

STATE BILL UP TODAY

Report is Adverse Though Some of Committee's Members for it

The senate swung into action yesterday, beginning what many hope but few expect will prove to be the final week of the legislative session. Monday's report was not of major importance for the most part. Today the senate faces a heavy calendar with important measures up for consideration.

The final measure of the power reforms, the single commissioner bill, house bill 77, is on the calendar but will not be reached today.

A show-down on the state police bill is expected early in the morning session when the revision of laws committee will present a report which the measure favored by the governor.

The majority report, signed by Senators Strayer, Francisovich and Hall is adverse. Senator Eddy is bringing in a minority report favorable to the governor's bill, while Senator Bailey, chairman of the committee, is still on the fence.

Game Code Will Be Reconsidered

Among the accomplishments of the senate yesterday was the reconsideration of the state game code on motion of Senator Miller. The bill was referred back to the game committee where it will be put through the revision committee. It is expected that it will come early enough to gain senatorial favor. The measure last late Saturday.

The senate defeated the prison industry bill which would have permitted the making of state license plates and signs at the state penitentiary. Staples and Upton led the support for the bill which was introduced by Booth, Carners, Dunne and Upton. Those signs against it were those of Eddy, Woodward, Crawford, Spaulding, and Miller. The competition of prison with free labor was a strong argument used against the bill.

While the house after lengthy argument was administering itself to sleep, H. B. 137, which would repeal the initiative of 1926 restricting fishing by wheels and traps on the Columbia, the senate with little debate adopted a majority report adverse to Senator Kuch's bill to permit fish wheels to operate under a tax.

The senate adopted a report from the Multnomah delegation favoring passage of a bill letting the county commissioners levy a city tax for the report of the Portland art museum.

Bills passed in senate Monday: S. B. 304, by Billingsley and Miller. Creating a bird refuge in Malheur county.

S. B. 295, by Schulmerich. To extend the liquidation of banks and trust companies.

S. B. 289, by committee on irrigation and drainage. Confering on drainage districts of less than 1000 acres the right to own and operate wells, reservoirs, etc.

S. B. 292, by Bronaugh, et al. Relating to the investment of capital stock.

H. B. 78, by Wells et al. Defining marine insurance, marine business and marine risks.

H. B. 171, by Bynon. Relating to the distribution of session laws.

H. B. 151, by Smith et al. Relating to suits for determination of adverse claims to real property.

H. B. 195, by Bronaugh et al. To require foreign and alien corporations and companies engaged in casualty insurance to deposit securities or bonds in lieu thereof with the state insurance commissioner.

H. B. 237, by Lee. Relating to the issuance of summons in justice records.

H. B. 292, by Ohndra. Providing that foods which contain eggs, dried eggs, egg powder or other egg products which have been imported from foreign countries shall be labeled.

S. B. 179, by Upton. To provide the state tax commission with jurisdiction and authority to examine and audit the budgets and tax levies of municipal corporations of counties of less than 100,000 population.

S. B. 301, by committee on judiciary. To provide for service of process upon persons to whom letters have been granted when such persons cannot be found within the state of Oregon.

S. B. 295, by revisions of law committee. Relating to the appointment of guardians for insane and incompetent persons.

S. B. 307, by committee on agriculture. Relating to definitions and standards of ice cream.

S. B. 289, by Eddy. Providing for the appointment of special prosecutors by the governor.

S. B. 321, by committee on judiciary. Placing the taxing of aircraft on a par with motor vehicles.

S. B. 86, by Upton and Hamilton. To create the Ochoce game refuge.

S. B. 290, by Staples. Authorizing secretary of state to designate one or more of his deputies or clerks to perform certain official acts.

S. B. 205, by Schulmerich. Relating to disposition of fee of 25 cents for issuing temporary motor vehicle permits. Counties to retain fee.

companies to furnish certain information in their annual statements showing names of persons for whom insurance is written.

H. B. 93, by Representative Scott. Relating to qualifications of voters in union high school districts.

(Continued from page 1) appeared before the committee and urged that a million dollars be deducted from the appropriation asked by the state board of higher education. Schulmerich said the salaries and wages at the University of Oregon and Oregon State college had increased more than $1,500,000 during the past six years, while the enrollment had increased 130.

