WOODBURN INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS

Many Named on Various Committees for Annual Friendly Sale

WOODBURN, March 13.—Officers of the Presbyterian ladies' aid society were installed Wednesday afternoon when the members of the society met at the home of Mrs. R. M. Hicks. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. C. C. Cammack, Mrs. Clyde Whitman and Mrs. E. T. Sims.

Rev. E. W. Blevins, pastor of the Presbyterian church, conducted the services. Officers are: president, Mrs. H. F. Butterfield; vice president, Mrs. C. R. Duncan; treasurer, Mrs. Henry Layman; secretary, Mrs. Norman Richards; and press reporter, Mrs. Rex W. Blevins.

Saturday and Monday, April 25 and 27, were set as the dates for the annual friendly service sale, to be held in the Ogilvie building. More definite plans for the sale were given by Mrs. Henry Layman and the committee.

It was urged by Mrs. Layman, in charge of the sale, that all members and friends bring all contributions, notions, furnishings, shoes, canned goods and other things to her or Mrs. E. W. Blevins.

Mrs. Butterfield appointed the following hostesses for April: Mrs. Edgar Dodge, Mrs. Bell White, Mrs. Clarence Wampler, and Mrs. Addie Doud.

The devotions committee for April is composed of Mrs. J. W. Williams, Mrs. Harold Applegate, and Mrs. Jack Hansen. The newly elected officers will compose the calling committee for April.

An interesting program was enjoyed by those present. Mrs. Edgar Dodge read an interesting current events topic. Mrs. Jack Hansen and Miss Fay Foster sang a medley of lullabies. Mrs. Maude Machel gave a short talk on events to happen in March. Devotions for the day were led by Mrs. E. W. Blevins.

Wickersham is Surprised Over Wet Objections

BOSTON, March 13.—(AP)—George W. Wickersham, in an address Thursday, said the avalanche of "wet" criticism which greeted the recent prohibition report of the law enforcement commission, of which he was chairman, was surprising.

Interpreting the report as a document from which he thought the "wets" would have derived more encouragement than the "drys," Mr. Wickersham revealed his surprise that "the most vehement criticism" had come from the opponents of prohibition.

CLUB ENTERTAINED

SALEM HEIGHTS, March 13.—The Chateausseaux club met at the community hall Thursday afternoon for their regular monthly meeting. A pot luck dinner was served and all the ladies assisted in trying the quilt, which will be given as a prize at the men's shamrock supper on the 30th. The table was arranged very prettily with daffodils and shamrock. Mrs. William Trudgen was the hostess.

SALEM, March 13.—The C. E. society met for a social business meeting, Tuesday evening, at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hildreth. The society decided to take charge of a complete church service which will be held on the evening of the fifth Sunday in March.

A committee, consisting of Miss Edith Pentney, Earnest Ralston, and Miss Virginia Turnidge, was appointed by the president, Mrs. Glen Thurston, to arrange for this service. Mrs. Garnett Ralston and Miss Lorena Thurston were elected captains to draw up plans for a contest which will begin in the near future. Miss Doris Klindt and Miss Geraldine Rodgers were appointed "boosters" for this month. All committees were discussed and committees appointed for the meeting to be held April 13. The council plans to conduct the morning service of the church the first Sunday of each month.

H. R. Scheurman To Give Sermons

ELDRIDGE, March 13.—Rev. H. R. Scheurman of Salem will speak at the church, March 15, at the Eldridge school house. This will be one of a series of sermons preached here by Mr. Scheurman for people of this community.

Woman's Society To Meet March 20

The Women's society of the Calvary Baptist church will meet March 20 at the home of Mrs. Stoddard, route one, at 2:30 o'clock. The topic will be "India Selected," with Mrs. Barkus leading. Mrs. Amundson will conduct the devotional hour.

First Christians Announce Revival

Revival meetings will be opened at the First Christian church Sunday, March 22, with the Kelmans' evangelistic party in charge. Announces the pastor, Rev. D. J. Howe.

Nazarene Pastor Will Open Revival Series Tomorrow

Special revival services are to begin Sunday at the Church of the Nazarene with Rev. Fletcher Galloway, pastor, as evangelist.

Prof. Clyde Hoffer will direct the singing and a quartet composed of George Frjlesen, Frank Litwiler, John Friesen and Clyde Hoffer will furnish special music. Also a ladies' quartet composed of Hattie Litwiler, Ha Hoffer, Jeanne Baxter and The Sampson will sing.

Rev. Galloway has been pastor of the local church since the first of September, having come to Salem from Pueblo, Colo., where he was pastor for four years. He has spent 16 years in the ministry of his denomination and has been known as an able evangelistic pastor.

JEFFERSON SENDS THREE DELEGATES

JEFFERSON, March 13.—Delegates who were elected to represent the Methodist Sunday school at the county Sunday school convention at Woodburn this week end are Minnie Harris, Joanna Beach and Ralph Beach.

Mrs. Cady of Salem has consented to come on Easter morning and present the resurrection story with modeling clay.

The regular services for the Methodist church Sunday are: Sunday school at 10 o'clock; morning worship at 11 o'clock. The sermon topic is "A Little Child" and the text is taken from Matthew 18:1-6. Epworth league will be at 6:30 and 7:30; evening worship will be held. The sermon topic is "Prayer and Fasting," and the text is from Matthew 17:14-21.

The woman's foreign missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. George Mason Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Founder's day will be observed at that time.

YOUNG FOLK PLAN TO CONDUCT MEET

SALEM HEIGHTS, March 13.—Those who attended the Salem Heights Sunday school at the community hall Sunday were treated to an excellent pantomime entitled, "The Good Samaritan" presented by the boys' class of Royal Knights under the direction of Mrs. P. F. Stolsheise. Reverend Johnson gave the first of a series of short talks which will be given each Sunday until Easter.

At a recent meeting Mrs. Emma Wheelton was elected Sunday school superintendent for the remainder of the year.

The Salem Heights Sunday school has an average attendance of about 75 and these people show a keen appreciation of the efforts of those in charge to make it larger and better. At one time the attendance exceeded 100.

At a recent meeting Mrs. Emma Wheelton was elected Sunday school superintendent for the remainder of the year.

Ford Memorial Church to Hear Thomas Sunday

At the Sunday evening service, at the Ford Memorial M. E. Community church, Rev. Lyle Thomas, superintendent of schools, will speak a few minutes on the subject: "Some Impressions About the Legislature."

Dr. Marcy to Talk at Leslie Sunday; No Night Service
