

Legion Junior Ball Players Lined up for Local Teams

Portland's Big Berthas Bombard Seals' New Park for 17 to 0 Win

SEASON DUE TO START SHORTLY

Tossers Well Divided as to Positions Preferred; Shifts are Likely

Like the magician's bunions, junior baseball players were drawn out of a hat by the four team managers Saturday afternoon and lined up for the impending season which will start in about ten days, and practices will start immediately.

The players are asked to report at once to their respective managers so that means of contact may be established. Valley Motor team is in charge of "Mut" Deitz, Gardner will have direction of the Cherry City Baking company outfit, Jack Elliott of the Guardian Building and Loan, and Douglas McKay the McKay Chevrolet. If the players can't find the managers they should consult Cliff Parker, secretary of the local league, at the Cadwell and Parker sport goods store.

It so happened that the boys divided up well for positions. There were just four pitchers, four catchers, eight first basemen, four third basemen and eight who preferred the spots around second base. There was a dearth of outfielders, but several other boys signed up for any infield position, so there are 11 players on each of three teams and 12 in the Valley Motor outfit. Managers may now recruit any other eligible players available, and shift their players to suit requirements. Each team now has two first basemen.

Following are the teams: Cherry City Baking Junior Ritter, infield; Bob Cannon, 2b; Millard Groves, outfield; Robert Conley, 1b; Lester Brown, p; Richard Praz, 2b; Charles Emerick, outfield; Waldo Delaney, infield; Tom Allport, c; Kenneth Morgan, 2b; Bob Johnson, 1b.

McKay Chevrolet Ralph Maddy, c; Clarence Prange, ss; John Perrine, p; Victor DeJardin, outfield; Doph Witzel, 1b; Ira Wintermute, infield; Russell Freeman, infield; Joseph Wright, outfield; Sidney Wiederhorn, infield; Frank Van Pelt, infield; William White, 1b; Alfred Neubaugh, 2b.

Guardian B. and L. Leonard Faust, p; Dan Maestrett, c; John Kelley, 1b; Ray Elliott, 2b; McCarthy, 2b; Parker Gies, 2b; Ernest Stalnbrook, ss; Herbert Glaisyer, 3b; Art Stubbfield, outfield; Bob Kerdotz, outfield; Jim Money, infield.

Indian Mound Novice Beats College Nine

CHEMAWA, April 11.—In the first game of his career, Peter Saltice, under the able guidance of Roy Meachem, catcher, pitched the Chemawa Indians to a 6-to-3 victory over Linfield college here today. With plenty of speed, an occasional curve and good control the young Redman kept his team in the lead and Linfield in hot water throughout the nine innings. He struck out 10 batters, allowed only three hits and walked two men. Hutch, pitcher for Linfield, allowed nine hits and walked one man.

Ferdinand Thomas filled the place at third of George Thompson, who is out with a wrenched knee. Though not as good as Thompson with the bat, Thomas plays a good game and will fit in nicely with the rest of the infield, which is working with considerable smoothness and speed.

Uriah Alexander and Peter Hall at short and first base respectively, accepted several difficult chances and came through with bat a single bobbie, in collecting 10 hits the Redmen showed considerable improvement with the bat over their showing with Silverton. Hostetler, left fielder for Linfield, made the sensational play of the game when he took Vireto's long fly over his shoulder and saved a couple of runs on what would have been the longest drive of the game.

Chemawa Infield Meachem, c; Stewart, 1b; Hutch Hall, 2b; Robbin Kalama, 2b; Hugg Alexander, 3b; Gwin Thomas, 3b; Eckman Masten, 3b; Woods Corbett, 3b; Holly Vireto, 3b; Hostetler Umpire, Kitchin.

Yankees Better Than Joe McCarthy Rated Them, He Says; Mum on Prospects

(Note: This is the sixth of a series of statements on prospects of the coming Major League baseball races, written for the Associated Press by the club managers.)

By JOE MCCARTHY, Manager, New York Yankees A stranger in the American league, it would be folly for me to predict how the pennant race will be run and so I can make no pretense of being able to tell where the Yankees will finish.

