

EARL M. LANE FUNERAL HELD

Victim of River Accident Laid to Rest in Belle Passi Cemetery

WOODBURN, March 26.—Funeral services for Earl M. Lane, who was drowned in the Molalla river Monday morning while working in a gravel plant, were held Wednesday afternoon.

The funeral services were in charge of Rev. Glenn S. Harrison, pastor of the Woodburn Methodist church. A men's quartette composed of George Landon, S. E. Brune, J. H. Livesay and Dr. W. Bladorn, sang two beautiful selections. They were accompanied at the piano by Miss Wilma Morrison.

Pallbearers for the funeral were Earl Hartman, Chris Blichsel, Otto Ligard, A. L. Coote, R. B. Williams and Arthur Dodson. All the pallbearers live in Silverton.

Many people attended the services and interment, which was held at the Belle Passi cemetery. The grave was covered completely with beautiful floral pieces and bouquets.

COUNTY I. O. O. F. GROUP ELECTS

INDEPENDENCE, March 26.—The Polk county Odd Fellows visiting association met Wednesday evening with the Independence lodge. A very large crowd was present, about 300. Ballston, McCoy, Monmouth, Falls City and Dallas were represented.

This was the last meeting of the season and the following officers were elected for the coming year: president, Tom Graves of McCoy; vice president, E. F. NORMAL DEBATORS BACK FROM TRIP

MONMOUTH, March 26.—The Oregon Normal school's women debaters returned Saturday from a four days' trip through Washington, going north as far as Seattle.

Winnebath McDowell and Lois Detenbeck accompanied by Coach Berreman made the trip. Free Trade was the question debated.

On Wednesday, March 11, they met the College of Puget Sound, and lost by a small margin. The following day they debated with a team from the Pacific Lutheran college, with the same result.

On Friday they held a cross-question debate with the University of Washington's freshmen. This was a no-decision debate.

Debates scheduled for the near future are: March 26, with Eastern Oregon Normal; March 27, a dual debate with Oregon State college freshmen; March 30 with the University of Southern California women's team and the College of Pacific from Stockton; and with Mills College on a date as yet undecided.

R. N. H. HOLDS DISTRICT RALLY

SILVERTON, March 26.—The Royal Neighbor district rally held at Silverton Tuesday night was very well attended, 120 people being present. Mrs. Peterson, district deputy, from Salem was a special guest. Mrs. Peterson gave an interesting talk during the evening.

Mrs. Florence Nesheim Cook, orator, was in the chair and gave the address of welcome. The program opened with the presentation of the flag. Readings were given by Carl Corbin, Miss Corbin; a stunt, "One of the Rainbows," by the green division of the order; songs by Miss Corbin, and Mrs. Howard; an amusing radio broadcast by the Orchid division with Mrs. Will Egan as announcer; a "Spring Opening" displaying the styles of many years ago. Mrs. Theodore Grace was the "modiste" who announced the various fashion models. She herself wore a white embroidered gown, four yards around the bottom.

At the close of the program, supper was enjoyed in the dining room.

Silverton Hills Grange Fights Sale of Oleo

SILVERTON HILLS, March 26.—Whereas the dairy industry is one of the leading industries in Marion county, and whereas all the merchants in several towns in our county have quit handling butter substitutes.

"Therefore be it resolved that we cooperate with other farm organizations in the county by appointing a committee to work with the committees from other organizations in asking all merchants in Marion county to quit handling dairy substitutes. Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Pomona Grange," was a resolution passed by the Silverton Hills Grange No. 743.

Henceforth the grange will hold two meetings a month, the first and third Friday of each month.
