Bridge Luncheon Is Attractive Event

An attractive luncheon and bridge of the week was that for which Mrs. Romeo Gouley and Mrs. Homer Goulet entertained Tuesday in the Silver Grill room of the Gray Belle.

The luncheon tables were gracefully centered with spring flowers which carried the color scheme of deep yellow and rose. Bridge at four tables followed the luncheon hour.

Guests Entertained At Hal Patton Home

Mr. and Mrs. Hal D. Patton entertained with a delightful Sunday afternoon dinner at the delegation home on Court street in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kiddle, Dr. and Mrs. I. V. Temple, and Mrs. C. E. Obrist.

Sunday evening a second affair was given by Mrs. Patton when she entertained with a Sunday evening tea. Miss Jeanne Patton, Miss Marie Patton, Miss Josephine McGilchrist and Miss Marie Stutesman served.

The men in the evening group and Mr. Patton made up the delegation which attended the republican convention which elected Hoover, three years ago in Kansas City.

Miss Helen Lytle entertained in the country home of her parents, Feb. 23, with a delightful bridge luncheon. The charming table decorations carried out George Washington motif.

Places were marked for Miss Agnes Miller, Miss Frances Keefer, Miss Mildred Abbott, Miss Gladys Hilliker, Miss Verna Haviland, Miss Mildred Drager, Miss Isabelle Gragg, and Miss Helen Lytle. The afternoon was spent with cards and music.

Pattern

Even the tiniest girls wear pajamas these days, and justly so, since their warmth and service far exceed the nighties of old. The little garment, sketched, borrows its details from a grown-up model, the cleverly cut neck and the belted blouse; the blouse may, of course, be worn inside the trousers. Sleeves may be made long or short, or may be omitted entirely.

Pattern 2044 will wear and launder well if made of flannel, rayon, percale or cotton broadcloth. You will find a delightful choice of suitable prints for youngsters. The dog is part of transfer pattern 704 which also includes a bunny to be made of loveling and stuffed. Price 15c. May be obtained only in sizes 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12. Size 4 requires 2-3 yards of 36-inch fabric.

STURGIS SUES AS RESULT OF CRASH

Complaint for damages totaling $3,166.50 and also $250 exemplary damages was filed in circuit court yesterday by George F. Sturgis against Charles A. Boyer.

Sturgis says that negligence and carelessness of Boyer was responsible for an accident which occurred last September 23 about a half mile north of Brooks. As a result of the accident, plaintiff suffered two broken ribs, back injuries and sprains and bruises, which confined him to his home until November 16. He asks $3,000 damages, $46.50 special damages for physician's services, $100 for demolishing his car and the $250 exemplary damages.

The United States National bank has offered prize money in all divisions of the contest, with 10 prizes planned in each division. These will be two general classes, one in 10 ear lots of yellow and other dent corn, and one in 50 ear lots, besides popcorn.

Other details will be worked out as soon as Mr. Fox determines from the membership what corn is being grown.

For the contest it is required that all growers plant at least the 4-H minimum of an eighth of an acre of corn, but is recommended that plantings be from one to five acres.
