

Society News and Club Affairs

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

Attractive To a Compliments Visitor

One of the outstanding social events of the week was the tea given in compliment to Mrs. Edith Kelly of Roseburg, a past president of the Rebekah association of Oregon and vice-president of the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies, Monday afternoon between the hours of three and five o'clock at the home of Mrs. Carl O. Engstrom with Mrs. William Farrell, Mrs. Alison Cummings and Mrs. Damon Fleener as assistant hostesses.

The Rebekah color scheme of pink and green, and St. Patrick's symbols made a beautiful background for the many guests who called during the afternoon. Japanese quince and daffodils were used in profusion about the guest rooms and the tea table was centered with a crystal bowl of these flowers on either side of which were pink papers.

Presiding at the tea table in turn during the afternoon were Miss Ethel Fletcher, Mrs. Sara Hutton, Mrs. Elta Dodge and Mrs. Amy Mills. Mrs. Kelly, in a blue lace gown and wearing a delicate corsage presented her by the Salem lodge, received with the hostesses.

Among the guests who called were Mrs. Elizabeth Moore, Mrs. Sara Hutton, Mrs. Anna M. Hunsaker, Mrs. Evelyn Naderman, Mrs. Loretta Rowley, Mrs. Mabel Martin, Mrs. Mary B. Lickel, Mrs. Lillian Smith, Miss Ethel Fletcher, Mrs. Hattie B. Crocker, Mrs. J. M. Moore, Mrs. C. C. Clark, Mrs. Amy Mills, Mrs. Etta Dodge, Mrs. W. A. Cummings, Mrs. Grace Taylor, Mrs. O. A. Nores, Mrs. E. T. Adair, Mrs. O. H. Pickens, Mrs. Mabel Lockwood, Mrs. A. V. White, Miss Wilda Stigmund, Miss Eugenia Siegmund, Mrs. Helen M. Southwick, Mrs. Clara Shields, Mrs. C. W. Shields, Mrs. Ida Trachio, Mrs. Lenora Krissel, Mrs. Josephine Erickson, Mrs. Elsie B. Townsend, Mrs. Cora McNeill, Mrs. Edith McElroy, Mrs. Cora Van Pelt, Mrs. Dora Hill and Mrs. Ida Hochstetler.

Roberts.—The G. T. club members spent a delightful afternoon at the home of Mrs. Olive Cooldidge Thursday. A pot luck lunch was enjoyed at 1 o'clock. Afterward the women served and visited. Those present were Mrs. Alice Cooldidge, Mrs. Esther Query, Mrs. S. C. Davenport, Mrs. John Osborn, Mrs. Roy Rice, Mrs. Bud Stateman, Mrs. W. V. Johnson, Mrs. W. C. Pettibohn, Mrs. Forest Edwards, Mrs. Flora Hatley, Mrs. B. D. Fidler, Mrs. Gordon Bowman, Dorothy Bowman, and Mary Jane Osborn.

Members of Barbara Fretchie tent, Daughters of Veterans are notified that there will be a regular business meeting at the woman's clubhouse Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Pattern

You'll want to make this model up in several different fabrics and your little daughter will love them. There are just three parts to the frock, the bloomers, of course, are separate. The beautiful collar may be finished by piping or binding the edges, the neckline and armholes are bound—and there you are!

Pattern 1863 is ravishing, made of georgette, dimity, voile, swiss, crepe de chine or lawn. You could choose one of the fabrics in white or in a pastel shade and one colorfully printed, for a delightful variety. A ribbon bow neatly trims the shoulder.

May be ordered only in sizes 2, 4, 6 and 8. Size 4 requires 3 1/2 yards of 33 inch material.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern. Patterns for crepe, silk and slinky, exact instructions are given.

Send fifteen cents in coins, neatly wrapped, or stamps for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

Our new fall and winter fashion book containing exquisite models for adults and children and an excellent collection of transfer patterns and stamped collars, is now ready. Price, thirty cents. Book with pattern, 45 cents. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 232 West 17th street, New York City.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Wednesday, March 11

American Lutheran Guild, church parlors, missionary program.

