

GO to CHURCH on EASTER

RICHES is power, and "greater riches hath no man" than a contented mind which is nurtured by a sense of the spiritual. The peaceful beauty of choral rhythm . . . the inspiration of words voiced by one of God's chosen representatives . . . is spiritual food that no man need be denied if he attend the church of his faith.

For six hundred years Westminster Abbey has cradled the earthly remains of England's great men.

It was opened for service in 1269 by Edward the Confessor.

The Poet's Corner, Coronation Chair, Tomb of Henry VIII, the Nightingale Monument, Longfellow Bust, and Tomb of Mary Queen of Scots are its most interesting features, and are seen every year by travelers from all over the world.
