Formal Parties Smart Affairs Of Week

Two of the smartest affairs of the week and among the very smartest affairs of the spring have been the two card evenings given by Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kugel, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Colony and Dr. and Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Monday and Tuesday of this week. Entertaining was done in the beautiful Willamette Lodge country club rooms. Cards were in play at 12 tables in the card room which had been decorated with bows of winter jasmine, daffodils, and green leaves. Between the many small painted windows were hung Indian tags and tapestry for added color. The room is done in green, black and Japanese red and the ensemble effect was a beautiful place for cards at tables where were seated ladies in colorful evening gowns and men in formal dress.

Following cards the guests were taken to the lounge dining room gay with all the tokens of St. Patrick. Two long tables seated the guests. Upon the center of each table were trailing ivy leaves. In the center of each was a long basket filled with a spreading arrangement of bridal wreath, daffodils, and tulips. Scattered along the table were brown skinned potatoes proudly bearing the shamrock of Ireland. The menu completed a perfect St. Patrick's motif for the table decorations.
