

Patrick Ireland Can't See Green

ATLANTA, Ga., March 15.—(AP)—Patrick Ireland of Dublin, Ga., R. F. D., tried to enlist in the Marine corps today. Ireland was "color blind" and was rejected. He failed to recognize green.

SLADE PUT ON HYDRO BOARD

Local Banker and B. L. Eddy of Roseburg Chosen By Governor

(Continued from page 1) where he was identified with the Bank of Nova Scotia. When he came to Oregon he became an examiner for the state banking department and later was made an examiner of the federal reserve bank. He returned to Salem to make his home in 1924, taking the vice-presidency of the First National bank when that financial institution followed the Capital National bank. In 1930 he became president of the bank following its merger with the Salem Bank of Commerce.

Active in other businesses in the city, Slade has also been a leader in several civic projects. Recently he was appointed a member of the Unmulla Rapids association by Governor Meier. Eddy, dean of the State Law School, Senator B. L. Eddy, known as the dean of lawmakers in the 36th legislative assembly, is a native son of Washington county. He was graduated from the University of Oregon school of law, first president in Portland, later moved to Tillamook and then to Roseburg where he has made his home for many years. He served in the legislature in 1901 and 1903 in the house of representatives. Elected a state senator in 1917, Eddy has served continuously in the upper house since that time. He made a determined fight in the senate for the state constabulary bill, standing with the governor in his desire for the centralization of the enforcement arm of the government. His appointment is thought to have been made partly because of the service rendered the chief executive of the state and partly because of Mr. Eddy's known admiration for the staunch integrity exhibited by Eddy. He took a leading part in the formation of the state tax program, urging the increase of the intangibles tax to eight per cent and holding that no money should be refunded for the 1929 intangibles tax until the matter had been carried to the United States supreme court.

STATESMAN'S ROLL OF HONOR GROWING

Friday night the West Salem players under the direction of Perry Raigelman will again present the "Mummy and the Mumps," a play which has been repeated by popular demand several times since it was first presented February 5 and 6 in West Salem.

The production is being offered this time as a benefit to the indebtedness fund of the Ford Memorial church, and as such all receipts will be turned over to the church. The play is a comedy which has drawn all manner of enthusiastic comment concerning both its humor and the way in which it has been produced. The characters are taken by Lyle Thomas, Curtis Ferguson, Charles Wright, Vernon Stahl, Ray Ferguson, Bernice Woods, Dorothy Bancroft, Martha Warren, Vida McCaulley, Esther Henningsen.

Today at Warner Bros. Elsinore will be shown "Outward Bound," a play with a highly unusual plot. A supernatural background is built up to support the story of two people who love well and bravely. It is a daring story which completely absorbs the attention. As a stage play it has met with long popularity and it will be most interesting to see what the screen and such actors as Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Leslie Howard, Beryl Mercer, Dudley Digges, Alison Skipworth, Helen Chandler, Alec B. Francis, Montagu Love, and Lyonal Watts will do with it. As a play "Outward Bound" is far beyond the ordinary and excites much fine acting of its characters. It is good to have it come to Salem.

Bearcat Coeds Debate Against Missionaries

Willamette university women will meet women of Whitman college, Walla Walla, Wash., in a debate Wednesday night in Waller hall. The time for the meet is scheduled for 7:30 o'clock. The question for debate is to be the same as that debated with the women of the University of Idaho last week: "Resolved, That Gandhi has been a benefit to India." The local women won last week's debate. Tonight the locals will uphold the affirmative of the question, while the visitors will argue the negative.

DISTRICT DEBATE FINALS THURSDAY

Finals in the middle Willamette district debates for the state league will be held Thursday night, with Salem, Alsea and Corvallis vying for the honors, it was learned here yesterday. The line-up for the three-way debate is as follows: Alsea affirmative vs. Salem negative, at high school auditorium here; Corvallis affirmative vs. Alsea negative, at Alsea; Salem affirmative vs. Corvallis negative, at Corvallis high school. Howard Teeple and Harold Pruitt will handle the affirmative of the china store question for Salem, and Eleanor Barth and Ward Horn will debate the negative.

HOOPERS COME FOR BIG SHOW

Hostilities Scheduled to Start at 3:30 Today At Willamette

(Continued from page 1) on, all-state forward in 1930, all-star guard in 1932 and high scorer in the tournament for Salem, Bone, Sachtler, West, Sigmund and Foreman. Graber is the other player and was held out of the tournament last year on account of the mumps. At 11 o'clock this morning the teams and coaches will meet with Coach "Spec" Keene at Willamette university for a preliminary gathering. Following this, the Rotarians will furnish a luncheon for the teams at the Marston hotel. Baker, Ashland and Astoria were the first teams to arrive, being here late Tuesday. Baker, traveling the farthest, 360 miles, was the first to arrive. The Baker crew left home Monday and spent that night in Portland, reaching Salem at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. Coach "Spec" Keene reports that everything is in readiness for the tournament and has been personally supervising the job of righting the gymnasium for the event. "Spec" has worn an old tattered jacket the last few days and has done as much work as anyone.

WORK ON SANTIAM ROAD STARTS SOON

(Continued from page 1) The highway contract some days ago. The agreement with the railroad has already been gone over and approved by the federal road officials, there was no doubt here that when members of the county court signed on the dotted line yesterday the matter was ended. Roadmaster Johnson and Commissioner Jim Smith, were in Portland Monday afternoon relative to the matter, and brought back some encouraging reports following conversation with Engineer Lynch of the federal road bureau, which is matching at least $100,000 with the county court on the construction. Lynch said the route would be the finest highway across the Cascades, and would, when finished, carry most of the eastern and central Oregon traffic from Klamath Falls. He said also that the fact that a total of $200,000 has been appropriated does not mean necessarily that work will stop when the eight miles now contracted by the government is completed. If there should be a sizeable surplus, work will probably be continued beyond the eight-mile point.

New York and Pittsburgh programs OTHER RADIOS CANNOT GET enjoyed by San Francisco woman using

PHILCO

SUPERHETERODYNE-PLUS ELEVEN TUBE RADIO

Read the statement of Mrs. N. H. Carter describing the remarkable performance of her Philco Superheterodyne-Plus! Mrs. Carter resides in a steel-frame apartment building at 825 Coary St., San Francisco, only two blocks from KFRC and close to KPO. Reception conditions there are very poor. Nobody else in that building, she says, gets distant programs. Yet her Philco brings in New York and Pittsburgh perfectly!

Only PHILCO Does This...

That's because no other radio has the tremendous power and selectivity of the new Philco. No other radio has ever combined the sensitivity and selectivity of the improved Philco Superheterodyne circuit with the huge power of eleven tubes (four screen-grid), the marvel of Philco Automatic Volume Control, which counteracts fading; the wonder of Philco four-phase Tone Control, which brings in the program the way you like it; Philco Balanced Units, which prevent tone distortion; and Philco Balanced Tubes, which make any set better.

Proved In Your Own Home!

These seven great features combine to produce a radio that is absolutely incomparable, far superior to any other you ever heard. Any Philco dealer will be glad to prove this by letting you try this wonderful new instrument in your own home, FREE and without any obligation whatever. That's just what we mean... FREE; it will not cost you a cent!

Easiest Payment Terms!

And you can own this great Philco on the easiest payment terms imaginable. Only a few cents a day make it yours.
