

ORION MARKET STRENGTHENED

Organization's Pledge to Hold for 50c a Sack Is Having Effect

A marked steadying in the onion market for Lahish growers as well as other producers in the state, has been effected within the last few days, according to U. G. Bishop, one of the growers in the Lahish district. Through an organization in process of completion, growers have told buyers they would not sell onions for less than 50 cents a sack, f. o. b. the warehouse.

Shirley Roland Takes First in Speaking Match

JEFFERSON, March 14—The grades of the Jefferson school held their second declamatory contest Friday afternoon. Sixteen pupils participated. Shirley Roland's reading entitled, "Who's Afraid," won first place and Charles Brown won second place.

Mrs. Jensen Has Health Clinic at Monitor Home

MONITOR, March 14—A health clinic was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. P. Jensen. Sixty-four children were examined by Dr. Davis assisted by the nurse, Miss Johnson of the Marion county health department.

TURNER CHURCH ACTIVE

TURNER, March 14—As spring approaches the members of Turner Christian church are talking of their flower garden plans. A committee on planning the flowers has been appointed. During the past week Rev. and Mrs. Gilstrap were in Portland and held a conference with Dr. Jesse R. Kellems, who is to conduct the Marion county Christian revival soon.

Radio Programs

- Sunday, March 15 KOW—820 Kc.—Portland 8:00—Organ. 8:30—Eyesy Symphony, NBC. 9:15—Echoes of the Orient, NBO. 10:30—National oratorio, NBO. 10:45—Organ and choir, NBO. 11:00—National Youth Conference, NBO. 1:00—Dr. B. Parkes Gadsden, NBO. 1:30—National respect, NBO. 3:00—Catholic hour, NBO. 4:00—Views of the news. 4:15—Culler's radio, NBO. 6:15—Atwater Kent, NBO. 7:45—Beth Parker. 8:30—Captain Chase's Travels. 9:45—Book chat. 10:00—Little Symphony. 11:00—Bagdad, organ. KOKI—940 Kc.—Portland 8:30—Garden. 9:30—Jewish art. 10:00—Melodious. 9:45—Garden talk. 10:00—Song recital. 10:30—Organ. 11:00—Church. 12:30—Symphony. 1:45—Catholic hour. 2:30—Tories. 3:00—rehearsal. 4:30—Bible institute. 5:00—Doctors. 5:15—Organ. 6:30—Kiddie. 6:00—Dorset altar. 7:30—Symphony. 7:00—Organ. 8:30—Amos' Andy. 9:00—Scientist. 9:30—Orchestra. 9:30—Val Valerio. 10:00—Orchestra. 11:00—Organ. Monday KOW—820 Kc.—Portland 6:30—Devotions. 6:45—Oregonian Trail Blazers. 7:15—Morning Appellizers. 7:15—Cooking school. 9:15—Arise, Zion, NBC. 10:00—Prince of Pop, NBO. 10:15—Josephine Gibson, NBO. 10:30—Woman's Magazine of Air, NBO. 12:00—Masterworks. 12:15—Western Farm and Home, NBO. 1:00—Maltese story program, NBO. 2:00—What's in a name? NBO. 3:00—Mormon tabernacle, NBO. 3:45—Parlan quintet, NBO. 5:00—How's Business, NBO. 5:15—Movie club. 5:45—Piano. 6:30—Traffic talk. 6:30—Amos' Andy. 9:00—Adventures of Sherlock Holmes. 9:30—Fireside hour. 10:00—Western star. 10:15—Lewis' Hungry Five. 10:30—Oregonian Trail Blazers. 11:15—Del Miles' orchestra, NBO. 12:00—Musical Box theatre organ. KOD—650 Kc.—Corvallis 12:00—Farm program. 2:00—Around the campus. 3:00—Homemaker hour. 6:30—Farm program. 7:30—L-H club meeting.

EXTRA CUBE BUTTER 1 CENT DOWN HOG PRICE IS SOMEWHAT HIGHER

Lower Grades Remain Steady; Dressed Poultry up

PORTLAND, March 14 (AP)—Produce exchange quotation on extra grade cube butter opened a cent lower Saturday at 29 cents on a par with standards, as result of receivers' unwillingness to accept extras at the higher figure this week. Other grades were quotably unchanged. Early butter receipts were sufficient for a rather light demand excepting $3-39 score for which some dealers were forced to outside sources to fill orders.

Egg market opened weak with large offerings of off grade eggs seeking takers the most unfavorable factor. Attempts to work off these eggs through outside markets were discouraged by easy prices. Lighter supplies of dressed poultry spread quotations up a cent to 19 for heavy hens, 16 for mediums and 14 for lights but some transactions were continued at figures a cent lower all round.

Conditions in the fresh fruit and vegetable trade were reported as follows: Onions in Oregon are almost at a standstill, with the majority of the growers' united in holding for 50c per cwt., plus sacks. Shippers' storage stocks have comprised the bulk of recent trading.

General Markets

PORTLAND, Ore., March 13—(AP)—Produce exchange, net prices: butter, extra 28; standards 29; prime firsts 28; firsts 21; extras 16@17; fresh mediums 14@15.

Portland Grain

PORTLAND, Ore., March 13—(AP)—Grain futures: Open High Low Close May 88 88 88 88 June 88 88 88 88 July 88 88 88 88

Nuts, Hay and Hops

PORTLAND, Ore., March 13—(AP)—Nuts: walnuts, California new No. 1, 20 @25; Oregon, new, 22@27; almonds, 22; peanuts, 9@12 1/2; filberts, 15@22.