First Presbyterian Missionary society, church parlors; Rev. Niwa speaker of day.

East President's club, Mrs. I. L. McAdams, 345 D street.

Woman's Home Missionary society of Jason Lee church, with Mrs. A. L. Dark, 975 E street, 2:30 o'clock.

Knight Memorial Missionary society, 12:30 o'clock luncheon, in church parlors.

Woman's Foreign Missionary society, First M. E. church, 3:30 o'clock, in church parlors.

Mrs. C. C. Chaffee, hostess to Sweet Briar club, at her home on Wallace Road.

Daughters of Nile, 10:30 o'clock, in Masonic temple social rooms; 12 o'clock luncheon.

Lecture of Frank Lloyd Wright, noted architect, chamber of commerce rooms, 8 o'clock; open to public through courtesy of Salem Arts League.

Ernest Davis, noted tenor, program in First Methodist church, 8:15 o'clock.

South section of First Congregational church, with Miss Edith Hazard, 2:30 o'clock.

Thursday, March 12

Ladies Aid of the Woman's Relief Corp, all day meeting; Fairgrounds, potluck dinner at noon; roll call to be answered with St. Patrick's day quotation.

North Salem W. C. T. U. at Jason Lee church, 3 o'clock.

Willing Workers class of First Christian church, Mrs. J. C. Perry, 335 North Summer street, 2:30 o'clock afternoon meeting.

Ladies of West Way club, Mrs. Mabel Johnson, hostess at her home, 1080 Skinner street, West Salem, 3 o'clock.

Loyal Women's Sunday school class of First Christian church, 2 o'clock; business and social meeting.

Capital Auxiliary No. 11 of Patriarchs Militant, I. O. O. F. hall, 8 o'clock.

Friday, March 13

Dakota Ladies club, Mrs. H. W. Riedesel, 704 Cottage street; all day meeting; covered dish luncheon at noon.

Salem Woman's club, board meeting, 2 o'clock; business meeting, 2:30 o'clock and program meeting, 3:00 o'clock.

Brush College community club meeting at school house; special program planned.

Barbara Fretchie tent, 8 o'clock, Salem Woman's clubhouse; business meeting.

Mrs. Fred Broer, 305 North 5th street, hostess to Missionary society of First Baptist church; election of officers.

National Week For B. & P. W. Begins

National Business and Professional Women's "week" observance began Tuesday with the club luncheon in compliment to its president, Mrs. Mona Yoder. Covers were placed for 38 club women at an attractive long table in the Silver Grille room of the Gray Belle.

Mrs. Arlene Phillips gave a tribute of appreciation to Mrs. Yoder; Mrs. Arhart sang a group of songs, and club songs added music and interest to the pretty breakfast affair.

Tonight at 8:45 o'clock in the banquet room of the Masonic temple the public relations banquet will be served to the clubwomen and their especially invited guests. Members of the various service clubs will be invited to the affair. Col. A. E. Clark of Portland will be the speaker for the evening. Music will be given by the Lena Dotson trio and Mrs. Gordon McElchrist will be soloist. Invitations may be secured from the Adams Pictorial shop on Court street, or at Mrs. Howard's shop on Liberty street.

An interesting history of the club is given by Mrs. Myrtle Gilbert, chairman of the press committee. The club was organized in Salem the fall of 1913. Dr. Mary C. Rowland was its first president. She was nominated by Grace Elizabeth Smith. Mrs. Zadoc Riggs was elected to be the second president but did not serve, so Dr. Rowland held over and served during the second year. At the beginning of the third year, Cornelia Marvin came in and served as chairman of the program committee. The club began to prosper from then on, but it had had up to that time a difficult hill to climb. Mrs. Mirra Blair followed Dr. Rowland as the club's second president and she was in turn followed by Grace Taylor.

The first meeting of the club was held in the rooms of the Y. W. C. A. Owing to the absence of the president and a flu epidemic, there were no more meetings. During the second year all meetings were held in the apartments of Dr. Rowland. One or two meetings towards the last of the year were held in the library basement. The third-year meetings were held in the basement of the Unitarian church.

