

NORTH HOWELL GRANGE MEETS

Indorses Economy Work of Governor Meier is Report

NORTH HOWELL, March 17.—The regular meeting of North Howell grange was held Friday evening in the hall with all officers present except three, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Coomler and L. A. Esen.

The following candidates received favorable vote: Myuene Nora and Russell Leichty, Earl Rutherford, Sidney Jackson and Eddie Schubert.

The chairman of the executive committee, E. G. Wiesner, called a "man and boy" meeting for next Saturday at one o'clock to continue work in the grove.

Clearing out the fence row, grubbing out some bushes and trees and burning the brush will be some of the "entertainment" promised so please come prepared to help the work along.

The ladies decided among themselves that those who could, would also meet at the hall on the same afternoon and continue work on the quiet.

Hall Considered

The topic of a new hall was discussed and opinions for and against the building were expressed but no definite action was taken.

The chairman of the agricultural committee announced that a meeting of all the agricultural committees in the county would be held with Red Hills grange at Liberty, on March 25.

The social night committee for March announced that a splendid program of music and readings from a Portland order had been promised for March social night, that grangers and their families were invited and that a pot luck supper will be served.

The home economics chairman Mrs. A. T. Cline, appointed Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Waltman and Archie and Alan Wiesner to serve on the social night committee for April.

Program Pleases

During the lecturers hour the following program was presented by the officers:

"Idea for the Good of the Order," Daisy Bump; solo "A Georgia Lullaby," Mattie Vinton; encore, "At the End of a Cobblestone Road," reading—"The Song of the Lazy Farmer," M. A. Dunn; monologue, Mabel Drake; agricultural number—"Alfalfa" by A. B. Wiesner; reading—"Trees" by E. G. Wiesner; reading—"The Kings of Oregon"—Florence Odie; "Why the Low Price of Eggs," Mrs. A. T. Cline; "The Farmer's Wife," Anna Dunn; pantomime, "Pokey Huntus"—arranged by Helen Wiesner.

The following resolution was offered and adopted by North

Howell Grange No. 274 in regular session assembled on March 13th.

Governor Sustained

Whereas, Governor Meier has, in the interest of economy and with sound business judgment erected his veto power in matters of apparent waste and extravagance in recent legislation.

Be it resolved by North Howell Grange 274 in regular session assembled that we do indorse and commend said action in the interest of the tax paying public, and that a copy of this resolution be given to the press and a copy sent to the governor's office.

Signed, Daisy Bump, master, Billis Stevens, Secretary.
