J. S. Landers Loses $30 in Cash; Other Homes Ransacked

MONMOUTH, April 8.—Thieves entered the home of J. S. Landers, president of the Oregon Normal school, sometime Monday night. Cash amounting to $30 was taken from purses belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Landers. Mr. Landers had cashed a check that afternoon preparatory to leaving the next morning for the meeting of the Inland Empire teachers association meeting at Spokane. The Landers family who were asleep upstairs were not disturbed. Entry was made by way of the kitchen door and the lower floor was ransacked but only the money was taken. Three other houses were entered the same evening. That of E. C. Cole in the block next the Landers home, that of Fred O'Rourke and Mrs. Martin Gronwald were all ransacked. Mrs.

WATER PLAYS PRANKS Grand Island Becomes Near Lake in Flood LAND DAMAGE SLIGHT

GRAND ISLAND, April 8.—The residents of the island community were among the many people who experienced the thrills and worries of the recent high water. From the time the water first started rising Tuesday morning there was indeed no time wasted until it reached the climax Thursday noon. By Tuesday night people had moved their stock and implements off the low lands and by Wednesday afternoon the roads were flooded enough to prevent traffic on and off the island. Wednesday found every one preparing to be ready for water which might cover most of the higher land as well as the low lands. Mrs. Will Umbanhour succeeded in saving a flock of over 200

Telephone Lines Down Telephone lines were disconnected Thursday due to the water, and the repairing of the telephone wires. Several early gardens stood under a great many feet of water for a few days with logs and other debris floating over. Some of the gardens received very little damage while others were quite seriously washed. Every farmer who possessed a boat availed himself of the opportunity to move logs, stumps and other debris off the fields while the water was high as this method is considerably quicker than by the use of horses. The school duties were resumed again Monday morning after having been closed since Wednesday noon. There were only a few residences where the water reached the homes and had it not been for one farmer who had the misfortune of loosing an innumerable number of sheep and goats the water did the island people a great deal more good than harm in drowning out the hosts of field mice, gophers and moles which had collected and multiplied since the last high water which came four years ago last February.

HIGH WATER STOPS SCHOOL BUSES

CLEAR LAKE, April 8.—Quite a number of children were absent from the Clear Lake school part of last week due to the high water in South Prairie. Water covered the LaFollet and Clear Lake bridges so that several families were marooned and the school bus was unable to gather up a number of high school students. Several of the students came out when the water began rising and stayed with friends until the water went down. The Jorman, Lake Brook and Parker hop yards were all covered with water and a large part of the Chapin bulb farm was covered. Little damage was done to the flowers since the larger part of the early blooms were gathered and it is thought that the tips will not be hurt.

MEN GRANGERS GIVE PROGRAM

JEFFERSON, April 8.—Men members of Morning Star Grange were featured on the program during the lecturer's hour at the grange hall Saturday evening. Readings given by Gerald Truax, B. McDonald, and Delmer Davidson were very much enjoyed and applauded. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. At the next meeting the women will serve refreshments. Paul Smith, farmer living on the Green's bridge road, who under went a major operation at a Salem hospital a month ago, returned to his home Friday. He is still quite weak, but is improving rapidly. Miss Helen Kils returned to Mill City Monday evening, after spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kils. She was accompanied by Miss Marguerite Looney, who is also employed in the school here.

STAYTON JUNIORS SPONSOR 'JUNKS'

STAYTON, April 8.—The junior class of Stayton high school is presenting a "Junior Junk" Friday night, April 10, with the intention of raising money for the Junior-Senior banquet which is to be held soon. This will be a fine entertainment with many musical numbers, a group of chorus girls, tap dances, and some humorous numbers thrown in for good measure. The finest talent of the school is going into this show and it will probably be one of the best of the year. It will be held in the high school auditorium, on the stage which has just been remodeled and redecorated for the senior play.

POWER PLANT CLOSED

SCOTT'S MILLS, April 8.—The Butte Creek Light and Power company has been closed down on account of damage done to the plant and turbine during the recent high water, and the P. E. P. from Portland have been furnishing power, until the local plant is repaired.

BRIDGES UNSAFE

SCOTT'S MILLS, April 8.—Two bridges between the Coleman and Steele property on the Abiqua were damaged by the high water and is unsafe to travel over them until repaired.