A list of the charter members follows:—Myrtle June Albright, Anna M. Arms, Mildred Cox, Eliza J. Cornell, Laura Bell, May Fake, Eunice Fleener, Edna Garfield, Dora Linton, Margaret Montgomery, Jeanette Richards, Dr. Mary C. Rowland, Ethel B. Roberts, Eva L. Scott, Josephine Shade, Myra Shank Myrdred L. Simons, Grace Elizabeth Smith, Hazel Todhunter, Cora Turkridge, Nancy Willard, Norma Weachter, Ruby Woodard, Myrtle Walker, Rhea Wilson.

Silverton Woman's Club Hears Speaker

Silverton.—Mrs. C. P. Bishop of Salem held the attention of the Silverton Women's club members Monday afternoon when she told of the wool industry from the time the "wool" was born until it came out in the finished garment. She also took her listeners through the history of the industry from the time of the hand looms until the present day. She had with her a box of wool which illustrated the different stages of production.

Other members of the afternoon program of the club included a George Washington skit by the pupils from Miss Helvie Silver's class, a violin solo by Beryl Ottaway accompanied by Mrs. Glenn Howes, a violin duet by Mrs. W. M. Swift and Miss Ottaway accompanied by Mrs. H. Frisbie.

Mrs. Theodore Hobart gave a report on the Dornbecker hospital and the needs of the children. Mrs. Hobart to sew some needed articles for the children of the hospital. A collection of fruits and jams was made at the Monday meeting and this will be sent to the hospital in the near future. Mrs. Hobart is also in charge of that.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. Balleentyne, and tea was served at its close. Mrs. Clifford Rue and Mrs. R. G. Quinn poured. Assisting at serving were the other members of the March committee composed of Mrs. F. E. Sylvester, Mrs. W. M. Swift, Mrs. I. L. Stewart and Mrs. Ray Thomas.

Visitors from elsewhere were Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. J. M. Devers, and Miss Edna Garfield from Salem, and Mrs. Karl Haberly from the Waldo Hills.

The committee in charge of the April club meeting is Mrs. W. R. Thomson, Mrs. Mary Townley, Mrs. Henry Waldner, Mrs. C. M. Wray, Mrs. A. W. Kieeb and Mrs. A. P. Ryan.

Series of Parties at Wayne Henry Home

Zena.—Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Henry are giving a series of affairs this month at their country home, "Maple Mound." The initial party was a 8:30 o'clock dinner at which they entertained their dinner club Saturday evening. A low bowl of violets flanked by green candles in silver and candlesticks centered the table. Mrs. W. Kenneth Henry assisted about the rooms. The group enjoyed a general good time following the dinner.

Included in the guest list were Dr. and Mrs. D. X. Beechler, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crawford, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Lou Grote of Wallace Road, and Mrs. W. W. Kenneth Henry and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Henry.

The second affair was given Sunday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Henry entertained with a fireside lunch in compliment to Mrs. L. B. Allen who is leaving for her home in Los Angeles Wednesday afternoon, being honored with numerous affairs here and in Salem.

Mrs. W. Kenneth Henry and Mrs. W. F. Crawford assisted the hostess serve the dainty lunch.

The guest list included the guest of honor, Mrs. L. B. Allen of Los Angeles; her son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen of Salem, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Blodgett of Brush College, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. W. Kenneth Henry of Zena.

The Tuesday club was entertained at the home of Mrs. T. S. Roberts Tuesday afternoon. A one o'clock luncheon and this followed by bridge occupied several pleasant afternoon hours for the club members and Mrs. E. T. Pierce and Mrs. T. Holman who were special guests.

Mrs. Ronald Jones was hostess to members of her club Monday afternoon at her home in Brooks. A luncheon preceded an afternoon of bridge.

Noted Tenor Will Sing Tonight

Ernest Davis, tenor, will appear at the First Methodist church this evening at 8:15 o'clock for a voice concert which promises to be of more than ordinary value. Mr. Davis is now in the Hollywood bowl and with symphony orchestras from California to the far east and then in Europe.

He has also appeared many times in grand opera and has made independent tours; so it is with something of more than ordinary interest that his program is anticipated tonight.