Hydro-Commission Expense Reported. The committee reported out without recommendation a bill appropriating $50,000 for the expenses of the proposed hydro-electric commission. Among the bills carrying appropriations that were disapproved by the committee were the following:

S. B. 247, by Booth. Appropriating $10,000 for veterans burial plot in Mt. Scott cemetery, Portland.

S. B. 258, by Moser. Authorizing to pay off state debt, with option to purchase, one or more office buildings in city of Portland.

S. B. 256, by Bennett. Authorizing the printing of currency to pay off state debt.

H. B. 25, by Glass. Appropriating $25,000 for power survey near The Dalles.

H. B. 32, by Hellberg. Appropriating of $49,000 for armory at Astoria.

H. B. 65, by Anrell. Appropriating of $25,000 for research work on Columbia river under direction of Columbia valley association.

H. B. 80, by Wells et al. Increasing salary of insurance commissioner.

H. B. 274, by Hamilton. Appropriating $50,000 for promotion of agricultural and industry under state chamber of commerce.

The committee approved a bill that would replace the governor, secretary of state and state treasurer, as members of the state emergency board, by two members of the house and one member of the senate.

Kogell Bill For Pepco Refund is Passed by House

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 23.—(AP)—The Kogell bill to pay $6721 to the Portland Electric Power company to cover the court decision in the Oregon case was passed tonight by the house and sent to the senate.

The purpose of the measure is to reimburse the company for money erroneously paid the federal treasury in 1917. The company sought to acquire federal land in Oregon and California by condemnation proceedings. Its action was upheld in the state courts and the company paid the purchase price to the court which turned it over to the treasury.

Later the federal court reversed the title to the land in the United States.

Drive For Oil Embargo Ended By Committee

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—(AP)—The drive of independent oil producers for protection against the foreign oil embargo was abruptly halted today by the house ways and means committee.

By a vote of 13 to 7, the revenue committee that framed the Hawley-Smoot tariff act, voted to postpone all tariff and embargo measures because "there would not be sufficient time during the remainder of the session for the consideration" of such bills.

Yankee Matador Said Recovering

LAREDO, Texas, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Sidney Franklin, American bull fighter gored in the arena at Nuevo Laredo yesterday, was resting easily tonight. A wound in one leg, six inches long and three deep, inflicted by a bull, was healing rapidly. Physicians said Franklin probably would be able to fight at Eagle Pass Sunday.

MEIER UTILITY BILLS PASSED

Trio of Bills Through one House and two Passed in the Other

(Continued from page 1) and there is the "mandate of conscience" which none may escape. Threat Contained. In Lawrence's Talk. The Glass of Wesco defended the bill as providing tax revenue for the state. DeLap of Klamath Falls and Taylor of Clatskanie opposed it. Lawrence of Corvallis invoked a threat upon those voting against it when he said: "Every legislator who fails will have to pay the price."

The grange power bill drew sharp criticism from John H. Lewis, former state engineer, who criticized the way the legislation had been prepared and pushed through without proper consideration and amendment. He disapproved strongly of the provision for taxing the district plans and said that would make the bill futile.

"I don't like it at all. I think it is absolutely wrong. It is absolutely inconsistent. You cannot have cheap power and tax these plants. Leave off the tax and then tax the industries attracted here by cheap power."

Gill, in support of the bill, said it had been worked over by a committee for four months in an endeavor to make it workable and keep conservative safeguards to prevent blunders in promotion.

An amendment offered by Smith of Hood River giving parcels of territory in each county the right of voting separately on whether to join the district or not was approved.

RANKIN SETS NEW RECORD OF LOOPS

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Tex Rankin, Portland, Ore., aviator, set a new world record for outside loops today over the Grand Central air terminal. He completed 73 consecutive loops in 88 minutes. The former record of 46 loops was made in three hours by Paul Mantz of Palo Alto, Cal.

The new record was made in the presence of Joe Ukret, observer for the National Aeronautical association.

Rankin, upon landing, said he would have continued looping but he was confused by some dark goggles he was wearing and thought it was much darker than it was.

Dorothy Hester, Portland aviator, established a women's record for outside looping here yesterday with five loops.

