SALEM HEIGHTS SUPPER TONIGHT

SALEM HEIGHTS, Feb. 12.—The regular meeting of the Salem Heights community club will be held at the community hall Friday evening, February 13. After the business session a very good program is in store for those present.

A jifney chicken pie supper will also be held at the hall in the early part of the evening. The serving will begin at 6:00 o'clock sharp in order to have everything cleared away in time for the program. Preparations are being made by those in charge to take care of a large crowd, as the club's chicken pie suppers are especially well attended.

ROBERTS, Feb. 12.—The program at the community club Saturday evening will be put on by the men of the club. Friends and members of the club are looking forward to a splendid program as this marks the last efforts of the men in the contest which has been going on for several weeks between the men and women of the club.

Who will have to give the supper will soon be known. The judges are Mrs. Minnie Beckett, J. P. Bressler and Joe Finden.

New Sewing Club Plans Activities

TURNER, Feb. 12.—The regular meeting of the new 4-H club met Friday afternoon at 3:30 in the home economics room. The members were all present but three, who were sick. A short business meeting was held.

The girls decided to name their club "Sew and So." There are 15 girls in the first division who will begin their sewing on towels. Charissa Clark is eligible for the second division, which takes up sewing on undergarments. The girls also work on quilt blocks. There are three divisions of the meeting hour, business, instruction and work, and social programs. Mrs. J. R. Cox is the club leader.

DAUGHTER IS BORN
TURNER, Feb. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards received word the first of the week from their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Sande of Alameda, Cal., announcing the birth of a daughter February 7, which is their first child. Mrs. Sande grew up near Turner. After finishing high school she held a position for a number of years at the U. S. National bank of Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Sande moved to California about three years ago.

Bill I've Been Trading at Your Store Ever Since You Started in Business Out on Center Street in 1912

And I've never given it much thought as to just why I have stayed all these years with your store, but the other evening my wife mentioned something that I have always noticed but thought little about —

And Bill, that's this, and it may not seem like much to you, but it does mean a lot to us. Your boys have a way of making your customers feel at home. It makes no difference to them whether I come to your store in my old working clothes or not, they always seem glad to see me, and I always feel that my dollar is considered just as good as anyone else's, and it seems perfectly natural for me to call you by your first name. I remember also that I have seen you when you looked like you were sore at the whole world, and I've felt that way many times myself, so I'm not holding that against you, because I think we all have those days when everything seems to go wrong.

Now, folks, whenever I feel one of those spells coming on—you know, like I'm sore at the whole world—well, I'm just going to try to remember that other people have their troubles, too!

BUSICK'S AT THE MARKET

Nice, sweet, juicy
Oranges
3 doz.
29c

Bananas
Not over-ripe either —
In fact, they are especially nice, and you get 4 pounds for 23c

We also have a nice lot of medium size
Oranges
that we believe to be a good value at 2 dozen for 49c

Good apples are getting scarce. While we still have a very nice lot, when they are gone we don't know of any more locals that we can sell so reasonable as these —
Rome Beauties
97c box
Choice grade at 89c per box

Crackers
There's all the difference in the world between fresh crackers and stale ones —

This week we have a special lot of Red Star fresh Milk and Honey Grahams and Red Arrow Salted Wafers, and they are fresh and crisp — packed in 2-lb. box at 2 boxes 57c

Now Laugh if You Like!
I bought another 1500 pounds of those delicious
Fig Bars
for the kiddies and we are keeping the price down low so all may enjoy this treat —
Yes, some price,
9c lb.

Oh, Boy!
Wouldn't that be great if we could do that?
A fellow that travels all up and down the coast told me the other day that if the people knew about the wonderful lunches and dinners they serve here at this lunch counter you'd have to double the seating capacity right off the bat.

He was talking about the Coffee Shop, right here at the Market!

Pillsbury's
Flour
You know the one I mean, the one that makes more loaves to the sack. Same old price, 49-lb. sack for $1.25
Other brands, of course, some as low as 75c for a 49-lb. sack.

Pet Milk
tall cans
4 for 25c
Busicks' Freshly Roasted
Coffee
3 lbs.
69c

M. J. B. Coffee
I know of cheaper coffee, but I would have to look a long time to find a better —
1-lb. cans
43c

Bill, every time I see some store selling something at a special price for a bait I play the old fox on 'em. I buy the special and nothing else—then I know I won't get hooked. What would you do, Bill, if you were buying food? Pretty smart, the way you do it, I'd say.

Busicks' Oven-Fresh
Bread
at 5c
is a real value.
