

Society News and Club Affairs

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

Reception Finale To B. & P. W. Week

A BRILLIANT reception brought to a conclusion the observation of national Business and Professional Women's week in Salem. The reception was held in the social rooms of Lausanne hall. Here during the evening from 10 o'clock many of the members of the women's organization of the city called to pay compliment to the hostess club.

The lovely rooms of Lausanne hall were arranged in splendid and dainty manner with daffodils, forsythia and plum blossoms in large arrangements.

The oval service table in the small reception room was centered with a low, oval basket of daffodils, heather, acacia, roses, tulips, and iris in special shades of pink, blue and lavender. Crystal and silver and tall green tapers completed a very lovely table. Mrs. Russell Catlin and Mrs. F. A. Elliott presided at the service table.

The reception concluded a busy week of events for the club. A breakfast in compliment to the club president, Mrs. Mona Yoder, introduced the week's activities. A banquet was sponsored Wednesday night in the Masonic temple. Special talks have been made in the schools by members of the club on the work of women in the world and other interesting activities have been carried on in compliment to the national week being observed all over the United States by Business and Professional women.

California House Guest Complimented

An attractive card evening was given this week by Dee Himes at his South Winter street home in compliment to Elwood Tatman of Los Angeles, Calif., a house guest at the Martin home.

Winning scores were held by Miss Ruth Powell, Elsworth McClary, Miss Bernice Terman, and Floyd Albin. Following cards a late supper was served with Miss Agnes Axe assisting Mrs. J. M. Martin in serving.

Guests in compliment to Mr. Tatman were Misses Evelyn Ruthford, Eilvina Kasberg, Agnes Axe, Betty Wolniak, Ruth Powell, Gladys Powell, Eula Pence, Esther Scottard, Bernice Terman and Elsworth McClary, Floyd Albin, Ray Bickford, Roth Powell, and Kenneth Martin.

Mothers' Circle Meets

Grand Island — The Mother's circle held their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Asher. Roll call was answered by each giving some item of current events. The business meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. Grace Wiley.

Mrs. C. L. Fowler of the Unionvale district was an especially invited guest for the purpose of explaining to the club in full detail the object and functioning of the county and state federation of clubs.

She gave some very interesting items concerning the same and some of the more important accomplishments of the organizations.

Due to a small attendance the final decision as to the Mother's Circle becoming a member of the federation was postponed until the next meeting, March 25 to be held at the home of Mrs. Anna Umbanhour.

After the business meeting, a short social time, under the direction of Mrs. Hattie Letley, was enjoyed. At the close, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. George Asher. There were six members present and two guests, Mrs. C. L. Fowler and Mrs. L. V. French.

The Liberty Community club met Friday evening in the community clubhouse and enjoyed the presentation of an excellent program given by the Liberty Boys chorus, and readings and musical numbers by Orpha May Dasch, Teddy Gordon, Beverly McGilchrist, Robert Hutcheon, Joe Williams, William McGilchrist Sr., James McGilchrist. The Boys chorus which is under the direction of Prof.ameron Marshall of Willamette university sang for the first time Friday night and had to sing without a director because of the illness of Prof. Marshall. However, they gave an excellent performance.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of Leslie Memorial church will meet Wednesday at 2 o'clock in the church parson. There will be, in addition to the regular program, special features in commemoration of Founders Day. Mrs. J. S. Murray is the hostess.

An interesting dinner party with covers for seven will celebrate the eighty-sixth birthday of Sol Levy at his home today. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Levy of Portland will be special guests. Spring flowers are to be used for table decorations.

Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby gave a recital at her home Saturday night. Pupils taking part were John Magussen, William Blakeley, Eleanor Kref, Dorothy Barker, Fred Magussen, Alice Barkus, Eleanor Wagner, Helen Neiger, Irma Leach and Wallace Guthrie.

Gwendolyn Stollker spent Friday in Portland where she is taking up piano with Ruth Bradley Keiser.