FRANCE AND ITALY PARLEY ON NAVIES

PARIS, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Arthur Henderson, British foreign secretary, and A. V. Alexander, first lord of the admiralty, came here tonight from London to take a hand in the Franco-Italian naval negotiations which hitherto have been carried on between H. L. Craig, the British expert, and Count Rene Massigli for France. They went into conference immediately with Aristide Briand and Charles Dumont, minister of the navy.

Should France and Italy fail to reach an accord on their naval program, a building race between those countries might ensue, such a race, it is felt in naval circles, would imperil the London treaty and might oblige Great Britain to invoke its safeguard clause and build in proportion to Italy and France.

Skiff Capsizes, Lads Are Saved After 3 Hours

SEATTLE, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Five Seattle boys were rescued today after being stranded in a skiff after falling from their capsized skiff into Elliott bay where they battled for three hours before help came.

Two were unconscious and in a critical condition. The three others were suffering from exhaustion and exposure but did not need medical aid.

The boys were rescued by Captain Ralph Buzzard and the crew of the tug Grosser halfway between Washouk Island and West Seattle. Four were clinging feebly to their swamped boat and the fifth was making a valiant attempt to swim ashore when picked up.

Toadstools Are Fatal to Three; Warnings Given

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23.—(AP)—The deaths of three persons within four days from eating poisonous fungi, commonly known as toadstools, mistaken for mushrooms, brought a warning from Dr. Edward F. Glasser of the state board of health today against promiscuous gathering of vegetable growths.

Elliot I. Kittie, Ross attorney, and Luigi Bianchini, of Forest Knolls, died Friday and Saturday, while Mrs. Frances Kelly, San Francisco, died today.

APPORTIONMENT PROBLEM VIEWED

The matter of reapportionment of the legislative representatives will be studied by a commission of nine members if the house concurs in the resolution adopted by the senate yesterday.

The senate defeated a bill introduced by Senator Carners, which would prohibit public officers and employees from having any pecuniary interest in writing any bond, undertaking or insurance policy, written in behalf of the state or its political subdivisions.

The bill was opposed by Senator Rhoads, who said it apparently was directed at some person or persons who are engaged in the insurance business. Senators Dunne, Kiddie and Staples also opposed the bill. The measure was defeated by Senators Carners, Upton and Hall.

CERRO WITHDRAWS PRESIDENTIAL AIM

LIMA, Peru, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Provisional President Luis M. Sanchez Cerro rushed troops today to crush a rebellion at Arequipa, dominant city of southern Peru, and at the same time sought to calm the political waters by withdrawing his candidacy for the presidency and moving for a new constitution.

Heretofore Sanchez Cerro has headed a military junta, governing by a council of ministers, but today the junta cancelled the decree looking toward a general election. A few hours later Sanchez Cerro withdrew his candidacy for formal election to the post he now holds as a result of revolt.

In cancelling the presidential election decrees, the president and all ministers signed a manifesto declaring that only a national assembly will be chosen in the forthcoming polling.

This body will be in the nature of a constitutional convention and legislative body in one, as it first will draft a new code and then will sit as a congress for a term to be fixed later.

Loggers Defeat Pacific Quintet

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 23.—(AP)—The Tacoma Puget Sound basketball quintet trounced the Pacific university five, 51 to 23, in a slow game here tonight. The Loggers led, 21 to 14, at half time.

Eddie Kenrick, emotional Louisa forward, counted seven field goals to gain high scoring honors along with Bower, his running mate. Walters starred for the loggers.

MISS MILLER WINS FELLOWSHIP HONOR

Portland Woman is Choice Of Oregon A. A. U. W. For $1200 Loan

The fellowship committee of the American Association of University Women following its meeting Saturday in Salem announced Miss Kathryn Miller of Portland as the applicant selected out of the 18 applications for the three year $1200 fellowship loan given by the Oregon Division of the A. A. U. W. This year, Miss Virginia Keeney was named as the alternate in case Miss Miller cannot or does not accept the nomination.

This fellowship was granted on the basis of the applicant having an equivalent in work which showed the serious trend of the applicant toward continuing work on a doctor's degree.

Miss Miller graduated from Reed college in 1926 and following that she took work on her master's degree in Columbia university where she also had part time work as secretary in the Columbia university Press book store. She received her master's degree in economics and then last year entered as one of the 11 women to be admitted for the first time to the law school of Columbia.

Miss Miller was the first woman to enter the Columbia school of law.

