

ROBERTS' CLUB INTEREST KEEN

Excellent Program Enjoyed By Large Group at Meeting

ROBERTS, April 13.—The community club meeting Saturday night was full of interest and excitement from start to finish. A large crowd attended. Some of the program features were pronounced by many as being the best that have ever been put on here.

Lewis Satchenburg, a member of the program committee, announced the program which was as follows:

Male quartet, S. C. Davenport, George Higgins, George Veall and Gordon Greenstreet.

Dance, Joyce Chambers. Piano solo, Mrs. George Higgins.

Humorous skit, "Ancient and Dismemberable Order of Bald-pates." W. C. Pettyjohn; High-u-muck-a-muck, Sir Danderine; George Veall, Sir Herbitie; George Higgins, Sir Bay Rum; Roy Rice, Sir Sheep Dip; E. D. Fidler, the nuptial spot after undergoing several amusing tests, was pronounced ineligible to wear a small hat for the rest of his life to cover his bald spot. The skit was original with Mr. Pettyjohn.

Song, Naomi Crouser and Rose Anne Goodrich accompanied by Frances Blankenship on the harmonica and Dorothy Salchenberg at the piano.

Dialogue, "Newspaper Perplexity" by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blankenship as Mr. and Mrs. John Script. Mrs. Script, reading the newspaper, asks innumerable questions much to her husband's disgust, though he found them hard to explain to her. Vocal solo, Miss Mary Kafoury. Piano solo, Mrs. Forest Edwards. Vocal solo, Miss Julia Query. Reading, Mrs. H. B. Carpenter. Duet, Mrs. Della Nelson and Mrs. Forest Edwards.

Play, "The New School Ma'am." S. C. Davenport as Hank Wetherby, and George Veall as St. John, school directors; Mrs. W. C. Pettyjohn as Gladys DeHaven, the prospective teacher. The old directors are so captivated by her charms and flattered by her compliments that they make fools of themselves. The play brought peals of laughter from the audience. The acting was excellent.

Shadows are sold. After the program came the auctioning of the shadows for supper partners. Lewis Salchenberg was the auctioneer. The proceeds amounted to $32.

During the business session Mrs. W. C. Pettyjohn was named as chairman of the committee to arrange for presenting a number in the contest at Salem Heights. Officers for the club for next year will be elected at the first meeting this fall.

Roy Rice, president of the Robert's club, has been a very capable leader. His plans for programs have resulted in unusually interesting meetings and there has been a fine spirit in the club.