The Willamette university school of music is presenting Mr. Davis. Appearing with him will be the men's glee club of the university which will sing two numbers. The program has been arranged by Prof. Cameron Marshall, head of the school of music.

Mrs. Mabel Johnson will be hostess to members of the West Skinner club at her home, 1860 Skinner street Thursday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock.

KARAME JACKETS

You just must have one 7.95 if you are to be in style

Spring Skirts

They're here! Just arrived, new lengths for Spring and oh what colors—tan, green, navy, red, star-gold, guardsman blue, floro-pink, newport blue, May-green, coffee, beige, bandana and white.

5.95

Knit Blouses

Here's a new one—sleeveless, lace-knitted blouses to wear with your separate skirt or ensemble.

1.95 - 2.45

SHIPLEY'S

Quality Merchandise—Popular Prices

Arts League Meeting Full of Interest

The regular Arts League meeting for the month was scheduled for Tuesday night but the opportunity came to present to the public of Salem the world famed architect, Frank Lloyd Wright, and so the date was changed from Tuesday to Wednesday night. There will be no business meeting at the lecture which will begin at 8 o'clock.

The lecture will be given in the green room of the chamber of commerce, and it is open to the public.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clifford, through whose efforts the noted man is being brought to Salem, will motor to Eugene and escort Mr. and Mrs. Wright to Salem. Following the lecture they will take the lecturer and his wife on to Portland.

The lecture will be given in the green room of the chamber of commerce, and it is open to the public.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clifford, through whose efforts the noted man is being brought to Salem, will motor to Eugene and escort Mr. and Mrs. Wright to Salem. Following the lecture they will take the lecturer and his wife on to Portland.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott Heads Chapter A.B.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott was elected president of Chapter A.B. of the P. E. O. Sisterhood at the Monday night meeting in the home of Mrs. George Davis. Other officers elected were Miss Carlotta Crowley, vice-president; Miss Lillian Davis, corresponding secretary; Miss Rita White, recording secretary; Mrs. Anna Davis, chaplain; Miss Ann Boente, guard; Mrs. Roberta Butler, treasurer.

Mrs. Jessie Peck, Mrs. Emma Hendricks and Mrs. Mabel Barnes were initiated as new members. Mrs. F. A. Elliott and Mrs. C. E. Richards were elected delegates to the state convention to be held the first week in June. Mrs. Mary Rauch and Mrs. Mary Reeves will serve as alternates.

Mrs. Alice Bates Fisher and Mrs. Barle Parker were special guests for this interesting meeting.

STARS TWINKLE ON HONEYMOON

Johnny Weismuller, star of many swimming events, and Bobby Arnet, star of the stage, are twinkling together in sunshine at Miami Beach, Fla., on their honeymoon. They were married at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., after a short courtship.

Daughters of Nile Will Sew Today

Today the Daughters of Nile will meet for all day sewing party at the Masonic temple. At noon a luncheon will be served with Mrs. Frank Liljequist, Mrs. Frank Loose, Mrs. Frank Hallik, and Mrs. R. W. Hans Seltz as hostesses.

The sewing which is being done will go to the Shrine hospital. The meeting has been called for 10:30 o'clock this morning.

Monmouth.—Miss Jessica Todd, dean of women of the Oregon Normal school, was hostess Wednesday afternoon to a large group of Monmouth women.

The large reception rooms of the dormitory were charmingly decorated with spring flowers, and Dean Todd was assisted by Mrs. Addie Roberts, assistant dean; Mrs. Ardie Parker, preceptress of the dormitory; and Miss Katherine Olds, secretary to the dean.

Changes in rules affecting the social life of students were reviewed; and other details were discussed pertinent to the well being of the large group of young folk.

Refreshments were served and the remainder of the afternoon spent in conversation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wilcox of Hancock, Minnesota, who have been spending the winter in southern California, will arrive in Salem Monday to be the guest of their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Gilbert. Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox have visited in Salem before and expect to be here about a month before returning to their home in Minnesota.