Central Howell — Mrs. Lester Leighty entertained in honor of her small daughter, Grace Marie, on her fifth birthday anniversary Saturday. Little girls present were Geroldine Olson, Irma Ku-east, Barbara Hoadley, Irma Cowden and Grace Marie Leighty.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Monday, March 16

Stated communication, Willamette Shrine, White Shrine of Jerusalem, preceded by dinner at 6:30 o'clock, Masonic temple; for reservations call 2285M. Salem Dakota club, 7:30 o'clock, special meeting and presentation of two act play. History section of Salem Arts League, home of Mr. and Mrs. John Clifford, 1535 Perry street, 7:30 o'clock. South Division Women of First Presbyterian church, Mrs. Anna Winter, 951 Oak street, 2 o'clock. Study classes of Salem Woman's club, 8:30 o'clock in club house.

Tuesday, March 17

Salem Writer's section of Salem Arts league, 8:00 o'clock, Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Clements, 350 North 14th street. Kappa Alpha Theta guest of Mrs. Guy Vincent Smith and Mrs. Tom Wood, apartment 208, Royal Court apartments. W. C. T. U., all-day meeting, potluck dinner at noon. George Alexander and Frank Minto special speakers in afternoon meeting. War Mothers of Salem chapter, 2 o'clock, in American Lutheran church; St. Patrick's program and social meeting. Etokta Woman's club, Mrs. Vard Hughes, 1945 Chemeketa street; Mrs. Addison Lane lead study on Oregon history. Past Noble Grand association, with Mrs. Hodge, 1270 Chemeketa, 7:30 o'clock.

Wednesday, March 18

McCormick class of First M. E. church, Ralph Kietzing home, 8 o'clock. Woman's Foreign Missionary society, 2 o'clock, in church parlors of Leslie Memorial church.

Thursday, March 19

Faculty Woman's club, Miss Helen Pearce, hostess at home, 267 North Winter, 2:30 o'clock.

War Mothers Plan St. Patrick's Program

THE American War Mothers of the Salem chapter are anticipating a pleasant afternoon Tuesday beginning at 2 o'clock, when the chapter meets to observe its regularly monthly social meeting. This meeting will be dedicated to the spirit of St. Patrick and a program has been arranged by Mrs. Laura B. McAdams, chairman of the social committee.

Group singing will be enjoyed, the life of St. Patrick will be given by Mrs. Mettie Schramm. Ad-die Curtis will give a group of readings, Lyman McDonald will give a group of vocal selections and there will be other vocal and instrumental numbers offered.

All mothers of sons who spent time in the service are cordially invited to this meeting.

The social committee in charge of the afternoon is Laura B. McAdams, Flora Clark, Mary Kennedy, Mrs. Fred Erickson, Mrs. H. H. Cleaveland, Misale G. Keeney, Helen Carson, Myra Sawyer, Sophia Keene and Cora M. Price.

Members of Willamette Shrine, order of White Shrine of Jerusalem, will elect officers Monday evening following an anniversary dinner at 8:30 o'clock, which dinner will commemorate the ninth birthday of the order. Mrs. E. B. Babriel will receive dinner reservations by telephone, 2285-M.

Amaranth Grand Court Well Attended

The Grand Court of the order of the Amaranth which was in session in Salem all day Saturday attracted approximately 150 people here as guests, among them many of the grand officers of the state led by the grand royal matron and grand royal patron, Mrs. Jennie Smith and Guy Smith both of Portland. Mrs. Ione Ford of Los Angeles, supreme royal matron was also a visitor for this court meeting.

Election of officers was one of the important transactions of the day and resulted in the election of Mrs. MacL. Beck of Eugene and Robert Henderson of Portland for the offices of grand matron and grand patron.

A beautiful public installation was held Saturday night in the Masonic temple at which time officers took their places. Officers of the six courts of Oregon participated in the impressive service.

This morning special church services will be held in compliment to the lodge court at the Calvary Baptist church.

Oriental Dance Planned for Thursday

What promises to be a charmingly informal dance with the whole decorative and program motif bearing the imprint of the Oriental will be the annual spring informal given by the students of Mrs. White's school of the dance at Castilian hall Thursday night. Features will be special numbers on the dance program. Ruth Gillette is general chairman of the arrangements; Rosalee Neugebaum, Mary Jane Lau, Dorothy Kreps, Betty Vaughn, are in charge of the decorations; and Cynthia Delano and Roberta Varley are in charge of arranging the features.