Fruits, Vegetables

PORTLAND, Ore., March 13—(AP)—Fruits and vegetables: fresh fruit—apples, market, 2.25@2.50; jumble stock, 2.10@2.75; grapefruit, Florida, 1.25@1.50; California, 1.50@2.00; oranges, California, 50c per box; Washington, 45c per box.

Portland Produce

PORTLAND, Ore., March 13—(AP)—Milk—steady—delivered Portland less 1 per cent; grade O milk, 12.50. Butterfat delivered in Portland, 28c.

Salem Markets

Grade B raw 4% milk delivered in Salem, 28.00 cwt. Butterfat at farm 27c. Salem 28c.

Table with columns: Price paid to growers by Salem buyers, March 14, 1931. Rows include Apples, Veggies, and various vegetable prices.

Table with columns: Retail Prices. Rows include Calf meal, Corn, Cracked and ground, Mill run, Bran, Egg meal, and various other items.

Table with columns: Retail Prices. Rows include Wheat, Barley, Oats, and various other grain prices.

Table with columns: Retail Prices. Rows include Hops, Walnuts, and various other nut prices.

Table with columns: Retail Prices. Rows include Hops, Walnuts, and various other nut prices.

Table with columns: Retail Prices. Rows include Hops, Walnuts, and various other nut prices.

Other Livestock Down Slightly; Hops are Bit Improved

PORTLAND, March 14.—(AP)—Improvement in hog prices, but slight falling off in other livestock, was the only change in the general market situation this week. Hogs were up about 25 cents. Heavies, 250 to 300 pounds, were quoted at $6.75@7.75; mediums, 200 pounds, were $7.35@8.25; lights, 160 to 180 pounds, were $8@8.35, all up a quarter. Feeders and stockers were unchanged at $7.50@9.

There was no change in the wheat list, with Big Bend at 67 cents. Oats was the same at $20.50@23. Hay, buying prices, f. o. b. Portland, were: Alfalfa 14-15, valley timothy 15-15.50, eastern Oregon timothy 17, clover 11, oat hay 12, oats and vetch 12. Straw was $7.50 a ton.

There was no change in wool at 11 cents for Willamette valley coarse, and 15 cents for medium. Prunes were about the same at 6 to 8 1/2 cents for Italians.

PATTON IS RENAMED JEFFERSON LEADER

Other Teachers Relected At School Meeting may Cut one Instructor

JEFFERSON, March 14—At a meeting of the Jefferson school board of District No. 14, on Monday night, the following teachers were re-elected for the coming year: Lyman W. Patton, superintendent; Miss Frances Chambers, commercial; Miss Maud Durfee, history and civics; Mrs. Flo Young, seventh and eighth; Miss Francis Flores, fifth and sixth; Miss Geraldine Register, third and fourth; Miss Bertha Dillon, first and second.

"Murder at Eagle's Nest"

in "Belle of Broadway" and I tell for her as everybody else was doing, only harder. Something about her to drive one mad. We went to Paris. We danced there and in London—around. She ditched me when she began to get famous. I—well, you couldn't blame her. I wasn't anybody much and there was no limit to where she could go. Ambitious was she? You see? I didn't expect to speak to her, but I kept remembering. That's hard to understand, I guess.

"A Lost Combination"

Walter said harshly, "Go on." "I read in the paper she was coming to America—coming to visit Mrs. Hardy. So I got a job as butler, since I figured I couldn't get in any other way. Didn't expect to speak to her, you know. I just thought, say, it's funny how things work out:

U. S. RIDER IN GRAND NATIONAL

The only American who will ride in the Grand National Steeplechase, England's turf classic, regarded as the most grueling race in the world, is Albert G. Bestwick (above). He is affectionately known in Eastern social circles as "Pete," and is without a peer as a gentleman rider and also shines as a star poloist.

"You understand," Walter asked him, "where you're standing now?" "Oh, . . . I'll not try to get away, if that's what you mean I'm willing to take whatever's coming to me, I suppose. The price of folly. Bim felt sorry for him as he went away slowly, his head bowed. Had he told the truth? She would have said yes. And yet. 'It was then that Chief Fury paid an unheard of midnight visit to the station house. (To Be Concluded Tomorrow)

"(C)r'abbing the act"

By CLIFF STERRETT

MICKEY MOUSE

"POLLY AND HER PALS"

"A Wise Cracker"

By BEN BATSFORD

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

By JIMMY MURPHY

"In for a Long Siege"

By JIMMY MURPHY

TROOTS AND CASPER

By JIMMY MURPHY

"Happy Birthday"

By JIMMY MURPHY

"A Wise Cracker"

By BEN BATSFORD

"In for a Long Siege"

By JIMMY MURPHY

CHEMAWA TO HEAR, SEE PLAY MARCH 18

KEIZER, March 14—Arrangements have been completed for the community club play to be given at the M. W. A. hall near Chemawa March 18, at 8 o'clock.

The Chemawa band has been secured to furnish special numbers before the play and between acts. The personnel of this play is composed of not only amateurs, but of some who have become professionals on the stage. Lester Evans and Glenn Savage have taken part in all but one of the plays given at Keizer and have rendered their parts exceedingly fine.

Ruth Reynolds is now in the plays at Keizer and foolishly mixes the ghost, Mrs. Eva Keno is to be commended for her excellent coaching of the home talent. Kathleen McCrae Leads Sheep Club

By IWERKS