I know that the Yankees are a better ball club than I thought they were before I came south with them. I believe they will make a better showing than they did last year. Whether this will be good enough to win a pennant for them I do not know and will not even be able to guess until the race is well under way and I have had a good look at the other teams.

By BILL MCKENZIE, Manager, Boston Braves The Boston Braves are stronger at this time than they were at any time last season. Worthington, whom we purchased from the Rochester International, has come up to our expectations as a Major league ball player. Sheeley has given us added strength in the infield and Wilson, a young third baseman, will be given opportunity to show that he can hit Big league pitching as his fielding is above the average for a young fellow breaking in.

Our pitching staff, with Zachary, Frankhouse, Sherdell and McEfee, whom we did not have at the start of last season, should give us a better balanced corps.

Hillsboro Game Today is Still Uncertain; Will be Played if No More Rain

PROSPECTS for the Portland Valley league opener here today between Salem and Hillsboro, appeared brighter Saturday night, some portions of the playing field remaining a bit damp but the final decision resting on today's weather.

About the only advice that can be given the fans who are hungry for their first sight of the new stadium and the old game, is to turn out at Olinger field at 2:30 if they figure the weather is such as to make play possible.

Little is known here of Hillsboro's strength except that Lefty Schwab is no chucker in a match pellet for the Weiler's All-Stars in the Oregon-Washington league two years ago, is said to be slated for mound duty. If so, he and Johnny Beck may figure in a checker's duel, especially in view of the small amount of practice which has been possible to date.

Swartz pitched two tight games against Salem season before last but didn't have the hitting support and lost by narrow margins in one of those wet, stormy, and just wandered into the lake. He quotes an old Indian whose father said he had seen many buffalo in the Harney lake district. While the men were there more than 100 years ago. Mr. Lytle might get some light by reading the journal of Nathaniel Wyeth or that of Peter Skene Ogden. We don't remember that the mentioned buffalo, but it has been several years since we read those records.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 11.—(AP)—Eight teams will start their pennant quest in the Portland Valley league tomorrow. With five new clubs in the circuit and all well-balanced, a big year is expected, says Bill Heales, veteran prey.

Vancouver barracks will meet the Harry Compton team at East 22nd and Powell street, while Hillsboro will travel to Salem. Ever-Ready Pharmacy will play Newberg, and Gresham will meet Vancouver at the first game will start at 12:30 p. m., the others at 2:30 p. m.

The new teams are those from Vancouver barracks, Salem, Gresham, Compton and Vancouver barracks. Big things are expected for the Vancouver barracks team, which was in the league three years ago. It is under the direction of Lieutenant Ferenbaugh, director of post athletics and public relations.

Mr. Damon contributes; I read your little verse my boy, It almost filled my heart with joy. I'm sure you don't say what you mean, "The Valley's Sky is most serene."

"Cause when I looked thru window pane Naught did I see but just the rain. Now you understand, Mr. Damon, that the paper goes to press an hour or more before you get up to read it, and we can't be blamed for any changes in weather between times.

The penitentiary ball team's second game Saturday afternoon man just now. He made some errors in the game with Willamette yesterday and that always makes a hit with the boys.

Trout season opens Wednesday morning an hour before dawn. Don't be impatient boys, it's costly.

The outlook for early season fishing is not so good as it appeared a month ago before the big treshet, but neither is it poor. Rivers and streams are rapidly resuming normal flow.

Of course there'll be a big army of anglers on the first day but Sunday will be the banner day. The usual excursion will go to Valselt Sunday, a Valley and Siletz special train leaving Independence at 4:15 in the morning, arriving at Valselt at 6:15 and starting back that night at 6 o'clock.

Bobby Listed On Silverton Card Monday

Monday night Bobby Ambrose will fight "One Round" Shuley at Silverton in a six round semi-windup to the Snell-Joerg bout.

Big Bill Vogel works out at the same place and had his first fight in Portland Tuesday night on the Bearcat card. Big Bill waded in from the first and scored the first knockdown and although he lost the fight on a technical knockout, his aggressiveness colored the bout so that it completely stole the show. Big Bill was his opponent and had had considerable boxing experience.

