WOODBURN, March 18 at Woodburn high school Friday night to attend a father-and-son banquet given by the members of the vocational agriculture department at the school.

Those present enjoyed a deliclous dinner. The agriculture boys furnished all the food. The meal was prepared by the girls of the domestic science department under the direction of Hrs. R. L.

At the banquet some of the boys gave talks concerning vocational agriculture. Frank Bartos talked on project work, Harold Yoder told about stock judging and Gerald Nibler explained the purposes and working of the Future Farmers of America clubs. Ronald, M. Burnett, agriculture instructor, told of the purposes of agriculture courses in high schools. P. J. Schneider and Lonnle Yoder, fathers of two of the boys, gave a few remarks when called upon. Eugene Courtney, local banker and chairman of the Oregon state bankers agricultural committee, gave an impromp-tu speech. He told many interest-ing facts about his recent speak-ing tour, which took him into many of the western states. Mr. Courtney got the opportunity to go on this trip as a reward for putting the Oregon agriculture committee of state bankers ahead of any other state committee in achievement, Harold Owings, president of the F. F. A. club, acted as toastmaster. After the banquet the fathers were shown through the large farm shop.
