LEAGUE WILL REPEAT DRAMA

Performance, "In His Strength" at First M. E. Sunday Night

The University League of the First Methodist church will repeat its performance of the drama, "In His Strength," at the church auditorium Sunday evening, April 12, at 7:30 o'clock. The drama was first presented several weeks ago. Many requests to have the play repeated have been received, and the evening service hour will be given over to it this week.

The play is to be given under the dramatic department of the league with Virginia Durkee as chairman. Miss Margaret Stevenson, director of religious education, is coaching the cast which is composed of the following students:

Peter, the Apostle—Eugene Smith
Adah, his wife—Ruth Schreier
Zillah, her mother—Jeanne Forrest
Andrew, Peter's brother—Wesley Janke

John, the beloved disciple—Melvin Zahrlay
James, another disciple—Willis Hershey

The lighting effects will be handled by Forest Holladay. Wesley Janke will be stage assistant and Virginia Durkee will be costume chairman. Blanche Reese will have charge of the stage design and scenic effects.

Stretch your dollar

ADVERTISING helps you stretch your dollar. You do not need to shop around all day to find what you want at the price you can afford to pay. The advertisements in the newspapers tell you where you can buy it at the lowest price. Advertisements save you time, save money, save physical effort. They make buying easy and sure.

Advertising enables the woman in the home to compare values without moving from her easy chair. She can shop comfortably in her own living-room. When she was decided what and where to buy, it takes but little time and effort to complete the purchases.

Women appreciate the advantages of advertising. They trust it. They believe in the goods advertised . . . and buy them.

Annual State Conference Of Evangelical Churches Will be in New Structure

Few church conferences have the privilege of helping to dedicate a beautiful new temple of worship, but that will be one of the enjoyable features of the Oregon conference of Evangelical churches, which opens here Wednesday, April 16, and extends through Sunday, April 19. Already nearly 100 registrations for the conference have come in.

The new Evangelical church structure at Summer and Marion streets will be occupied for the first time tomorrow, which means that it will be literally a few days old when Evangelical pastors and lay delegates from all over the state gather here for the annual session. Pastors will open sessions preliminary to the main conference Tuesday night.

Program for the conference, highlight to Salem people of which will be the dedication of the edifice Sunday, was announced yesterday by Rev. A. P. Layton, pastor.

Rev. J. H. Baurensfeld, superintendent of the Deaconess hospital of Chicago, Ill., will be the speaker at the early session Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

The Wednesday session will open at 8 o'clock in the morning when the board of examiners will meet, with Rev. Carl Heinmiller presiding. The conference missionary society session will be held that morning at 10 o'clock with Rev. D. R. Koffman presiding and at 10:45 o'clock the Students' Aid society will meet with G. F. Lehning, Jr., presiding.

First meeting of the conference proper will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Bishop G. E. Epp, D. D., in the chair. Dr. E. G. Fry, editor of the Evangelical Messenger, of Cleveland, Ohio, will bring the message Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

The Thursday conference sessions open at 9 o'clock in the morning, continuing until 11:45 o'clock and from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The evening program, starting at 7:30 o'clock, will see showing of lantern slides and a lecture by Bishop Epp, a member of the commission which visited the Orient. Thursday night will be given over to missionary program.

Friday will be the big day for the youth of the state, with the night session to be given over to a rally in charge of Rev. Lyle Willard of Monmouth.

The session for Saturday, final day of conference, will see dedication of the church and the beautiful Robert Morton organ. The program for that day includes the regular bible school session at 9:45 o'clock, with Supt. L. L. Thornton in charge. At 10:45 o'clock Bishop Epp will preach the sermon and ordination of junior preachers will follow.

The organ concert dedicating the new organ will be held at 2:15 o'clock. Program for this will be announced later. Dedication services for the church edifice will be held at 2:45 o'clock, with Bishop Epp delivering the sermon. Bishop Epp will preach the closing sermon at 7:30 o'clock, this service to end with reading of the appointment of ministers.

Women of the host church will prepare meals for all conference attendants at a nominal cost.