McCann Goes Out of Class In Next Bout

Wildcat McCann finds it hard to get matches so now he is going to get out of his weight again and take on Thor Jensen of Olympia at the armory Thursday.

Very few men of his weight can throw McCann and it seems that none of them are fond of taking him on. Jensen weighs about 20 pounds more than McCann and will give the local limb twister all the competition desired. The two met here some time ago and went to a two-hour workout with each taking one fall.

Jensen has defeated Wildcat Pete, Mervin Barrackman and many other fast men and recently won a decision from Gus Kallio, world's middleweight champion. He uses his feet more in wrestling than any other grappler who has appeared here this year. His long arms and long legs give him a great advantage in breaking holds, which he does in a gentle manner.

The Wildcat is more than gnashing his teeth and is even wagging his tail to and fro, so to speak, to get back in the ring with a tough opponent. In his match with Reed here he appeared to be in perfect condition and nothing seemed to hurt him. He was in good hope and knew it, and he told Reed several times while they were wrestling that he would make a nice mess of Reed before it was all over.

CASCADE NINES TO LAUNCH OUT

Hill's Candy and Reator Outfit Will Clash on Aumsville Diamond

TODAY'S SCHEDULE South Section Hill's Candy Factory vs. Tucker's Reators at Aumsville, Aumsville at Jefferson. Station at Lebanon. North Section St. Paul at Mt. Angel. Brooks at Amity. Dayton at Yamhill.

Today 14 baseball teams in the Cascade league will launch their drives for the 1931 championship in what promises to be a hotter race than for the 1930 championship.

Last summer good ball was played in the league and much interest was manifested. The teams were loyal to their teams and gave good support. Turner won the championship last year and reports an even better team now. A number of the other teams have also been strengthened and are out to turn the tables on Turner.

The league is divided into north and south sections and playoff for league champions will start July 19. Sixty-nine games will be played in both the north and south divisions.

This year two Salem teams will enter the league. Hill's Candy factory and Tucker's Reators are the local clubs and both report good lineups. Since no field in Salem is available for today's game between these two teams, they will tangle at Aumsville.

When the Senators are playing away and Olinger field is in condition, some of the Cascade league games will be played here.

Today's lineup for Hill's includes: Bashor and Barnes, catchers; "Egbert" Wilson and Ferguson, pitchers; Sheller and Harvey, first base; Smith and Albers, second; Nutter and Fish, short; "Buck" Smith third; Bacon, Colgan, Gene Ferguson, F. Colgan, Hornberger and Morarity outfielders.

TURNER, April 11.—Turner and Mill City baseball teams will cross bats Sunday on the Gray Digger field in the first game of the season of the Cascade league. Fred Mitchell is manager and believes he has an unusually strong team.

Husky Crews Set Records In 3 Events

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND OAKLAND, Calif., April 11.—(AP)—Pulling down the home stretch with a mighty surge of power, Washington's varsity crew defeated California today in a three mile classic that climaxed a day of brilliant achievements for northern oarsmen.

Fifty thousand voices sounded a roaring welcome as the slender husky shell shot across the finish mark to set a new course record of 14 minutes 53 4-5 seconds and complete a clean sweep of three races—varsity, junior varsity and freshmen.

No greater triumphs have been written into the records of 28 years competition than those claimed by Washington today. Its freshman boat, manned by a group of potential champions, paved the way to new and stunning feats today by winning the two mile event in record time of 9 minutes and 56 seconds.

Washington's junior varsity squad followed with another sensational victory and although the winning margin of a half a minute was trifling compared to the freshman boat's lead of six lengths, the Huskies also posted a new course record. The junior varsity's time was 15 minutes 30 seconds, compared to the old mark of 17 minutes 27 seconds made by California in 1927.

The local teams have practiced several times each and have plenty of life, being composed mostly of young players.

Sequin, Blaco, Lyons, Herberger, Tucker, Burch, Heenan, Fabry, Deetz, Lauderback, Zengle and Johnson will appear on the field for Tucker's.

The game will start at 2:30 on the Aumsville field.