GERVAIS STUDENTS STAGE COMEDY

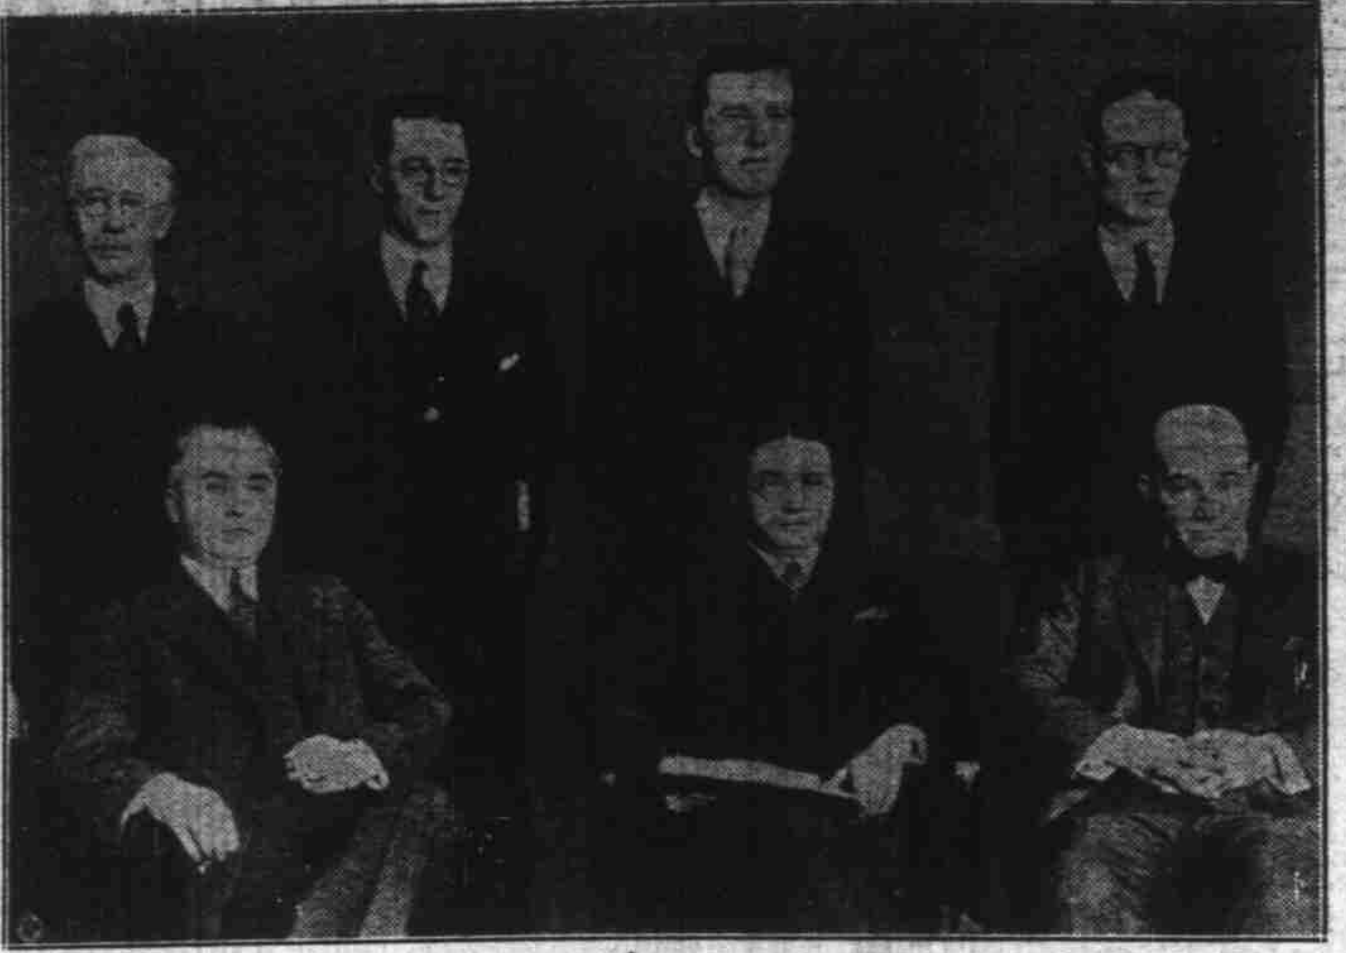

GERVAIS, April 13.—"Yimmie Yonson's Yob" put on at the city hall Friday night by the high school student body was one of the best ever in Gervais for some time. The proceeds were around $75.00.

Seated, left to right, are Senator McNaboe, Senator Hofstadter, chairman, and Assemblyman Cuvilier. Standing, Senator Wheatley, Assemblyman Lamont, Assemblyman Potter and Assemblyman Moffat. Half million dollars will be available for the investigation.

STAYTON PLANS FOR CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGN

STAYTON, April 13.—Enough can not be said about some of the grossness of this town, take for instance two lots south of the Women's club house and owned by the city, a bramble of wild blackberries, willows and old car bodies. The matter was recently brought before the town council, which promised that as soon as the weather permits this property will be cleaned up. Then too, some of the business houses are in the habit of dumping refuse out on the alley, where they do not have to view it, but where nevertheless it is anything but attractive to the passerby.

The promiscuous dumping of trash along the road south of the city limits is another thing that should be stopped. The city maintains a public dump grounds just across and west of the town, which for this purpose, and the dumping of old junk in places other than the one allotted for such use is a violation of the city ordinance.

The town council plans to take steps to prosecute all persons guilty of dumping junk anywhere within sight of the road. As is, many drive almost to the lane leading to the dumping grounds, but go no farther, just simply unload there.

LABISH CENTER TO HAVE PROGRAM

LABISH CENTER, April 13.—Comedy and advertising motion pictures, presented by a Salem service station, will form the entertainment at the April meeting of the community club at the schoolhouse on Tuesday evening, April 14. Winding up their year's activities, the Cook-well and Sew-well 4-H clubs celebrated the 100 per cent completion of their projects with a style show and open house Friday afternoon at the schoolhouse.

Parents of the clubbers comprised the audience of the following program: Club pledge and singing of "America," by all; vocal trio, Virginia Miller, Annabel Bennett and Phyllis Isham; talk, "Aims and Goals in Club Work," Kathryn Blanton; piano solo, Bernadene Daugherty; readings, Francis Isham, Clyde Boehm and Bernadene Daugherty; song by

STREETCAR PROBE WILL OPEN FRIDAY

Arrangements were completed here yesterday for the hearing of the so-called Portland street car fare case, which opens Friday morning before C. M. Thomas, public utilities commissioner. Officials said it would require two or three days to complete the hearing.

The case originated on April 23, 1929, when the Portland Electric Power company filed a tariff with the old public service commission increasing its adult street car fares from 7 to 10 cents. Provision was made in the tariff for the sale of children's school tickets at the rate of 20 for $1.
