Thursday Club Tea Lovely Affair

One of the brilliant affairs of the week was the Thursday club tea given at the home of Mrs. R. F. Bohe with members of the club as hostesses. This is a bi-annual affair on the part of the club in compliment to the visiting electric officers wives who are in Salem during the legislative session.

The rooms of the Bohe home were beautifully arranged with spring flowers. The dining room carried out the idea of Lincoln's birthday with a color scheme of red, white and blue flowers. At one end of the dining room was a large picture of Lincoln and a gracefully arranged American flag.

Presiding at the tea table during the hours between 3 and 5 o'clock were Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. Alice Dodd of Portland, Mrs. Russell Catlin and Mrs. George Pearce.

Mrs. Frank Spears met the guests at the door and introduced them to the part of the tea. Mrs. Bohe, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, and Mrs. F. A. Elliott.

All the members of the club acted as hostesses. A group of the daughters of club members had charge of serving. These were Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. Breymann Bohe, Miss Helen Pearce, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Frederick Deckebach.

A group of program numbers were given by Miss Josephine Albert, Miss Rosalind Van Winkle, Miss Elma Nell, and Miss Helen Pemberton.

Preceding the tea Mrs. William Brown entertained with a one o'clock luncheon in compliment to her sister, Mrs. R. F. Crail of Portland. Covers were placed for 10 and the party went from the luncheon to tea.

Zona—Mrs. Charles McCarter of Brush College and Mrs. W. T. Scott of Salem were joint hostesses recently to members of the Spring Valley missionary society at the home of Mrs. Scott. Officers were elected at this meeting with the result that Mrs. S. D. Crawford will serve this year as president; Mrs. Frank Windsor, vice president; Miss Irene Windsor, secretary; Mrs. W. Frank Crawford, treasurer. Mrs. V. Lee Gibson, Mrs. L. Frank Matthews, and Mrs. Frank Windsor were named as the committee to work with joint committees of the scores went to Mrs. Willard

Popular Teacher Tells Wedding Date

Miss Pauline Rickli, who for the past four years has been a member of the Salem high school faculty, will teach her last day in the school today and then after many social affairs and farewells leave for Lewiston, Idaho, where she will become the bride of James H. Cairns.

Miss Ola Clark entertained Thursday night in compliment to Miss Rickli, with an informal evening of bridge and conversation. Saturday Miss Beryl Holt will entertain with a luncheon in compliment to the bride to be, Wednesday Miss Ruth Smith and Miss Lella Johnson will entertain with a tea at Lausanne hall in compliment to Miss Rickli. Other plans and social affairs will be announced later.

At least 50 members of the Willing Workers class and the Loyal Woman's class of the First Christian church met in the church parlors Thursday afternoon. Both classes held business meetings. The Willing Workers planned work for the coming year, and the Loyal Women took care of current month business. Following the business meetings a joint social afternoon was enjoyed. The hostess committee served tea and a very successful afternoon was enjoyed. The guest rooms were attractively arranged in shrubbery and pussy willows.

Hubbard—Mrs. Walter Fry entertained the members of the Poetry club with a luncheon at her home in Aurora Monday evening. She was assisted by her son Glenn.

The table was beautifully arranged with St. Valentine motif in a color scheme of red and white.

The evening was spent in a study of the lives and works of Mary Caroline Davies and Grace B. Hall.

Mrs. A. A. Stewart entertained members of the Golden Hour club at her home Thursday afternoon with a 1 o'clock luncheon and a social afternoon. St. Valentine's day formed the motif for the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neer entertained their bridge club Monday evening. A delightful dinner hour was followed with an evening of bridge.

Mrs. Donald Young Luncheon Hostess

One of the prettiest although small and informal luncheons of the week was that for which Mrs. Donald Young was hostess in her home on Fairmount hill Wednesday afternoon.

The luncheon table was a study in St. Valentine's symbols. The centerpiece was created from two red satin hearts each centered with a creamy calla lily. Tiny satin hearts centered each with a rose bud marked covers for eight guests.

The afternoon was an informal one of conversation.

Brooks—Honoring the 47th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Harris of Brooks, the Gervais Odd Fellows lodge gave a supper in the dining room of the lodge Saturday night. Covers were placed for about 100 guests. A short program was given preceding the supper. The balance of the evening was spent playing "500."

Those attending from Brooks were, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Harris, Mr. and Mrs. William Buchanan and children Dolores and Kenneth Buchanan, Mrs. J. S. Dunlavy, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hammock and brother James Minty, Miss Lavone Harris, Albert Harris and the honor guests Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harris.

Rickreall—The Woman's Missionary society held its February meeting at the home of Mrs. S. J. Lowry Thursday afternoon.

The children's oratorical contest, which was to have been held Sunday evening, February 8, has been postponed and will probably be held on March 1.

The second and third chapters of the missionary study book, "The Cloud of Witnesses" was discussed by members who had read it. The next meeting will be held March 5.

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Aicher and family were pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening when friends came to help Mr. Aicher and his daughter Florence, celebrate their birthday.

The evening was spent in playing cards. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Sebastian Aicher, who was assisted by Mrs. Peter Pranti and Mrs. Joseph E. Aicher.

Those present were Mr. Joseph Aicher, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aicher, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Aicher and son, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Hermia, and sons Thomas and Edward, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Aicher and daughter Rita, all of Woodburn; Mrs. Ewert and Mrs. Frank Ewert of Mount Angel; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pranti and son Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paul and daughters Agnes and