Among the many people motoring to Portland Friday and Saturday for grand opera programs were Aldeane Smith, Faye Sparks, Grace Litchfield, Helen Pemberton, Ronald Craven, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albert, Miss Josephine Albert, Helen Cochran, Rosalyn Van Winkle, Lena Belle Tartar, Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks.

Miss Roberta Smith Is Tea Hostess

Miss Roberta Smith entertained at her home on South High street with a delightful afternoon tea between the hours of three and five o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Miss Jean Eastbridge assisted in receiving. Miss Margaret Corey presided at the tea table which was prettily appointed with silver, green candles, and a spreading arrangement of daffodils. Spring flowers were about the rooms in profusion.

During the afternoon hours about 20 invited guests called at the Smith home.

George Alexander to Address W.C.T.U.

An interesting lecture is being anticipated by the members of the Salem W. C. T. U. for Tuesday afternoon at the Union hall on South Commercial street at which time George Alexander, state prohibition officer, will speak as will Frank Minto, Salem chief of police.

The W. C. T. U. meeting will be an all-day meeting which will begin at 10 o'clock. A potluck luncheon will be served at noon. The speakers will appear on the afternoon program which will begin about 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Ada Jolley of Portland, state president of the union, and the county president, Mrs. Helen Prescott of Salem, are expected to be present.

Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin and Dr. and Mrs. A. Vassakas entertained a group of Willamette seniors at the Franklin home Friday evening. A delightfully informal evening was enjoyed.

Mrs. G. W. Ross entertained in compliment to her contract bridge club at her home Thursday afternoon. Following an afternoon of cards Mrs. Ross was assisted in serving tea by Mrs. Max Rodgers. Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. K. W. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Lute Jensen.

Bethel—The pupils of the upper grades of the Bethel school gave their teacher, Mrs. Carmille Weddie, a surprise birthday party Thursday evening. The party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Creech. A very happy evening was enjoyed. Gifts were presented to Mrs. Weddie, and games were played. At the close of the evening refreshments were served.

Those present were Clarence Bolling, Hilda Bahnsen, Wanda and Gertrude Froehlich, Dean and Junior Lauderback, Evelyn and Norma Jane Boles, Mary and Lois Hamrick, Helen Schulz, Lorraine Strawn, Isabelle and Ha May Creech, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Creech and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boies, who very kindly brought the pupils and after the party returned them to their homes.

INTRODUCING the new 1931 Echophone RADIO

Superheterodyne... 8 Tube... 4 Screen-Grid

see it

hear it

SENSATIONALLY LOW PRICED

$ 69.50

A Dream Realized

A SUPER-HETERODYNE "ECHOPHONE." We never expected to be able to offer one... and if we had expected it... certainly nothing as sensational as this one. IT HAS EVERYTHING that you would expect an Echophone to have... PLUS a lot of things you never thought possible. The most beautiful... the most compact... highest powered... most selective... sweetest toned midget ever produced. WE MEAN IT!

Note These SPECIFICATIONS!

8 Tubes — 4 Screen-Grid Tubes — 2 No. 245's - Push-pull — Large Dynamic Speaker — Tone Control Switch and Volume Control Combined — Illuminated Dial — Kilocycle Marking — New Cabinet Beauty.

May Be Purchased on Our Budget Plan

C. S. Hamilton
FURNITURE CO.

240 Court St.

Early Spring Styles

Ladies' Pumps and Ties

In all the approved leathers—dull black kid, green and blue calf as well as nut brown kid are the first things to be shown. All prices are lower. We are able to show a very large selection of pattern shoes at—$10.

Florsheim—Archpreservers for Men

We have just received our complete Spring stock of these two famous lines and we are now ready to fit the "man who cares," in the proper style as well as the proper size.

Florsheims $10.00

'Archpreservers $12.50 - $13.50

