Camp Fire Girls Of Hubbard Meet

HUBBARD — Mothers of the Idaho Camp Fire Girls and the Smiles Blue Bird girls were guests at an impressive Council Fire ceremony held by the Idaho group at the Camp Fire room Thursday evening.

The mothers were costumed to represent their ancestral countries as follows: Mrs. Stuart L. Johnson, Holland; Mrs. Edward Wolf-er, Ireland; Mrs. John Claypool, England in the Puritan age; and Mrs. Waldo F. Brown, an English lady; Mrs. Nova McKenzie, wearing the red-white-blue and Mrs. J. R. Biggood, Scotland and Ireland. Mrs. Coleman, a mother of one of the members, was another guest.

The mothers expressed their enjoyment of the program which included the awarding of honors, and the conferring of ranks, and the receiving of new members by the guardian, Miss Gungadene Bidgood, also talks and readings by the girls, followed by luncheon.

New members received were Miss Iris Moomaw and Miss Mildred Coleman. The girls taking Woodgather's rank were, Miss Marion McKenzie, Miss Dorothy McKay, Miss Betty Brown, Miss Eleanor Johnson, Miss Beatrice Claypool and Miss Helen Claypool.

The Fire Maker's rank was taken by Miss Anna Knight and Miss Marjorie Woller.

The Blue Bird girls—Phyllis Brown, Carol Erickson, Marjorie Moore, Ruth Jungnickel, Barbara Cornell, Bernice Stevenson, Carol Moomaw, Marjorie Rich and Shirley Bontrager — introduced by their leader, Miss Helen Knight, responded by giving their flower names. The Blue Birds then took their places within the Camp Fire circle and sang the Camp Fire song, "Mummy Moon."

An interesting program followed the Council Fire including the following numbers: Fantomina, "Star Spangled Banner" by Miss Marion McKenzie; flag salute by all; talk "Our Birthday Project" by Miss Helen Knight; Holland nursery rhymes by Miss Dorothy McKay; song by Camp Fire girls; a letter from a French English student in France to one of the French students at Hubbard read by Miss Anna Knight; an organ solo by Miss Marjorie Woller; reading by Miss Gungadene Bidgood.

Independence. — Mrs. Elmer Busby entertained friends at her home Friday. Time was spent in conversation and needle work. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess to the following guests, Mrs. Lee Okelley, Mrs. Henry Best, Mrs. Pearl Hodges, Mrs. Percy Dickinson and Mrs. Willard Craven.

Quartet Program Is of Unusual Beauty

FOR the past few years there has been heard much discussion in musical circles of one Ernest Bloch, composer, who made his presence known with deep impress when he won a national prize contest with his symphony "America," which in 1928 was given a simultaneous premiere all over the United States by many symphony directors.

The Nea-Kah-Nie string quartet will bring Bloch's latest creations out of the filmy fiber of sound, to Salem when they present "Night," "Alpestre" and "Tongataboo" a group of three numbers Tuesday night in the aristocratic old home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Patton.

It is going to be an experience worth having to hear this modern music from the mind of an American by hearing, although a German by birth, in the surroundings of the lovely Victorianism of the Patton home.

The Nea-Kah-Nie quartet has been receiving such high acclaim in all the programs which it has given, both in Oregon and in the tour from which it is only just returned that the last program to be given in Salem this year will be received with more than usual interest.

It seemed that the second program given in the O. F. Johnson home in which was featured the grand and inspiring music of Caesar Frank with Mrs. W. H. Burghardt as artist assistant could not be overshadowed by anything done later by the quartet. The program which it has planned to present Tuesday night bears evidence of closely approaching this last program.

There is a large membership in the Salem Chamber Music society but it is also being made possible for the public to enjoy this last program through the purchase of tickets at the Gilbert Studio, according to announcement made by Mrs. Maurice Gilbert, president of the society.

The program which will be heard Tuesday night in the Patton home is as follows:

Beethoven . . . Op. 95, F Minor Allegro con brio
 Allegretto ma non troppo
 Allegro assai vivace ma sostenuto
 Larghetto espressivo—Allegretto agitato

Bloch
 Night
 Alpestre
 Tongataboo
 Dohnanyi . . . Op. 15, D Flat Major Andante, allegro
 Presto acclacato
 Molto adagio animato.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Darby and small daughter, Shirley Anne, of Portland are spending the weekend at the home of Mrs. Anna Junk and Bertha Junk Darby.
