4-H Members Preparing to Display Work They Accomplished

LIBERTY, April 8—Plans are moving forward rapidly for a school and 4-H club work exhibit. This exhibit will be during an afternoon and evening near the first of May. The pupils of the school are completing their projects so as to be able to display them at the exhibit. The Pig Club and the Bake 'em Good Cooking club will both have exhibits at the school.

Monday afternoon the 4-H clubs of the school met. The Bake 'em Good cooking club under the leadership of Dorothy Judd, met in Mr. Meyer's room. It was decided to give a tea in honor of the mothers on Saturday, April 18 at the hall. All members are planning to send an exhibit to the County 4-H club fair. The demonstration team, consisting of Alice Cunningham and Helen Dasch are working very hard to perfect their demonstration and many neighbors of the two can testify to the deliciousness of their cakes. The team will demonstrate Friday evening, April 10 at the community club.

The Pig club under the direction of Mr. Meyers met in the library and carried on the usual business of the club.

LIBERTY CLUB TO PRESENT PROGRAM

LIBERTY, April 8—One of the most varied and interesting programs of the year has been prepared for the Liberty Community club on Friday evening, April 10, at Liberty Hall. The business meeting is to begin promptly at 7:30 and at 8:00 o'clock the program commences, which consists entirely of local talent. There is to be a two-act play "The Red Lamp" which is filled with mystery and thrills. Those taking part in the play are: LaVern Oakman, Harold Judd, Pearl Scott, Harold Pruitt, Mrs. Bruce Cunningham, and Frank Judd. Of special interest will be the program offered by the four contestants of court contest, Alice Cunningham who will represent Liberty in the Declaratory contest at Silverton on April 17th will give a reading. The Boys chorus who are striving for honors in the community club contest are also slated. The Demonstration Team which is to compete at the County 4-H Club Fair will demonstrate the niceties of the Angel-food cake baking and the baseball teams of the school are to be honored at this time.

ALL BUTTER PRICES A CENT LOWER INSECT DAMAGE REPORT IS BULLISH

Cabbage Supplies are About Exhausted; Onions Arrive

PORTLAND, April 8—(AP)—With quotations unchanged, wholesale egg markets continued in the same technically weak position at opening of trade today, due to liberal receipts of 2 1/2 grade eggs. Butter prices dropped a cent all along the line late in the day.

Country dressed meats and poultry markets opened steady.

Government market news service reported highlights of the fruit and vegetable trade as follows:

Local cabbage supplies are practically exhausted, and remaining stocks are now selling at 1 1/2 cents per lb. to growers. California cabbage is now being offered at 2c. Local and Roseburg cauliflower is scarce, best flower moving to retailers at $1.50 per crate.

First new Texas Bermuda onions were received yesterday via express. A straight carload is now en route from Texas to the northwest, due to arrive at Portland in about a week. New garnet potatoes from Colma, California, show the best quality of any, new offerings thus far this season. Price to retailers is around 8c per lb.

Upswings However not Extensive due to Free Selling

CHICAGO, April 8—(AP)—Increased attention to likelihood of widespread damage from insects this year owing to the unusually mild winter had a bracing effect on grain prices today. However, all grains met with free selling on the upswing, and receded in the late trade. Export business in North America wheat totalled but 500,000 bushels, and there were predictions that the greater part both of domestic winter and spring wheat territory would receive beneficial moisture. Wheat closed nervous, unchanged to 1/2 cent higher, corn 5-8 to 3-4 off and oats at 1/2 decline to 1/4 advance.
