DUTIES OF POLICE MATRON ARE TOLD

Mrs. Elizabeth Lossing is Speaker at Luncheon in her Honor

"The highest duty of a police matron is to work for the health, happiness and general welfare of children and young people," declared Mrs. Elizabeth Lossing of Berkeley, California, in speaking at a luncheon given in her honor on Friday.

Mrs. Lossing who is head of the crime prevention department of Berkeley is in Salem as one of the instructors in the police school. Police matrons and social service workers gathered at the Marion hotel at noon Friday for the luncheon at which Mrs. Lossing was the honor guest.

Her audience was impressed with the attitude toward her work which Mrs. Lossing displayed. She stressed the importance of scientific knowledge of the causes of delinquency and of a scientific understanding and sympathetic attitude toward the case. She said that the people coming under supervision ranged in ages from four to 30 years and that the types of difficulties in which they were involved were as varied as the ages of the people.

Dallas Firemen Attend Course in Life Saving

DALLAS, March 13—Abe Frelsen and Hubert Dunn, members of the Dallas fire department were in McMinnville Wednesday evening attending a Red Cross first aid school being conducted there by Captain Slaught of the Portland Fire Bureau.

The course covers a period of eight weeks, and if the examination is passed successfully at the end a certificate is awarded to those participating. Some 50 from McMinnville and the immediate vicinity are taking the work. The Dallas men expect to have the course taken by the local department later in the season.

CHILD STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE DIES

Accident Unavoidable, Held After Investigation; Driver Exonerated

MONMOUTH, March 13—According to reports here this morning, Victory Road 10, of Dayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bond, died last night in a McMinnville hospital as result of injuries sustained during the afternoon when struck by a car driven by James McCrae, 25, Monmouth farmer.

Witnesses said the child alighted from a school bus at a junction near Dayton, and, running from behind the bus stepped directly in front of McCrae's car. He was driving slowly, but was confronted so suddenly by the little girl, that he couldn't avert the catastrophe.

A traffic officer, a doctor, the sheriff of Yamhill county, and the school bus driver, were reported to have investigated the accident, and adjudged it unavoidable, so young McCrae was not held. He returned to Dayton this morning.

McCrae, who is a grandson of William Riddell, well known Polk county stockman, had gone to Dundee, accompanied by his father, William McCrae, and they were returning home via Dayton, when the accident occurred.

Corn Contest's Rules Are Being Worked Out Now

Details for the county-wide 4-H corn project contest, sponsored by the United States National bank, are being worked out. The contest will be conducted along the lines of those held annually in Clackamas and Lane counties, in which each entrant plants and cares for about an acre of corn. Arrangement for securing the seed has not been worked out. County Club Agent W. W. Fox reports.

Already about 20 corn club members have signified intention of entering the contest, including mostly boys living around Silverton, North Howell and Scotts Mills. Two classes in 10 and 25 ear lots will be displayed at fair time by the contestants.

Woman Injured On Road Culvert Sues Roy Klein

Suit for $12,277.50 damages for injuries sustained when she stepped into a concealed highway culvert, were filed yesterday against Roy Klein as state highway engineer by Anna C. French. The accident occurred July 19, 1929, when the plaintiff Mrs. M. F. Barr stopped along the highway two miles north of Eugene. Plaintiff says she alighted from the car and into an open culvert, concealed from view by weeds and at which there were no warning signs. Her left leg was fractured in two places.

She asks $10,000 general damages and total of $2,277.50 special damages, including those for loss of working time and medical attention. She charges that the accident was due to negligence of the highway commissioner.

yet you'll find me at the crossroads store"

When Jack's ashore he's liable to be going several places at once! But there's one thing Navy men can get together on—whether in Hong Kong, Seattle, or Newtown Center: Tasty is what they want in their cigarettes—the taste that comes from milder and better tobaccos, and from nothing else! They know their cigarettes, these men of the fleet. That's why Chesterfield is the Navy's choice!
