WAGERS HE'LL PLAY WITH THE MIGHTY

William Robert Crissy, Phila., Pa., stock broker, has a job on his hands. Crissy has wagered $2,000 with several friends, five of whom are brokers, that before Feb. 15, 1932, he will have dined with President Hoover, played golf with Bobby Jones, motored or played golf with the Prince of Wales, and played golf with John D. Rockefeller, Sr. By the stipulation of the bet he is not to have more than five dollars on his person when he starts out. He will be permitted to work or beg for money on the way, but is not allowed to borrow any. Crissy will resign from the brokerage firm with which he is connected. He plans to try his luck first with the President, then go to Atlanta to meet Jones, thence to Ormond, Fla., where Rockefeller passes his winters. Then he plans to go wherever the Prince of Wales happens to be at the time. Crissy said he believes he has "a good chance of succeeding."

West Salem News

A one-act play, "The Neighbors," was given Friday evening in the community hall by the local Girl Reserves. The play, which was directed by Miss Hazel Bruner, advisor of the Reserves, was very well received by a well-filled house and the sum of $12.75 was realized from the sale of tickets. One-half of this goes to the Reserve group and half will be applied on the "mile of pennies" movement, designed to aid in wiping out the church debt.

Miss Trula Grant gave a piano number before the play and Ruth Harbo Thompson of Stayton played Hawaiian guitar numbers both preceding and following the show. At the close of the play, Girl Reserve members who were not in the cast served a dainty lunch to Miss Bruner and members of the cast.

The cast was as follows: Peter, Ruth Maerz; Inez Abel, Lorraine Thompson; Mrs. Abel, Naomi Alsop; Mrs. Moran, Catherine Applewhite; Grandma, Maisie Radkey; Miss Trot, Mary Helen Urruh; Carrie Ellsworth, Feba Clark; Ezra Williams, Doris Reed.

Rev. W. J. Warren delivered the message Sunday morning at Ford Memorial church, with the junior choir, directed by Trula Grant, furnishing music for the service. His sermon topic was "The Great Adventure—Life in the World to Come." The choir and orchestra furnished music with a vocal solo by Miss Betty Bedford.

A guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lewis from Saturday until Monday morning was Mr. Lewis' sister, Mrs. R. L. Hughes of Sedro Wooley, Wash.

Miss Lorraine Thompson was a guest Sunday and Monday of Miss Ella Beth Wetherby of Wheatland.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hansen and Mrs. Maggie Catterson left Monday morning for their home at Burns, after having spent three months in the Willamette valley. They were guests Sunday of Mrs. Hanson's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burke. Other guests of the Burke Sunday evening, who came to bid the Hansens and Mrs. Catterson farewell, were Mrs. S. L. Keeble of Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Goodwin of Ridgefield.

Visitors Sunday evening at the F. M. Moorehouse home were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Breshears of Independence. Mr. Breshears is a nephew of Mrs. Moore.

Mrs. Marvin Lewis is again at home after having spent a week at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. A. Rhoten, who went to Spokane on account of the serious illness of a small grandson.

Mrs. John Carrick of Monroe was a recent overnight guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Marion Moore.

Mrs. George Davis, who has been seriously ill for many months has been taken to the farm home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edwards, on Wallace road.

Friends here of Mrs. F. L. Cannell of Amity have received word that she underwent a serious operation Saturday at a McMinnville hospital. Mrs. Cannell is the wife of Rev. F. L. Cannell, former pastor of Ford Memorial church. She recently underwent an examination at the Portland clinic and they reported that she was suffering from a complication of diseases and advised an operation.

The monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher association will be held Friday evening, February 27, in the community hall.

Fred Gibson underwent a tonsil operation in Salem Wednesday. He is still confined to his home as a result of it.

W. H. Hess, local grocer, reports that business in his line is improving lately. Mr. and Mrs. Hess drove to Buena Vista Sunday where they were guests of Mrs. Hess' uncle, W. D. Simmons.

Miss Bertha Stevens took advantage of Monday's holiday to spend the week end with her cousin, Miss Evelyn Boles of Salem.

Charles Crassey, an employe of the state highway department, was home from Camas valley and spent the week-end with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bigler of Canby, Mr. and Mrs. Bigler, their daughter Catherine and son Donald of Portland were dinner guests Sunday at the J. A. Gosser home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Smith and children, John Wesley and Ella May, visited Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nicols were all-day guests Wednesday of Mr. Nicols' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brooks.

Ernest Bradley and Miss Neva Frey, both of Newport, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stevens of Albany and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boles and children of Salem were Sunday dinner guests of the Roy Stevens family.

Miss Lois Creasey, who is a student in a Portland business college, was a week-end guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Creasey.