In between this work Miss Miller was executive secretary of the National Woman's party for two and one half years, and from the president of the party received exceptionally high recommendations.

Plans to Make Study at Geneva. When Miss Miller has completed her work in law she plans to go to Geneva where she will make a study of international relations, particular respect to women.

Miss Keeney who was named as alternate is a graduate of five year course in school of architecture of University of Oregon in 1927. For two years following that she was in the office of Bain and Price of Seattle and is now in a woman's firm of architects in Boston, Howe, Manning, and Almy.

Her special interest is Colonial houses and she wants to take further work in Europe and study in America as well.

The 18 applicants represented the fields of science, foreign language, philosophy, psychology, physical education and English.

Miss Laura Garnjost completed this fellowship last year and is now teaching in the science department of the University of California. She was the first to receive the fellowship which is a unique phase of the A. A. U. W. in Oregon.

The fellowship committee personnel is Mrs. G. A. Johnson, state president of the organization and member ex officio; Miss Ruth Rockwood, Portland, chairman; Miss Mary Perkins, department of English, University of Oregon; Mrs. Kate Jamison, dean of women, Oregon State college; Miss Jessie Short, mathematics department, Reed college; Miss Helen Pierce, department of English, Willamette university.

This gives a representative to each of the four colleges of Oregon admitted by the American Association of University women.

January Revival Of Business Now Dubbed Seasonal

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—(AP)—Expansion of industrial activity and gains in employment earlier in the year are expected to have been "almost wholly seasonal" and developments of recent weeks have not entirely borne out the optimistic hopes aroused by the January revival, says the Guaranty Trust company of New York in its monthly survey of business.

The survey says that the revival of business in January was not entirely borne out by the optimistic hopes aroused by the January revival, says the Guaranty Trust company of New York in its monthly survey of business.

MEIER USES VETO AXE FIRST TIME

The heavy hand of gubernatorial vetoes fell on two measures, the first for the session. One, H. B. 147 by judiciary committee, would have permitted laborers under compensation act to recover and attorney's fee in case they won their suits upon an appeal. The other was Hamilton's bill increasing the salary of the county judge of Deschutes county from $1200 to $1800 a year.

The governor said on the latter "Without entering upon a discussion with respect to the merits of the contemplated increase, I feel that any salary increase during the present economic depression when many people are unable to pay their taxes is unwarranted."

On the other bill he said: "It would be inadvisable to make any added demands upon the industrial accident fund at this time."

The governor signed two bills, one of them the Burke bill repealing the certificate of convenience and necessity required of a utility before it could start business; and the other S. B. 128 by Carners related to an election on question of tax levy if advertising purposes.

MACDOWELL CLUB CONCERT PLEASING

Dorothy Pearce and Lena Belle Tartar Appear as Guest Artists

A program delightfully satisfying and artistically beautiful as well as individual was that presented by Dorothy Pearce, pianist, and Lena Belle Tartar, contralto, guest artists on the Salem MacDowell club program given in Waller hall Monday night.

Miss Pearce appeared for the first time since her return from New York city almost a year ago after having studied there for several months. The numbers for this first appearance were happily chosen. They were representative of three periods of musical development and represented the lightest, more fanciful moods of each period.

A graceful position at the piano, especially poised form with her right arm, wrist and hand, smooth unity in theme development yet offering clear, clean notes, all conspired to make the numbers presented by Miss Pearce delightfully beautiful.

Perhaps all these characteristics which indicated excellently concealed technique, were most particularly noticeable in the "Suite in D Minor" with allomands, gavotte and minuet movements. The light colorfulness of the allomands was offset by the shaded dramatic accentuation of the gavotte and minuet.

The last group, representing the moderns, displayed more teachers but there was gorgeous depth of fancy and strength in Debussy's "La Cathedrale Engloutie."

Miss Tartar, who has been heard in a solo recital just recently, repeated her success of that night. Especially lovely was "Sapho Ode" by Brahms, an encore, and Verdi's "Strida in Vamp," from Il Trovatore. Each Tartar's voice to best advantage.

Section brought out the individual loveliness and strength of Miss Tartar's voice to best advantage.

Many flowers, and an enthusiastic and demonstrative audience worked together to make the February MacDowell program a distinctly lovely one.
