EDUCATION MEET DEEMED SUCCESS

Attendance Light However, Reports Supt. Hug on Return From Spokane

The present so-called economic depression was evident in the reduced attendance at the Inland Empire teachers' association meeting in Spokane last week. Supt. George W. Hug said yesterday upon return to his desk here. Not more than 2200 teachers were there this year, as compared to the 5,000 in attendance last year.

The Northwest secondary and higher teachers, of which association Hug is president, had the best meeting in its history, the superintendent reported. This group met Monday and Tuesday preceding gathering of the Inland association.

A number of interesting reports were presented at the Northwest section, including one on how the lower group of high school graduates do in college. While the tabulations showed some variance, it was found that not infrequently low high school students do much better work in college.

The Northwest association is creating this year a new office, the holder to edit all reports and handle publicity. This officer will be appointed at meeting of the executive board in Seattle May 1.

Supt. Hug holds over for another year as officer of the smaller association.

Of interest to Salem is his report that he arranged for Prof. C. G. Brosnan of the University of Idaho history department to address a meeting in Salem the latter part of May. Brosnan gave an interesting address on "Jason Lee and Old Oregon" before the teachers, and Mr. Hug has asked him to repeat it before Salem teachers and townspeople. Brosnan told of a number of letters he had received from Jason Lee, and related many facts about his life not commonly known.

Bourbon Women Demand Raskob Be Thrown Out

WASHINGTON, April 14.—(AP)—A threat of revolt against the democratic party unless John J. Raskob resigns as chairman of the national committee came Monday from within the biennial convention of the national women's democratic law enforcement league.

Coupled with this demand were attacks upon Governor Roosevelt of New York, former Governor of Maryland, and former Senator Reed of Missouri.

ROSE SHOW ENTRY CONSIDERED HERE

Whether or not Salem will enter a float in the Portland rose festival parade this year is the subject of discussion when representatives of the chamber of commerce, the woman's club the Business and Professional Women's Club, Cherrilans, Rotary, Lions and Kiwanis met with E. C. Harlan of the Oregon state chamber of commerce and Lynn B. Sabin of the Rose Festival committee on Monday.

ELECTION IS NEAR FOR SENIOR HIGH

All appears quiet in the various high school clans right now, but if history repeats itself here as elsewhere, intermittent sky rockets will flare in the near future. For a month from today, May 14, nominations for associated student body officers for 1931-32 will be made.

Student body nominations usually call for a bit of flurry at the high school for each "party" in the school is keenly anxious to get its members over the first hurdle preliminary to election. And so, from now on, the "party" leaders will be running the light and will be paid women and men candidates and swapping and compromising with the next door clan.
