Marshal Takes six Single Handed Recently

MONMOUTH, April 13-A sensational burgiarly occurred early Friday morning in Monmouth when a group of six men entered the Associated and United Purity store at corner of West Main and North Monmouth avenue at 1:39 o'clock and stole a quantity of groceries and tobacco, They broke in at the rear door, departing in a Hudson coach toward Indepen dence were immediately follow by Verd Schrunk, city marshal, who by some sixth sense became aware of their depradation. Endeavoring to ditch the officer, they ran down a lateral street and got stuck. Schrunk single-handed, took charge of the situation, helped them to extricate their car, and then ordered them to proceed back to the business section. He summoned traffic officer, W. J. Mulkey, and a search of the strangers' car disclosed two loaded revolvers and an unloaded rifle, and plenty of cartridges, in addition to the looted goods from the Associa-ted store, which consisted of 21 cartons of cigarettes, several hams, cheese, candy and other incidentals, totaling about $50 worth of plunder. A quantity of other articles found in the car are believed to have been stolen elsewhere.

Sheriff T. B. Hooker and deputy sheriff, Senter, came from Dallas and ushered the sextet to the Polk county jail. After a hearing they were each given 30 days, and their records will be investigated. Names and places of residence: Two brothers. Roy A. Gray and Ward H. Gray, San Diego; Wilson H. Armstrong, Ernest MacGee and W. J. McLean, Jr., Van Nyse, Calif., and Dave Brotten, Wesley, Calif. They are all between the ages of 19 and 22, and had $23 in ### cash among them. Their car had been stolen at Van Nyse.
