Ada Stewart, Della Chamberlin, Iris White, Minnie Dickman, Mary Hankin, Minnie Allen, Sally Goss, Helen Gilbert, Joan Bowne, Christina Forreth and the hostess, Verona Asche.

This meeting was the club's first anniversary. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mable Rayne; vice-president, Peggy Comstock; secretary-treasurer, Minnie Dickman. Refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be with Martha Beldon, February 18.

The Women's club of the Elkin's rural section, met Saturday at the schoolhouse. A cafeteria dinner was served at noon to the members, their families, and to a large number of guests.

Mrs. Merrill Lucas, president of the organization, turned the program over to Mrs. Cora Combs O'Day. Monmouth Normal school students and training school pupils gave the program which included vocal selections by Miss Alma Larkin, Oregon Normal school student. Hungarian dance by six young women of the Normal; a humorous skit by Martha Mae Blair and Virginia Craven; and a comedy reading by Elva Edelmans, all pupils of the Monmouth training school.

Josiah Wills, county school superintendent of Polk, presented a comprehensive survey of the free text book measure which is to come before the legislature, shortly.

Formal Tea is Beautiful Event

A lovely tea, smartly informal and beautifully appointed, for which Mrs. Julius L. Meier was hostess Tuesday afternoon between the hours of three and six o'clock in the first floor social rooms of the Elks temple, bids fair as a social omen for future activities for which the first lady of Oregon may be hostess.

The guests were received by Mrs. Meier and Mrs. George W. Joseph of Portland with Miss Beatrice Walton introducing to the line. Mrs. Meier was charming in white lace. Mrs. Joseph was also in white and Miss Walton was distinctively attractive in black.

The line stood in the small reception room to the temple and after being greeted by Mrs. Meier, guests drifted into the long tea room which was covered with a long table covered with an exquisite lace cloth and centered with a massive bowl of spring flowers. Extending from the flowers were festoons of green ropes which draped over the sides of the table with the lace cloth for a future ground. Banked against the corners of the room were palms and other greenery. This effect together with soft carpets on the floor and soft lights made a delightfully home like atmosphere where several hundred women of Salem and out of town met and chatted.

Alternating at the tea table from 3 to 6 o'clock were Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall of Eugene, Mrs. W. J. Kerr of Corvallis, Mrs. Fred Selzer, Mrs. Ernest Willard and Mrs. Aaron Frank of Portland; and from the capital city, Mrs. Tom Kay, Mrs. John McNary and Mrs. George White.

Assisting about the rooms and in the serving were Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. Henry M. Hansen, Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Mrs. Gus Hixon, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Miss Beatrice Walton, all of Salem; Mrs. Victor S. Bovelle of San Francisco; Mrs. Allen Meier of Portland; and a group of co-eds from the state university at Eugene, the Misses Katherine King, Mary Lou Mackey, Eleanor Coburn and Cynthia Hall.

Seo.—The Westcoast club met with Mrs. Thomas Quigley Thursday afternoon. A business session was held at which the following officers were elected: president, Mrs. J. I. Shelton; vice president, Mrs. E. S. McCrae; reporter, Mrs. Thomas Quigley.

Mrs. Gilbert Finley, Mrs. Lester Quigley and Mrs. John Rosser were guests. Members present were Mrs. J. I. Shelton, Mrs. E. S. McCrae, Mrs. Kenneth Purdy, Mrs. Lyle Shelton, Mrs. Charles White, Mrs. Thomas Quigley, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Inman, Mrs. Traten and Mrs. O. A. Hays.

Refreshments were served by the hostess. Club meets next time with Mrs. J. I. Shelton.

Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby and Mrs. Anna Junk were weekend guests in Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Darby. While there Mrs. Darby and Mrs. Junk were luncheon guests of Mrs. Sarah Green and Mrs. Estella Ford.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church will meet at 7:30 on Wednesday evening in the church parlors. Miss Laura Hale will be the leader, and Mrs. Paul Edwards will present the lesson.

Elizabeth Pattee To Lecture Tuesday

Members of the Salem Garden club and those of the interested public who care to attend will hear Miss Elizabeth Pattee of Boston, Mass., Tuesday evening at the Women's clubhouse in a lecture on "Gardens, Old and New."

Miss Pattee is an architect and landscape architect, and comes west with a large background of experience from which to draw her remarks. She will address the Portland Garden club Friday night. Miss Edith Schryver and Miss Elizabeth Lord will go down for this lecture and bring Miss Pattee back with them to be their house guest while she is in Salem.

A slight charge will be made for the Tuesday night lecture, which will include slides of gardens both in the United States and abroad, as well as an interesting lecture to accompany them.

Jefferson—Mrs. Charles Cox entertained the Rural Recreation club at her home Thursday afternoon. Foliage of ferns and one Oregon grape, with snow berries and winter flowers made attractive decorations about the rooms.

The president, Mrs. Earl Cunningham, presided over the business meeting. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Cunningham and will be in the nature of a Valentine party. Each guest will take a comic valentine, dress in print and entertain. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Cunningham and will be in the nature of a Valentine party.

Variety Club Has Happy Afternoon

An enjoyable luncheon was followed by an afternoon of bridge at the A. E. Wickert home when Mrs. Wickert entertained the Variety club Monday.

The luncheon table was attractively centered with a lovely miniature Japanese garden and wee Japanese parasols made attractive favors.

About the living rooms were bridge was in play during the afternoon hours following the luncheon red carnations and pussy willows added a lovely charm and suggested the idea of St. Valentine. The Valentine motif was also suggested in the card accessories used.

Club members are Mrs. W. J. Lee, Mrs. William Craig, Mrs. F. B. Matthis, Mrs. Francis Puttaert, Mrs. J. G. Schmid, Mrs. Chris Ringwald, Mrs. Guy Nugent, and Mrs. A. E. Wickert. Mrs. Lee will be the next hostess to entertain the club in two weeks.

Woodburn—Plans for the annual Martha Washington supper given each year by the Woodburn Woman's club for the benefit of the library were made Wednesday when Mrs. C. F. Whitman delightfully entertained the club at her home. The supper will be held in the Woodburn library, February 22.