Silverton Matrons Are Hostesses

Silverton.—Mrs. Minnie Fishwood and Mrs. Lillian Heald entertained at a lovely spring party at the Fishwood home Monday evening honoring Mrs. Charles Hartley of Medford who is visiting at Silverton for a week.

The Fishwood home was lovely with spring flowers, daffodils predominating. Four tables of bridge were in play and at the close of cards supper was served. At cards the high score prize, a beautiful yellow jardener filled with daffodils, was won by Mrs. Helen Wrightman. Mrs. Hartley received a guest prize.

Present were Mrs. Ada Ekman, Mrs. I. L. Stewart, Mrs. J. H. Staynor, Mrs. Oscar Storaasli, Mrs. Minnie Moser, Mrs. Carl Specht, Mrs. Ed Lytle, Mrs. Elmer Olsen, Mrs. Alice Jack, Mrs. Ella McCleary, Mrs. Ben Gifford, Mrs. Helen Wrightman, Mrs. Marie Hope, Mrs. Lizzie Cooley, Mrs. Hartley, Mrs. J. H. McCullough, Mrs. Fletcher, Mrs. H. Heald and Mrs. Fishwood.

Swigle.—Mrs. Jud Dolan entertained the Garden Road club and their husbands at a get-acquainted party for her husband's birthday Monday evening.

Those present besides Mr. and Mrs. Jud Dolan were: Mr. and Mrs. Kauffer and daughter, Millicent, Mrs. Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. Swingle, Mr. and Mrs. Rickett, Mr. and Mrs. Schaffer, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hollis, Mr. Laird, Mrs. Simpson, and Mrs. Tipton. A pleasant evening was enjoyed and a delicious lunch served by Mrs. Jud Dolan.

All W. C. T. U. women are urged to attend the debate to be given in Waller hall tonight at 7:30 o'clock upon the subject of prohibition. The teams to meet and debate the topic are University of Porto Rico and Willamette university.

OPPORTUNITIES IN MARINES REPORTED

If you are a man five feet, five inches or more in height—and if you are a specialist in truck driving, baking, or in some mechanical trade, there may be a vacancy for you in Uncle Sam's marines.

Or if you tower at least five feet, nine inches above terra firma, you may be allowed to join the marines and see the world.

Such is the word brought to Salem yesterday by Sergeant Mack Sherman, here from Portland until Thursday to examine candidates for the sea soldiers' ranks.

"We have a number of vacancies and will fill them promptly with new enlistments," said Sherman upon his temporary return to Salem. Last year he was stationed here but later he was transferred to Portland when marine headquarters here were closed.

Conference for Older Boys to Be April 3, 4

Plans for the eighth annual older boys' conference for Marion and Polk counties under the auspices of Salem's Y. M. C. A. are progressing. The dates set are April 3 and 4.

The convention will start with the banquet on Friday night and last through Saturday.

This year's theme is to be "Training for Citizenship." Previous conferences have been popular among the boys. This year's crowd is expected to exceed 150 boys.

Eberhard, Better, Leaves for Home

Senator Eberhard of LaGrande, who was stricken with a stomach ailment here late Saturday, left last night for Portland where he will remain for two or three days before returning to his home. Senator Eberhard spent Saturday at Olympia, Wash., attending sessions of the Washington legislature. Physicians who attended Senator Eberhard said he developed symptoms of appendicitis.

Judge Percy Kelly will address the Salem Woman's club Friday afternoon on the subject of the laws of Oregon which affect women. Musical numbers and the contest talk on Oregon products which will be given by Mrs. J. M. Devers will be the program for the afternoon. This meeting is not a tea meeting.

Rev. Niwa will lead the program to be presented to the members of the First Presbyterian church this afternoon, the topic of which is "Japan." The meeting is called for 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. E. E. Ling will be chairman of the hostess committee.

The history section of the Salem Arts League will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Clifford Monday night at the Clifford home.

Ladies! read this - believe it or not -

50 KNIT 3 Piece SUITS

Beret - Skirt - Coat

Original Price $5.99

Today While They Last, Only $3.95

JOHNSON'S FOR HOSIERY

Johnson's

460 State The Ladies Store

JOHNSON'S FOR GLOVES