Local Artists Give MacDowell Program

Miss Dorothy Pearce, pianist, and Miss Lena Belle Tartar, contralto, will give the February program of the Salem MacDowell club Monday night in Waller hall of Willamette university.

Miss Pearce will play in recital at this time for the first appearance since her return from a tour of Europe last winter, followed by a period of study under Francis Moore, a younger teacher returned to Salem in June.

The program which Miss Pearce has planned is representative of the very old artists, Bach and Rameau, and of the eighteenth century artists, and her third group is typically modern.

The numbers to be played represent the lighter and happier music of each period, from which they are taken and the numbers of both Miss Pearce and Miss Tartar are for the most part entirely new on Salem programs.

This program promises to be one of genuine interest and musical beauty.
